FIRST USE OF RESINOL STOPS TERRIBLE ITCH

When Other Treatments Gave No Relief. Suffered Eight Years, But Resinol Cured in a Week.

Jan. 27, 1914: "I suffered over eight years with eczema. It started in one little place and kept spreading until it covered my hands. My hands looked like they had been burned by fire and peeled off in large pieces until they were only raw flesh. I was told it was eczema. It itched and burned me so that I could not sleep at night. I tried all sorts of eczema salves and one prescription after another, but nothing gave me any relief until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and after the first application my hands never itched or burned again, and were well in one week. I want every sufferer from eczema to know that they can find a cure in Resinol." (Signed) Miss Ethel Scott, Milstead, Ga.

M'SHANE RAIDS ROAD HOUSE

Over Hundred Inmates Evade the Sheriff's Raiding Force.

TEN CAPTURED IN THE RUSH

Are Brought to the County Jail and Will Be Arraigned Before the County Court—One Held as Proprietor.

In a midnight raid on the Riverside club an exclusive road house, beer joint and dance hall at Sherman avenue and the Missouri river bank, Sheriff F. J. McShane and four deputies arrested P. W. Elliott, 2714 North Twenty-second street, on the charge of keeping liquor for sale without a license and arrested six other men and two women as inmates, while over 100 other inmates of the place escaped.

Elliott pleaded not guilty when arraigned in county court before Judge Crawford on a complaint filed by the county attorney's office. However, he was bound over to the district court under bond of $1,000, which was furnished.

The persons arrested as inmates gave the names of Virginia Davis, Helen Nelson, Bob Prior, Dick King, R. B. Hughes, K. E. Williams and Carl Laurie. The women forfeited bonds of $20 each by failing to appear in court. The hearings of the men were continued until next Monday morning.

Raid Makes Confusion

Confusion was at its height when the raid occurred. Scores of fine automobiles, lined up along the road while the owners were enjoying themselves in the palatial joint, were driven away by the chauffeurs, leaving the owners on foot at the place. Twenty doors to the dance hall permitted almost all the inmates to escape, as the five raiders could do no more than each hold two people.

In the excitement following the raid, after visitors at the place had jumped out of doors and windows and off roofs, many were temporarily lost among the trees near by, or almost fell into the river while making their escape.

The report was new and was only opened for business last week. Its location would be 706 North Sixteenth, according to city street numbering, but it is outside of the city limits. It stands near the old Hamilton sawmill. A tip that the place was going illicit business led to the raid by Sheriff McShane and Deputies Palmer, Mahoney, Cassidy and Houston.

Elliott and the other prisoners were taken to the county jail by the officers in autos. Much liquor is held as evidence. The report was a government license, but no county license.

CELEBRATIONS IN ALL PARKS ON THE FOURTH

Members will be installed in all parks by Commissioner J. B. Hummel for the use of the Fourth of July celebrators. All of the parks have been asked for use on this day. Celebrations will be held in all of them. The case of L. L. Cantelero, Charndon, Tex., is similar to that of many others who have died Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says, "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months I bought a 2c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all druggists—Advertisement.

Bride-to-Be Dies After Wedding is Often Postponed

After his wedding had been postponed three times on account of an unfortunate accident Will Holden, Nineteenth and Ohio streets, and brother of Officer John Holden, was finally cheated of his bride by death.

Last September Miss Minnie Ashley of Lexington was crushed when a horse escaped from its stall and knocked her down. She was brought to Omaha on the day she was to have become Holden's wife. Her left leg was fractured in three places and she suffered internal injuries. When she recovered partly Holden furnished a nice little home and again sent out invitations. A relapse caused another postponement and later still another.

Miss Ashley died as the result of this injury at a local hospital.

WEEK'S LAKE TRIPS—All Expenses Paid

They have become immensely popular vacations, because the fare includes both state-rooms and meals aboard ship, passengers knowing beforehand exactly what their expenses will be.

Then, too, these cruises are cool and invigorating, there is no chance of being disturbed by business, and they appeal to a high class of patronage—seekers of a complete change of daily habit. The ports of call include the big cities on the Great Lakes and some of the foremost summer resorts where either long or short stop-offs can be made without additional expense.

Then there is the constantly changing panorama of passing craft and shipping scene—in fact the joys, which, before these 7 day lake cruises were inaugurated—were known only to wealthy yacht owners.

The Chicago Great Western, in a constant endeavor to popularize its travel service has undertaken to act as the Omaha agent of the line running these cruises.
