HE IS RESCUED HALF-DROWNED
Flea of Radical Member of Commons Presiding Asks Stewards Be Left to Handle Disturbers Unheeded.

LONDON, June 21.—A nearby artificial lake gave a big crowd a unique opportunity today to vent their wrath on suffragettes, interrupters of David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, who spoke at Denmark Hill, in the south of London, but chivalrous discrimination was employed as between the men and women disturbers, the women being chased off the grounds and the men being ducked in the lake.
Thomas J. McNama, a radical member of the House of Commons, who presided at the assembly, appealed to the assembled multitude to leave it entirely to the stewards to deal with the disturbers, but the request was disregarded. The man who fared worst was a clergyman, the woman being undisturbed by the fate that had befallen other disturbers, he demanded in stentor-ian tones to know why the government had not given votes to women. His clerical garb seemed to have the effect on the crowd that a red flag does on a mad bull.
They rushed and crowded him off his feet and pitched him headlong into the lake, from which, after frequent complete im-mersions he was rescued in a half drowned condition by a man in a boat.

Burns and News to Break Off Relations;
Meeting in Chicago

CHICAGO, Ill., June 21.—(Special Telegram)—W. D. Culver, editor-in-chief of the "Cleveland Newspaper syndicate," at which the Omaha Daily News is a subsidiary corporation, and Attorney J. W.
Woodruff of Omaha, who is acting for the Omaha paper, were closed yesterday in conference with Detective William E.
Burns for the purpose, it is said, of discussing in end relations which have thus far proved disastrous, both financially and otherwise, to both.
Such information as was obtainable today has it that the $5,000 bond forfeited a month ago by Operative Hansen, against whom warrants charging attempted bribery and conspiracy were issued, was put up by the Burns people with the understanding that the Daily News would pay it if it became necessary to forfeit it in order to save Hansen from prison. This alleged agreement the Daily News no longer desires to honor, it is said, and the incident was the cause of a wordy war which for a while threatened to disrupt the conference.
Hansen has until June 24 to appear in court to save the $5,000 bond.

Millionaire Guilty of Leasing Hotel for Immoral Use

CHICAGO, June 20.—Washington Porter, reputed a millionaire, charged with leasing a hotel building for immoral purposes, was found guilty and fined $300 by a jury here today. The prosecution alleged that Porter could not have been ignorant of the nature of the unusual income from this property.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., June 21.— Locked in a steel vault for two hours today, E. C. McMullen, vice president of the Northwestern National bank, worked his way past three steel doors with a small screw driver and escaped little the worse for his experience. He had entered the vault to repair the burglar alarm system and the doors were accidentally closed behind him.

Ninety-Four Bodies Taken from Mine

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., June 21.—The bodies of ninety-four of the 177 miners entombed when a terrific explosion wrecked the inner workings of mine No.
39 of the Hillcrest Alberta (collier) Limited, Friday, has been removed to the surface last night.
All hope of rescuing alive any of the remaining 103 members of the ill-fated crew that entered the mine yesterday had been abandoned.
The work was retarded somewhat by a fire that broke out in the mine today, but was only temporarily delayed.
That the explosion was due to the forming of gases in the lower levels of the mine has been generally accepted.
Two hundred coffins have been ordered from Winnipeg.
Practically the entire male population of the little mining camp was wiped out by the disaster.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR GIRLS TO BE OPENED AT Y. W. C. A.

An eight weeks' summer school for girls is to be conducted at the Young Men's Christian association building by Mrs.
Cora S. Anderson, principal of the Edward Rosewater school. The classes will be open to pupils of the seventh and eighth grades of the public schools, who may want to make up back work or anticipate their studies and will begin next Monday, June 22.

REPUBLICAN RALLY TONIGHT

Harmony Banquet to Call Forth a Large Gathering at the Rome.

SENATOR KENYON SPEAKER

Large Delegations Coming from the State—Republican County Committee to Meet This Afternoon.

Such a gathering of republicans has not been seen in Omaha since the Fairbanks banquet, and perhaps even a larger gathering than that, is likely to assemble at the Hotel Rome this evening for the republican harmony banquet at which Senator William S. Kenyon of Iowa is to speak. Representative republicans from various parts of the state have written in their intention of coming and have sent checks for tickets in bunches. In several counties the county republican chairman is bringing in adelegation of loyal republicans of from a half dozen to a dozen with him for the occasion.

Republicans of the Roosevelt leaning and republicans of the Taft leaning will fraternize at this banquet, will rub elbows at the table and will neither forget or laugh over the holding at the republican convention in Lincoln two years ago.
Evidence of harmony will be seen in the fact that A. C. Epperson of the Roosevelt wing of the party is to preside as chairman, and that E. M. Currie, who was chairman of the Taft wing of the party in Nebraska, is to respond to a toast on Nebraska politics. Senator William S. Kenyon of course is to be the principal speaker.
The republican county republican committees is to hold a meeting at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the hotel. They are to take up the matter of calling a county convention in Douglas county. They hope to finish their business in time to step in for the banquet at 6:30 o'clock.

Rush of Gold from U. S. Not Worrying
Treasury Officials

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Treasury department officials show only a passing interest in the phenomenal exportation of gold which is taking place through New York since January 1, the amount of gold exported has been about $70,000,000.
The gold reserve supply at the New York subtreasury was practically exhausted and over $40,000,000 worth of gold bars and coin was sent to New York last week from other subtreasuries.
"What difference does it make if Europe draws on us for $50,000,000 of gold or $200,000,000 worth?" John Burke, treasurer of the United States, remarked today when asked about the movement toward Europe. "The United States has plenty of gold. We are not like countries which have only a limited amount. We have more than a billion dollars worth of gold in reserve. A slight balance of trade against us can easily start the gold moving to Europe, and I wonder what that two railway corporations are about to retire some bond issues in Europe which must be met with gold."
Of the shipments of gold received in New York last week from other sub-treasuries, Denver supplied about $25, $50,000 and San Francisco also contributed a large consignment.
George E. Roberts, director of the mint, believes the new currency law will check the flow of gold to Europe.

Now is Your Chance to Win!
Go in for that Prize Essay

Written that essay yet?
Which one?
There's only one to write, that which you intend to send to The Bee, telling your answer to the question, "Who is Buffalo Bill?" But, perhaps you haven't heard about the contest? Very well, then—Colonel Frederick Cody, long a native of Nebraska, is coming to Omaha Tuesday, June 23 with the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill (himself). His riders are with him, his ranch girls, his ropers, his cow boys, his vaqueros, his soldiers and everyone else who can possibly depict the west. And there has grown so much interest in his coming that The Bee has arranged prizes of $15, $12.50, $7.50 and $5, fifteen prizes of two reserved seat tickets each to the circus and twenty prizes of one reserved seat ticket each for the best 200-word essay on the subject:
"Who is Buffalo Bill?" In the list of prizes, the third and fourth are reserved exclusively for school children of 16 years and under. However, this does not mean that a school child cannot win any of the other prizes.
We all know that Buffalo Bill is a fa-

KENNEDY PRAISES THEM ALL

Declares They Are Optimistic, and as Such They Are Great Workers for Upbuilding of State and Community.

Even as "Micky Brinkin had a bull pup" in the days of yore, so Micky Gibson is keeper of the bull at Ak-Sar-Ben Den. What has that to do with traveling men's night at the Den, which was Saturday night, when 400 traveling men were royally entertained? This has it to do with the traveling men's night. This said Micky Gibson's bull broke away from the sturdy Micky's roped around the bull to suit himself for a few minutes and woe to the corns on the feet of the traveling men.
The said bull stepped on the feet of a half dozen drummers of the best lung capacity, and that capacity was straightway revealed in the most lusty yells for help that have been heard in the Den since the days when the professor used to be wobbly about throwing his knives.
Nor was there method in the madness of the bull, for the breaking away of the bull was not a part of the scheduled program. No Micky was not tutored to let him loose at a given moment. Ardent and ably did Micky wrestle with the brute, but he slipped the noose and made his getaway.

Just a Harmless Brute.
After all he is a harmless little fellow.
He is the same little red bull that rode through the streets of Omaha with Everett Buckingham on a load of alfalfa hay, so he is not expected to gore anyone to death. But the mere thought of having a bull loose in the house in this city so close to the section of stock yards fame threw a fright into the hearts of some commercial travelers—a fright greater than was injected into them by the first gruff prospective customer they tried to sell goods to.

The bull was loosed, duly chained to his post and the performance reeled merrily on.
Traveling men's night at the Den was even a greater success than the management had anticipated. With 400 men who travel for Omaha manufacturers and jobbers on the job for initiation there was some talk before the formidable phalanx of evil ones whose business it is to manage the offenders and give them something to remember.

Thirsting for Adventure.
Four hundred and sixty husky traveling men, optimists, full-fishes and well fed, fastened with a thirst for adventure, took their punishment like pugs in the ring and came up grinning for more.
The house was packed with those who wanted to see. They wanted to see this bunch of huskies, this bunch of smiling fire-eaters go through the mill. Over 1,500 witnessed the fun.
It was announced during the evening that the membership of Ak-Sar-Ben now stands at 2,115. This is far ahead of the membership of this time last year.
John L. Kennedy, as chairman of the speaking part of the program, welcomed the travelers and hoped they would in the future build up Omaha by using that the means of building up the city in the past. He paid them a tribute by calling them optimists. "The pessimist can go anywhere and buy goods," he said, "but it takes an optimist to sell goods."

Missionaries of Commerce W. F. Baxter called the traveling salesmen the "missionaries of commerce" and told of the great respect he had for the traveling salesman ever since the day he got out years ago and tried to sell goods on the road. He spoke of the traveling men as the "missionaries of commerce" which Omaha, the chief city, can communicate with its "vassal cities." I. W. Pope of the traveling men spoke briefly and thanked the Ak-Sar-Ben organization for the entertainment. H. H.
Noar made a plea for more organization work among the traveling salesmen and urged them all to join the United States Protective association or the United Commercial Travelers. R. L. Newman spoke for the travelers and praised the organization of Ak-Sar-Ben "The best thing a man ever did was to be a booster," he said.

DEMS CHANGE LABOR CLAUSE Portion of Committee Revises Provision Relating to Injunctions.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The senate judiciary committee yesterday decided to eliminate from the house anti-trust bill words which lawyers say would legalize the blacklist. Although less than half of the committee attended today's session and action was described as tentative, the entire committee will approve.
As changed today the part of the bill relating to injunctions in labor disputes, reads:
"No restraining order or injunction shall prohibit any person or persons from terminating any relation of employment labor, or from recommending, advising, or persuading others by peaceful means to do so; or of peacefully persuading any person to work or abstain from working, or from ceasing to patronize any party to such dispute, or from recommending, advising, or persuading others by peaceful means so to do; or from paying or giving to or withholding from any person."

STURGIS, S. D., June 21.—(Special Tele-this morning announced the death at Hendley, Colo., from cancer of Mrs. Nellie McMahon, who was tried here in 1913 for the killing of Attorney David P. Thomas.

At that trial her attorneys interposed a plea of insanity. Later when brought before the Board of Insanity examiners, she made a claim that her attorneys had framed up her insanity plea and that the evidence was false.
She, however, was committed to the asylum at Yankton. Later she was given over to the custody of her friends. She returned to Sturgis and was again arrested charged with insanity and while awaiting a hearing escaped to Colorado, where she remained until her death. Her body will be brought here for burial.

APPLETON, Wis., June 21.—Three men over the dam and probable death, by Al-

The accident occurred a half mile above the dam, the four, clinging to the bottom of the overturned craft. Several experiwas impossible.

Ignoring the advice of friends, Priest

Brogan May Run
For Chief Justice;
Now Considering

A few days may find another candidate for chief justice of the state supreme court in the field, if F. A. Brogan, the well known Omaha lawyer, is brought to the view of friends who are urging him to go in for it. Mr. Brogan has been prominent in legal circles for about twenty-five years and active in state and national bar associations. He came to Omaha shortly after graduating from Harvard. He has manifested constant interest in politics, but not as an office seeker.
In the present instance, Mr. Brogan is said to have consented to consider the chief justiceship, because it is embraced in the new nonpartisan judiciary law, and the desire on the part of all interested to have lawyers of standing and experience in the final choice between the two candidates whose names alone go on the ballot for election.

CANT WAIT FOR LONG SPEECH

Orator Ross Hammond Warned Not to Talk Long, Because Young Folks Unwilling to Delay Strenuous Amusement.

Pioneers of Douglas county gathered on the spacious grounds of Rome Miller's home Saturday afternoon and celebrated another year of success, good will and fine living.
Ross Hammond was the orator of the day, but the pioneers, through Chairman W. I. Kierstead, warned him that he would be most welcome if "he cut it short," for George R. Rathbun was tuning up his old fiddle and the garage had been cleared for dancing.
"Don't you dare talk politics," warned Kierstead.
"Politics follow me everywhere I go," moaned Hammond. "And you know I don't seem to be able to live it down.
I'm not a politician. I'm not a candidate for governor and won't be until Monday, when my duties as collector of internal revenue expire."
Rome Miller followed Hammond and in a happy speech expressed his pleasure that the reunion was so well attended.
He looked over the crowd of "youngsters" and told them that his medicine chest was full of serviceable medicines, but a little later he shook his head and admitted that these pioneers were far from the need of medicine, for they were dancing all over the lawn.

PEACE DOINGS NOT OVER YET

Niagara Falls Conference Will Be

PRESIDENT IS VERY CHEERFUL

Wilson Issues Statement Asserting Outlook in Mexican Situation is More Hopeful Than Ever—Bryan Optimistic.

SALTILLO, Mexico, June 18.—Via Laredro, Tex., June 18.—Hostilities will not be suspended between the constitutionalist forces and the forces of Huerta, according to the note to the Niagara mediators, which General Carranza will dispatch to them tomorrow. After a long conference with his advisers, General Carranza decided today that the request of the mediators could not be granted.
The text of the reply to the mediators was not made public as it has not been transmitted to them.
Eugenio Cabelero, who was to have been one of the Carranza representatives, was still here today.
Angeles Removed from Cabinet.
General Felipe Angeles, acting secretary of war of the constitutionalist cabinet, was deposed from that position today by order of General Carranza for disobedience of orders.
No further details of the action reached here beyond a statement that Angeles had received certain orders from Carranza and had failed to carry them out.
General Angeles is general of artillery in Villa's army and a strong Villa partisan. His removal from the cabinet reduces him to the rank of general. He is a graduate of Chautauque military academy and has played a prominent part in Villa's campaigns.
It was reported here that General Manuel Chao, former governor of Chihuahua, who was replaced by General Villa, had been executed on Villa's orders.
Another Week of It.
"NIAGARA FALLS, Ontario, June 21.— Instead of adjourning abruptly as had been expected, the mediation proceedings will be prolonged for perhaps another week.
The change was brought about as a result of the visit of Minister Noan of Argentina, where he conferred with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. Noan brought back a spirit of optimism and some ideas which he imparted to Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil and Minister Suarez of Chile.
It was announced after their talk there would be no conferences until Monday.
Near Villa Declares for Angeles.
The Mexican situation here resolved a telegram today from the consul of their government at El Paso, Tex., that General Villa had issued a statement addressed to the American people saying that he had proclaimed General Angeles as provisional president of Mexico.
The consul added that, according to intercepted private messages at Juarez, reports of an amicable adjustment of the differences between Carranza and Villa were not true. He also said word had reached him that Carranza was quietly sending a force of 2,000 men into the state of Sonora with the intention of deposing Governor Maytorena, with whom Carranza was reported to have had differences.
Report Not Verified.
EL PASO, Tex., June 21.—Reports from Niagara Falls that Villa had proclaimed Angeles for provisional president were not verified here. A. Elias, the Huerta consul here, who had reported the rumor to the mediators, said that he had it only hearsay. The report that General Chao, ousted by Villa as governor of Chihuahua, had been executed by Villa's order neither was credited by officials here.
President Confident.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—President Wilson today authorized the statement that the outlook for the success of mediation in the Mexican situation was more hopeful than ever. He made known this attitude in view of the conference last night with one of the South American mediators, Dr. Romulo S. Naon, the Argentine minister, who came to Washington to consult with the head of the administration and the secretary of state.

The Admen's Convention

Under the auspices of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America a great convention of advertising experts is being held this week in Toronto.
The interest in the convention and its work is world-wide —for advertising is everywhere a vital business force.
While all phases of publicity are represented newspaper advertising occupies a more prominent place than ever before.
Every day the evidence accumulates that the trend of the times is toward the daily press as the medium producing the greatest result for the least expenditure of money.
