MOYER DECLARES FEDERATION WILL FURNISH MINERS

W. F. M. Chief Says Organization Will Continue to Hold Its Contracts with Companies. MORE MEN THAN PLACES NOW Asserts Leaders of New Union Have Not Acted in Good Faith and That I. W. W. to Be Given Charge. THOUSANDS HEADED FOR BUTTE Leaders of Independent Local Say Old Body Has Lost All Support. McDONALD ISSUES A STATEMENT President of Recently Organized Branch Announces It Will Have Nothing to Do with Industrialists.

BUTTE, Mont., June 22.—With President Charles H. Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners insisting that his plan of conciliation, which will be announced tomorrow at a meeting of the old Butte miners' union, as the only avenue by which peace can be restored, preparations are going rapidly forward today for the permanent organization of the Butte mine workers' union, launched yesterday by the secessionists from the Western Federation.

Leaders of the new organization say that President Moyer will be brought to a realization that the federation has lost practically all support among local miners. Cause of Breach. Dissatisfaction over the management of the affairs of the old union and a desire to be freed from the necessity of paying heavy assessments to the Western Federation of Miners for the support of strikes, led to the breach which resulted yesterday in the determination of the insurgents to operate as an independent unaffiliated union.

President "Muckie" McDonald's statement that the new union would have nothing to do with the Industrial Workers of the World organization has caused a feeling of optimism among business interests here. McDonald signs his name "Muckie" to union documents. Moyer expects to remain here a week or ten days. He will leave about July 1 for L'Anse, Mich., where he is to stand trial on charges arising out of the Michigan copper strike last winter.

In a statement surveying the situation Moyer declared the leaders of the new union had not acted in good faith; that the workers in Butte's mines had been deserted over to the Industrial Workers of the world and that "there are hundreds—yes, thousands—of irresponsible men headed for Butte at this instant. What are they coming for?" he asked.

More Men Than Places. "They have no jobs," Moyer said, "for there are more men in Butte now than there are places for in the mines. The public can take warning as to their mission." Moyer also criticized Mayor Duncan, socialist, for falling to appear at the mass meeting yesterday to advise against the formation of a new union before Moyer's conciliation plan could be submitted to the men. Fortified with the backing of the Western Federation and all international unions of the American Federation of Labor, together with $70,000 in cash in the bank and $50,000 more in property in this and other cities, the old miners' union will continue its business here, according to Moyer. He indicated that the federation would continue to hold its contracts with the mining companies and would furnish sufficient federation men to fill all places in the mines.

Echo Saves Ship from Collision With Big Iceberg

NEW YORK, June 22.—Captain Weeks of the British freighter Isle of Mull, which has just arrived in port from Lisbon, told today how the echo saved his ship from collision with an iceberg. Just after midnight, June 16, in foggy weather off the Newfoundland banks, Captain Weeks sounded the usual fog bell blast on the four horns and thought he heard another steamer reply. He stopped his ship and, after waiting a minute, he blew again. This time he caught a signal, apparently very close.

Realizing that it must be either the whistle of another steamer he had heard or the echo of his own blast thrown back by a big iceberg close by, Captain Weeks sounded six alternate long and short blasts, which were returned just as he gave them. That decided him to steer at once to the southward to avoid hitting a big berg.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES SEVERAL IMPORTANT CASES

Tribunal Adjourns Until October After Handing Down Opinions in Land and Other Matters. LUMBER DEALERS' SUIT IS ONE INTERMOUNTAIN FREIGHT RATE ORDER OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION IS UPHOLD. FOURTEEN CASES LEFT UNHEARD No Action Taken Involving Legality of "Grandfather Clauses." TAFT WITHDRAWAL UP IN AIR

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The supreme court today adjourned until next October after deciding the intermountain rate case, the California land grant case, the eastern states retail lumber dealers suit and several other important cases which had been pending for many months. Just fourteen cases in which arguments had been made were left undecided. Those include the cases involving the constitutionality of the "grandfather clauses" limiting the rights of negroes to vote in Oklahoma, and Annapolis, Md.; the mid-west oil land case involving the validity of President Taft's withdrawal of all lands from entry; the Nashville grain shipping case; and the Henry case, involving the right of congress to compel individuals to testify before investigating committees.

The court during the term disposed of more cases than in any year since 1890. Five hundred and ninety-one decisions were handed down. INTERMOUNTAIN RATE ORDER Supreme Court Upholds Action of Interstate Commerce Commission. WASHINGTON, June 22.—The supreme court today reversed the commerce court and upheld the intermountain rate order of the interstate commerce commission. Justice White decided that the long and short haul clause was constitutional. The chief justice next upheld the making of rates by the commission by zones. The commerce court had held that the commission could not make blanket or zone rates. That is the contention of those who are opposed to the 3 percent increase in freight rates now being asked by eastern railroads.

The zones selected by the commission were in substance the same as those previously fixed by the carriers, as the basis of the rate making which was included in the tariffs which were under investigation and therefore we may put that subject out of view," said he. "Indeed, except as to question of power, there is no contention in the argument as to the inequality of the zones or the percentages or as to any undue preference or discrimination resulting from the action taken."

But he said as it may, in view of the findings of the commission as to the system of rates prevailing in the tariffs which were before it of the inequalities and burdens engendered by such system, of the possible arrangement unreasonably beyond the limits produced by competition in favor of the competitive points and against other points by the tariff in question, the facts which we accept and which indeed are unchallenged, we see (Continued on Page Two.)

PLAN FOR DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS AMONG MEXICANS

United States Invites Representatives of Carranza and Huerta to Informal Conference. AGENTS OF DICTATOR ACCEPT Delegates at Niagara Falls Indicate They Will Deal with Constitutionalists in This Way. INFORMAL PARLEYS ARE HELD United States Will Attempt to Bring Carranza Into Line. NEW DELEGATES ON THE WAY Three New Representatives of the Constitutionalists Are Expected to Reach Washington Soon.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 22.—The United States government has invited representatives of General Carranza and General Huerta to meet at an informal conference here, with the hope of bringing the Huerta delegates today informed the American delegates through the mediators that they were willing to deal with the constitutionalists in this way. Actual negotiations between representatives of the two factions in Mexico in an effort to agree on an individual for the provisional presidency is the latest plan which the mediators have evolved for the solution of the Mexican problem. Just how the negotiations will be drawn together remained a secret today and it became known that strong pressure had been brought to bear on General Carranza through the American government and that the mediators had persuaded the Huerta government to come into the plan.

Informal parleys between the representatives of the two factions outside of the formal mediation proceedings, but with the counsel and advice of the American delegates is the object of the new plan. This move was adopted as a last resort—every effort to get the constitutionalists to agree to an armistice as desired by the mediators having failed. The appeal, which is said to have influenced both factions, is that the Mexicans themselves must save their country from further spoliation and bloodshed by each making certain sacrifices, but neither side will be asked to abandon the principles for which it has been contending. It will be several days before the plans will materialize and constitutionalist delegates can arrive.

In the meantime the mediators and Huerta and American delegates will continue their discussion of other points in the general peace plan than those on which they have been deadlocked. Separate conversations with Huerta and American delegates were set for today. After the conference between the American delegates and the mediators, Justice Lamar said he had not been authorized to make any statement. He indicated, however, that the proceedings would be considerably prolonged. No inkling was given as to what had been discussed, secrecy being scrupulously maintained on either side. A few minutes later the Mexican delegation was summoned for a conference with the mediators.

Washington, June 22.—Indications here today were that the coming of the three new representatives of the constitutionalist movement would open the way for informal negotiations between those forces and the American mediators at Niagara Falls. That the mediators themselves will welcome anything the American delegates can do with the constitutionalists was assured here in official quarters. The three new delegates enroute here, said to have the approval of General Carranza and General Huerta, are Fernando Iglesias Calderon, who has been in conference with Carranza at Saltville; Alfredo Braceda, aide to Carranza, and Leopoldo Huerta Espinosa, a member of congress during the Madero administration. It is believed here that Calderon will succeed Rafael Zubaran as chief representative of the constitutionalists here. The three men are expected Wednesday.
