beit, which is to be expected at this sea-son of the year. There was more life to the trade in aged sheep, and prices were about stoady with yesterday. Three cars of Oregon wethers that sold at $500 on Monday went to the packers at the same price this morning. Included in this division $5.00, and another lot of fed offerings from the corn belt at $4.90. The receipts of aged sheep continue to make up a smaller proportion of the day's supply of killers than lambs, and largely on that account no material decline in prices was noted.

noted. Early in the forencon a feeder buyer took a car of 41-pound iambs at $5.75. The general trade being slow, the clearance was as late as on Monday, and traders do not look for prices to show any improve-ment as long as the receipts continue to swell.
