

ROURKES WIN WET CONTEST

Cop Game Featured by Much Rain from Des Moines.

TIME CALLED IN SEVENTH

Emps Fyfe, Who Let It Rain for Several Innings, Calls Time for Twenty Minutes to Protect New Silk Shirt.

Just as Pa Rourke's brave contenders and Frank Isbell's demon athletes had inaugurated a nice little combat at Rourke park yesterday afternoon Mr. Jup Fyfe horned in and did his best to crab the doings.

When the battle opened the thermometer registered somewhere in the immediate vicinity of 84, official report from the weather bureau, and the visiting entertainers were quite cheery, therefore, coping three runs off Bert Grover, who is much opposed to excessive heat, in the first two rounds.

Hahn was soaked in the slats in the opening round by a pitched ball. He was sacrificed to second, went to third on an infield out and home on Brown's double.

After the first half of the seventh the rain became so obnoxious that it made a ferocious and uncalced for attack on Mr. Fyfe's silk shirt. Highly incensed and peeved, Mr. Fyfe decided to thwart Jup Pluv by calling time.

To give Eason a start Thomason bunted safely in the second, but was forced by Thomas. Here Congalton boosted the pill out of the enclosure and Des Moines' three runs didn't look so big.

Des Moines made one in the fourth on a gift from the kindly-hearted Mr. Shestak. She has headed the ball through first base just to see if he could do it and Ewald got to second.

To make up for his error, Shestak fixed it so Omaha would make one in the fourth. Ward was safe on Telly's muff and Shestak poked a beast of a double, which completed Telly's work.

But the fifth was the inning. Krug singled, Thomason was safe on Burrell's bobble, Thomason singled, Congalton sacrificed, Ward lifted a sacrifice fly and Shestak singled.

As a double by Ewald and a single by Hahn gave the Boosters one in the sixth the Rourkees came back after the twenty-minute rest, while J. Pluv was given the task of entertaining the paid customers and made another. Thomason bunted a triple and scored on Shestak's double.

The same teams will battle today. Game called at 1 o'clock. Score: OMAHA, AB. R. H. O. A. E. Schipke, 2b, 5 1 2 4 0 1

MATNEY AND DRUMM SLUG BALL Cannot Save Game for Kaps, However—Matticks Fined for His Threat to Lick Umpire Black.

KEARNEY, Neb., June 24.—(Special Telegram)—Hastings took today's game after a close contest, errors helping materially. Drumm brought in four scores with a home run in the fifth and Matney made possible another in the sixth with a three baxker. The Kaps could not land on O. Vance, who went in the seventh with a tie score. Matticks was given a fine for threatening to lick the umpire. Score:
