

Red Fox James, Indian, on Visit to President

On his way to Washington, D. C., from the Crow reservation in Montana, and mounted on a wiry gray broncho, Red Fox James, half-breed Crow Indian, arrived in Omaha over the Lincoln Highway last Tuesday and departed Thursday morning for the east. Red Fox rides some twenty miles a day. When the weather is hot he often walks a half day at a time to rest his horse. He is bearing a sealed letter from Governor Stewart of Montana to President Wilson. The purpose of his trip is to attempt to interest President Wilson in the inauguration of a national Indian day, upon which occasion the passing race of American aborigines should be commemorated. The Indian was met on the Lincoln Highway just outside of Omaha, the driver of the continent, by H. E. Fredrickson, consul-at-large for the Lincoln Highway, in his large automobile.

German Army Uses Moving Pictures of Soldiers as Targets

BERLIN, June 27.—The moving picture has been turned to account by the army, and it is likely that a portion of the soldiers' rifle range work will hereafter be done with moving pictures for targets. A set of the contrivance at the Doberitz ranges gave good results, and the emperor who witnessed the tests and himself fired a number of shots was pleased with the innovation. Long rolls of paper reproduced the usual scene, and on them appear marching soldiers, cavalrymen, artillery in full gallop, cycle troops and other moving objects. The instant a bullet strikes the paper the spot of impact is brilliantly lighted and the movement of the contrivance is arrested for nearly a second, giving an opportunity to see the full effect of the shot. It is believed that the invention will not only improve the soldiers' marksmanship, but will also prove valuable in training them to aim and fire rapidly.

British Labor Party Bars Suffragettes

LONDON, June 27.—Many branches of the Independent Labor Party and some of the trades unions have passed resolutions against allowing militant suffragettes to speak from socialist or labor platforms; while the executive committee of the National Union of Railwaymen has decided that women shall not be recognized as members of that organization. This has been resented by the suffragettes throughout the country. The decision against allowing militants to speak from the labor platforms was dictated by a desire to please the constitutional suffragettes, who are supporting labor candidates for the House of Commons, and to mark the members' disapproval of the action of the militants in interrupting labor meetings, despite the fact that the party supports the movement for votes for women. This also had something to do with the decision of the Railwaymen's executive committee not to accept women as members.
