CORRICK CUTTING MUSTARD

Boss of Bull Moose Party in State Prepares Party Program.

JUDGE WRAY PUT UPON SKIDS

York County Enthusiast Not to Be Allowed to Write Platform at the Coming Convention.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 1.—(Special.)—The state convention of the progressive or bull moose party will have an easy time when it meets in Lincoln, the steering committee having been delegated to prepare a platform and get everything ready.

This committee will have the assistance of the candidates for office on the state and congressional tickets and consists of the following members of the party appointed by Chief Engineer Corrick, of which he will be chairman because of his position as boss of the party in this state: First district, George A. Adams, Lincoln; Second district, A. H. Bigelow, Omaha; Third district, Dan McLeod, Schuyler; Fourth district, Judge Arthur Wray, York; Fifth district, W. H. Miller, Bloomington; Sixth district, Mike Harrington, O'Neill.

Secrecy of Candidates.

It is expected that by the time the convention meets and before the time elapses for filing for nominations that O'Beas Corrick will have been successful in prevailing upon enough of the patriots to get up courage and file for the vacant places on the state and congressional tickets. It was for the purpose of talking this matter over that the meeting was called last night, although there is said to have been no opposition to whatever the boss proposed. There are several vacancies on the state ticket and some of the congressional districts are still minus a candidate for the bull moose nomination. The records of the secretary of state's office show that there are no candidates filed for lieutenant governor, secretary of state, land commissioner, attorney general, while there are no candidates filed for congress in the Third, Fourth and Sixth districts.

It is understood that Willis of Boyd will file for attorney general and Omaha has a man in hiding who will be brought out at the proper time for lieutenant governor. Outside of these places the secretary of state's office shows no filings.

Wray Sidetracked.

Judge Wray of York, who sought the nomination for governor early in the game, but quered himself with the party because he advocated the single tax idea and was shelved by the boss and Harry Sackett substituted, was at the meeting last night with another platform. This platform is said to cover everything in a political game that has ever thought of and some things which the bull moose party wished the judge had not thought of. When Boss Corrick was asked this morning if the judge's platform would be adopted by the committee, he was of the opinion that some things in it might, but he would not hint as to which part of the multimillion-dollar platform might be used.

Senator Sackett is not present at the conference, but there were enough Lincoln mooseers to make up for any vacant places.

JUDGE BEGLEY FILES FOR OFFICE IN SECOND

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 1.—(Special.)—The first district judge to file under the non-partisan judiciary act is Judge James T. Begley of Sarpy county for district judge in the Second judicial district, composed of the counties of Cass, Sarpy and Otoe.

Judge Begley was appointed about a year ago by Governor Morehead, to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Judge Travis of Plattsmouth. He was selected out of a bunch of half a dozen candidates from Cass and Otoe counties. He was the only candidate from Sarpy county.

First Wheat from Richardson.

STELLA, Neb., July 1.—(Special.)—Threshing in Richardson county was started June 25, when A. W. Renge started his steam thrasher in the D. D. Reavis field on the Nemaha bottom south of Falls City. The tenant, William Flowers, was anxious to get the wheat out of any danger of Nemaha flood waters. The grain was of the early variety of smooth wheat, sown quite late last fall, and probably cut a few days too early as the berries appear to have shrunk some. The field of ten acres yielded thirty bushels per acre and was sold to Albert Maus at 70 cents a bushel under contract made several weeks ago. Henry Wyatt of Falls City has a yield of thirty-five bushels an acre from twenty-five acres. Alexander Hilsenfeld, also of Falls City, had an average of thirty-six bushels of sixty-two pound wheat on the Nemaha bottom that had never been in crop before.

Psoriasis Cured by a Famous Remedy

Most Troublesome Skin Disease is Promptly Checked

Get a good, firm grip on psoriasis by using S. S. S., the famous blood purifier. Those extending spots may have died everything else; you may be discouraged but let S. S. S. bathe your blood and you will quickly observe a wonderful change. S. S. S. exerts a dominating influence in the myriad of blood vessels that compose the skin. Its principal action is to assist in that wonderful process whereby the broken down cells in the skin and their deadened nerve threads are rebuilt by new material from a purified and quickened blood stream. This process goes on every second throughout the body. From the time that S. S. S. enters the blood it has traveled the entire system in about three minutes. Its action is therefore very rapid, never lets up, if used with the same co-operative spirit. S. S. S. has been a marvel to overcome every form of skin trouble and for a finely illustrated, descriptive treatise on the skin, write to The Swift Specific Co., 102 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. ASSESSOR'S DUTY OUTLINED Attorney General Says He Must Find Full Value of Mortgages.

CASE FROM FURNAS COUNTY Jasper L. McBrien Pays Harried Trip to Nebraska, Making Talk at Peru While President Hayes Suffers from Gout.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 1.—(Special.)—It is the duty of an assessor to get at the actual value of mortgages and determine the same irrespective of their face value, according to an opinion of the attorney general in answer to an inquiry made by County Attorney R. J. Harper of Furnas county. In the case referred to the land has an actual value of $1,400 for taxation purposes. There are two mortgages on the land valued at $1,400 and also a third for $350. The attorney general holds that the first two mortgages should be held at their face value, which is the value of the land and that the third mortgage should not be assessed because it has no real value over and above the value of the two former mortgages which cover the value of the land.

McBrien Pays Harried Visit. J. L. McBrien made a hurried trip into Nebraska yesterday and visited the normal schools at Peru and Kearney. Mr. McBrien is now government inspector of rural schools. He was met at Peru by State Superintendent James Delsell, who was at Peru to address the school management class in the absence of President Hayes, who is suffering with an attack of gout.

Fined for Using Selous. Special Deputy Game Warden S. A. Bowers went to Scott's Bluff county this week and captured four men who were selling Selous to law. The men pleaded guilty to the crime and were fined $1 and costs each. Their names were W. H. Harding, C. J. Shadoff, Clarence McCord and Frank Fisher.

South Omaha Couple Weds. Albert J. Matson of South Omaha, aged 22, and Mabel E. Avery of the same city, aged 21, were granted a license to wed in Lincoln yesterday.

Mrs. Helms Weds in Chicago. Announcement comes to Lincoln that Mrs. Lillian Dobbs-Helms, well known in musical circles over the state as a soloist and connected with the musical department of the state university, was married Monday in Chicago to E. H. Polley.

Tooley's Term Expires. Although the term of J. J. Tooley of Anselmo as a member of the state normal board expired on June 25, Governor Morehead has made no move either to reappoint Mr. Tooley, or appoint his successor. Although there is supposed to be no politics around the state normal board, Mr. Tooley is said to be a democrat and therefore may stand well for re-appointment, although there are several brands of democrats in Nebraska at the present time.

Child Sentenced to Death. MASON CITY, Ia., July 1.—(Special Telegram.)—Pulling a plug from a washing machine, just filled with boiling water, that infant son of William Stump, a prominent Clear Lake farmer, was so badly scalded that it died. The little one was playing about the machine while mother did the family washing.

Red Horse Woman, Sioux Squaw, Kills Husband With Axe

VALENTINE, Neb., July 1.—(Special.)—Sheriff Rosetter yesterday returned from Crookston with Red Horse Woman, a Sioux squaw who on Sunday morning murdered her husband, Lame Dog, by cutting his head in with an axe. Although the Indian's head was frightfully crushed he lingered all day alone in the tepee where his wife left him and did not die until late in the afternoon. A number of Indians were camped at Crookston Saturday, and according to the testimony brought out at the coroner's inquest the principals in the affair, Lame Dog and his wife, Red Horse Woman, Tom Bridgeman, a mixed blood, and his wife, Searches For Little Pete, had secured a quantity of whisky and proceeded to celebrate. During the night Lame Dog became attentive to Bridgeman's wife, and the former's squaw tried to get him to come to their own tent. He paid no attention to her, but later in the morning between 5 and 6 o'clock he returned of his own accord. Then, from the evidence offered, he and his wife quarreled and he struck her. It was then she picked up the axe and struck him, evidently several times, for his skull was shattered and his face horribly cut. After doing the deed she left him inside and tied up the flap to the tent, hitched up the team and started to the Rosebud agency with her three children. On her way she sang the weird, plaintive death song of her tribe and met another Indian whom she told of the crime. When he arrived at Crookston he told the news, and men went to the tent. Inside they found Lame Dog groping around on his hands and knees. He died late Sunday afternoon. The authorities were notified, the woman arrested and the agency taken to Crookston and an inquest held. The jury found that the woman murdered her husband with felonious intent. The sheriff placed her in the county jail, where she accepts her situation apparently with stoical indifference.

BANNER COUNTY FARMER FOUND DEAD IN FIELD GERING, Neb., July 1.—(Special Telegram.)—Henry Howard was found dead today in a corn field on the Frank Stoffer place north of Harrisburg, Banner county, where he had been plowing corn. It is supposed to be the result of his team running away.

Notes from Stapleton. STAPLETON, Neb., July 1.—(Special.)—The eight-year-old son of Dr. E. F. Carr broke his right forearm cranking his father's automobile. He had knowledge sufficient to turn on the gasoline. The broken arm was set immediately. J. A. O'Neale, a helper at the Union Pacific roundhouse, was badly burned by gasoline. He had been repairing a motor car and was wiping his hands with a bunch of waste which was saturated with gasoline, and he held it too close to a lantern, which set fire to the waste. E. L. Sayre, Jr., of Stapleton, has filed for the office of county clerk on the republican ticket. O. H. Heldenbrand of Stapleton filed for sheriff on the republican ticket, J. B. Dunivent for sheriff on the democratic ticket and John E. Caswell for sheriff on the republican ticket. Otto Gerlach filed for county clerk on the democratic ticket.

Warner May Decide to File in the Third

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 1.—Information, said to be very reliable, has it that within a few days the secretary of state's office will receive the filing of William P. Warner of Dakota City for the constitutional nomination on the republican ticket in the Third district. It has been known for some time that much pressure was being brought upon Mr. Warner to make the race, but he has said that his duties as United States marshal would not permit him to think about it. However, there are indications that the war between Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan and United States Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock has been settled to some extent and that an appointment will be made in a few days. In that event Mr. Warner may be expected to make an announcement.
