

JACKSONIANS WANT PLACES

Decide to Go on Bended Knees Before Dahlgren Democracy.

WANT TO GO TO COLUMBUS

Dahlgrenites May Decide to Give Them a Few Representatives, but Will Keep Them in the Background.

The Jacksonian club comes with "humble and contrite heart" this year and asks the Dahlgren club for representation on the delegation to the democratic state convention to be held at Columbus in the latter part of July. The Dahlgren club is practically the democratic county central committee. The Jacksonians want to be represented on the democratic delegation that goes to the state convention.

"No chance," is the case, unless they simply go to the Dahlgrenites on bended knee and ask for representation. So they will this year "request representation."

All this was decided at a meeting of the executive committee and officers of the Jacksonian club at Carter lake Wednesday night. Jacksonians want to go to the convention badly. It's a nice trip, and there is lots of fun at conventions. It's tough to be crowded back every year, and let the Dahlgren club represent the democracy of Omaha and Douglas county at the state conventions. "Knock and it shall be opened unto you," the Jacksonians once read in a big book with golden edges and silver buckles, so they have decided to tap gently at the door of Dahlgren democracy beseeching admittance to the county delegation.

It is thought likely that the Dahlgrenites will condescend to let in a few delegates from the ranks of Jacksonianism, just to please them since the unit rule will likely obtain and the vote of the individual delegates will never be heard. Even at the Grand Island convention two years ago when the question of endorsing Bryan's Baltimore fight was before the house, there was a lone Jacksonian in the Douglas county delegation. But the delegation smothered him. The unit rule obtained. He dared not open his lips in a vote. But even as questions of endorsing Bryan or anything came to a vote, the head of the delegation rose stubbornly to his feet and shouted:

May Take a Few.

"Douglas county, we no-o-oo!" At the meeting of the Jacksonians it was also decided to hold a big open meeting the evening of July 10 in the new hall on the sixteenth floor of the City National Bank building at 8 o'clock. Everyone is to be admitted and welcomed. Ed P. Smith is to speak on "United Democracy," and W. F. Baxter is to speak on "The Business Man in Politics."

Stores to Be Open

Late Friday Night

Everyone will have a chance to shop as late as 9 o'clock Friday night. This is because Saturday is the Fourth of July, and the stores are to be closed all day. So the retailers have decided to keep late hours Friday evening so that all may have a chance to get what they want before the Fourth.

Invitations Out for Home Coming Week This Fall

Six thousand invitations will soon be sent out to persons all over the world who were formerly Omaha people asking them to come to Omaha for the Home-Coming week in connection with the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities in the fall. The Home-Coming committee met at noon and made further arrangements in regard to this proposition. The first invitations are to be sent out by the Ak-Sar-Ben office. Later invitations will likely be sent by the publicity bureau and the Commercial club.

HOLIDAY FOR RAILROADERS

Employees Will Be Given Off from Work on Fourth.

TO HAVE OUTING IN COLORADO

Union Pacific Headquarters Workers Are to Have Special Train Out to Denver at Company's Expense.

The railroads will generally observe the Fourth of July as far as possible. The headquarters buildings in the city will be closed from Friday evening until Monday morning and the city ticket offices will be closed all Saturday. Trains, however, will be run as usual and owing to the rush of business expected, extra coaches will be held in reserve at all important stations to be used as needed.

Excursion trains will not be run on any road. This is the result of an agreement between roads, entered into long ago. At that time it was agreed to discontinue excursions and the agreement has been kept to the letter. However, while the Northwestern and the Burlington will not violate the agreement, they will come pretty near doing so, for the morning of July 4, each of the roads will run excursions to the Sioux City races, though they will on the cards be designated as sections of the regular morning trains.

The Northwestern's special will leave the Union station at 8:45 in the morning and will run by Council Bluffs and the Iowa side of the river, stopping at Missouri Valley to take on passengers. The Burlington's train will start from Lincoln and will run by way of Ashland, reaching there in time to connect with the early morning train west from Omaha.

Some 120 employees of the auditing and other departments of the Union Pacific will have their Fourth of July outing in Colorado. They are given their time off and the use of sleeping cars on the trip. They will leave Omaha on No. 15 Friday afternoon, reaching Denver early Saturday morning and returning will leave there Sunday night.

MAY DEFAULT ON INTEREST

Stockholders of the Auditorium Are Now Holding Back.

MAY BE SOLD UNDER HAMMER

Proposition of the City Taking Over the Structure is Abandoned for Good—Foreclosure Sale May Be Forced.

The auditorium is likely soon to be forced into a foreclosure sale. Some of the stockholders are already refusing to pay further interest on the bonds. This is said to mean that the intent is to default in payment of interest on bonds until the institution is forced into a foreclosure sale.

This is one way out of the auditorium situation. For a long time there has been talk of selling the auditorium either to the city or to a private company that would convert the building into an establishment for the carrying on of some other line of business, either the automobile business, implement business, or some business that would convert the building into uses other than for entertainment, shows, etc.

When the city refused to vote the $200,000 bonds for the purchase of the auditorium, the proposition of the city ever obtaining it was abandoned for good. Then it was said other negotiations were opened for the sale of the property, but to date no deal has been closed.

It has just been learned that some of the owners of the building, if not all of them, have flatly refused to pay further interest on the bonds, and that this is likely to be the means taken to force the building to a foreclosure sale, which will put the property on an open market under the hammer, and will finally result in a settlement with the holders of stocks and bonds at so many cents on the dollar.

Acute Indigestion.

"I was annoyed for over a year by attacks of acute indigestion, followed by constipation," writes Mrs. M. J. Gallagher, Geneva, N. Y. "I tried everything that was recommended to me for this complaint, but nothing did me much good until about four months ago I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I soon realized that I had gotten the right thing for they helped me at once. Since taking two bottles of them I can eat heartily without any bad effects." Sold by all druggists.—Advertisement.

MUNICIPAL STATISTICS SECURABLE AT LIBRARY

Copies of the pamphlet of municipal statistics, issued monthly by City Commissioner Dan B. Butler of the department of accounts and finance, are now given out free to patrons at the public library. Several hundred copies are secured each month by the library board for general circulation, as Miss Edith Tobitt, the librarian, and the board believe that the information contained in the pamphlets is interesting and instructive and should be studied by citizens.

MAY SURPRISE HANIGHEN

City Commissioners Hatching Out a Come-Back on Contractor.

DEPENDS ON THE STOKER TYPE

If Lowest Bidder for City Hall Heating Plant Uses Inferior Machine He Will Be Asked to Give Difference Discount.

Certain city commissioners are hatching plans to spring a surprise on John J. Hanighen and his friends on the council if the report he sends to the city commission Tuesday indicates that he will seek to comply with the specifications for a new boiler plant at the city hall by using an inferior and cheap stoker.

City Commissioner Dan B. Butler told the council that he believed it the whole commission's duty to see that the contractor who installs the plant in the city hall be compelled to do work that will prove satisfactory.

"I do not stand for any cheap work here," said Commissioner Butler. "If the contractor feels foxy and thinks he can make $1,000 profit by installing a cheap stoker he will find there are other foxy persons who believe the city should have the benefit of any reduced prices."

Contractor Hanighen has so far refused to state just what kind of a stoker he would use if the contract for installing a heating plant at the city hall was let to him for $12,750. Some stokers cost approximately $2,000 and others cost less than half that much.
