SUFFS PARADE THE PARKS

Want to Draw Attention of the Many Pleasure Seekers.

AUTOS ARE GAILY DRAPED

Parade is Delayed While Little Tot is Refreshed with a Soda from a Nearby Corner Drug Store.

"Let Nov. 4, 1914, be Women's Independence Day in Nebraska."

"Taxation without Representation was Tyranny in 1776. It is Tyranny in 1914."

"U-S spells 'Us', not 'You'."

"We await with confidence the verdict of Nebraska."

With these and similar striking captions, American flags and "Votes for Women" banners decorating the sides of their cars, a procession of five automobiles started from suffrage headquarters on the afternoon of the Fourth to drive through the parks of the city. It was hoped in this manner to draw the attention of the many pleasure seekers who are in the parks on holidays.

The only excitement incident to the departure from headquarters occurred when a gaily decorated automobile passed by where the suffragists were hard at work dressing up their cars in the above mentioned placards and gazed with scorn upon the bested suffs. The rumor spread that the occupants of the passing car were "antle" who had come to size up the situation.

"Just so they haven't any brickets, I don't mind," said Mrs. H. C. Sumney.

Mrs. Downs and Daughter's Funeral to Be Held Today

In accordance with the last words of Mrs. Cornelia Downs, expressed in a note published exclusively by The Omaha Bee Friday, her body and that of her daughter Anna will be buried in the Downs family lot in Prospect Hill beside the body of Captain C. H. Downs, dead these last three years.

The double funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Lurker chapel at 294 Leavenworth street.

Several relatives of the dead woman will arrive today to attend the funeral.

When the bodies of Mrs. Cornelia Downs and her daughter Anna, aged 50, were found Friday it was stated that financial reverses caused the dependency that resulted in the dual suicide. This statement has been proven untrue. The Downs finances were in excellent shape, according to close friends of the family.

The note written by Mrs. Downs is indicative of a suicide past, or else a fit of temporary insanity on the part of the mother, friends say.

Miss Downs had been ill for a number of weeks and her illness together with their loneliness prayed upon the mind of Mrs. Downs.

New Pastor Olivet Baptist Church and Parishioners Picnic

An informal reception and good time was held in Fontenelle park by members of the Olivet Baptist church in honor of their new pastor, W. A. Mulford, who but Friday arrived from Newwood, a suburb of Cincinnati. The members of the congregation brought basket lunches. They spread them shortly before 6 o'clock in the evening after a strenuous day of celebration of Independence day at the park. D. E. Ehlers introduced the new pastor, and a few remarks were made by various members and the new pastor. A big family dinner picnic was indulged in and acquaintance was immediately extended.

This morning in Olivet church, will be the spectacle of the new pastor and his two predecessors all in the same pulpit at once. It has been arranged that Rev. George McLaughlin and Rev. Frank H. Ward will be in the pulpit beside the new pastor, Mr. Mulford.

PUBLIC MARKET SECURES LEASE ON DOUGLAS STREET

The Public Market has leased the store east of the Fry Shoe company on Sixteenth and Douglas streets from John L. Kennedy, the owner, and will install a store similar to that now operated on Harney street by that company. The Public Market has secured a four-year lease on the property.

CHILDREN'S CLOTHES EASILY FIRE-PROOFED

How to make children's clothing almost fireproof is told by Dr. Jennie Laird for the help of mothers. She says an ounce of either alum or sal ammoniac dissolved in the ordinary amount of rinse water or starch water on wash day renders cotton clothing washed therein practically fireproof, or at least not liable to catch fire from ordinary causes. Although rather late for Fourth of July use this suggestion may be followed all summer as a precaution against accidents from children playing with matches.

WYOMING CATTLE ARE IN THE BEST OF CONDITION

A. D. Marriott leaves the middle of the week for his Wyoming ranch in the sweetwater country, where he will remain during the balance of the summer. He has a large number of cattle on the range and reports from there indicate that they are doing unusually well. All through northern Wyoming the rainfall has been greatly above the normal and RETAILERS AND DOCTORS Veterinarians and Grocers to Be Guests at Den Monday.

GUS RENZE READY FOR THEM

Horse Doctors Begin Three Days' Convention in Omaha Monday and Will Stop at the Devil's Hotel.

The retailers of Omaha and the veterinarians of the Missouri valley are to be jointly entertained and initiated at the Den Monday night. Peculiar combination perhaps, but that is the combination exactly.

Well, it happens this way. Long ago it was arranged to make Monday night retailers' night. That is, the retailers of Omaha were to have a night set apart as the night in which particular attention would be given to playing a program adapted to them at the Den. This is the night the retailers are to be out in full force. It is the night those retailers who joined Ak-Sar-Ben months ago must go to the Den to see the initiation of those of the retailers who were dragged into the membership within the last few days.

Now then, the Missouri Valley Veterinary society is to hold a big convention in Omaha beginning Monday morning. A special train is coming from Des Moines bringing a crowd of veterinarians from Iowa. A big bunch is expected down from South Dakota, and no end of veterinarians of Nebraska will be in. Samson has long made it a policy not to let anyone from out in the state or from any other state get away without seeing the show at the Den and being initiated into the great order of Ak-Sar-Ben. If they chanced to be in the city on Monday evening, so he has set his cap for at least 600 veterinarians who will be in the city on that night. He has invited them to come out to the Den, and in fact a committee will see to it that this worthy bunch finds its way to the king's headquarters.

Heavy Exodus from City for the Fourth

Notwithstanding the fact that thousands of people went out of the city in automobiles, passenger agents at the depots assert that the exodus to the country has been 25 per cent greater than on any previous Fourth of July, while the number coming in has been less.

The travel out is taken to mean that the city people have a desire to get into the country for a couple of days, and Sunday following the holiday this year it gives them two days away from business. The small number of people coming to the city is said to be accounted for by the fact that most of the towns in this territory are holding celebrations, and their patrons prefer remaining at home instead of traveling.

About 40 took the early special train to Sioux City to witness the auto races.

Iowa and Dakota Editors Invited Here

Editors of Iowa and South Dakota have been invited to join with the editors of Nebraska newspapers in a big editors' day in Omaha July 20. The bureau of publicity has sent out invitations to more than 80 editors in these three states. A program of entertainment is being arranged that will keep the editors busy from morning until night while they are here, and in the evening Samson will entertain them at the Den. Samson has prepared a letter wherein King Ak-Sar-Ben extends the editors an invitation to meet him at his Den on the night of July 20.

Oldest Cars Pressed Into Service Here

This afternoon the street railway company is running cars of the vintage of the date just following the old horse cars. Cars that were used on the old cable and the Mercer motor lines have been pressed into the service to carry passengers.

Indications are that with the street railway company this is to be one of the bumper days, exceeded only by the days of the Ak-Sar-Ben festivals. The travel is unusually heavy on account of so many celebrations being held in the city.

BRIGGS CAPTURES GUNMAN

South Omaha Chief of Police Has His Picnic Interrupted.

NEGRO HAD SHOT TWO MEN

Briggs Wins His Man After a Running Fight in the Woods Below Fort Crook and Turns Him Over to Sheriff.

Fourth of July was given a lively start in Plattsmouth yesterday when Tony Hilton of St. Joseph, an itinerant negro, shot a man through the hip and wrist in a wrangle. Plattsmouth reports that the wounded man was taken to fall too intoxicated to give his name. Hilton then made a race across the Platte river with Sheriff Quentin in pursuit, and when Dean Wall, an 11-year-old lad, got in his way Wall was shot through the breast and hand. Young Wall was brought to St. Joseph's hospital here and attended by Dr. Dermody, who says the young fellow has but a slight chance to live. One of the bullets passed through his lungs and another lodged in the liver. Dr. Dermody will operate in an attempt to remove the leaden pellet.

Hilton continued his flight to the north where he ran upon a picnic party of which Chief Briggs of South Omaha was a member and after a running fight Briggs captured him and turned him over to Sheriff Quentin.

Two Didn't Know Guns Were Loaded

They toted big, heavy revolvers and were going to celebrate the Fourth. They didn't know the old lead bullets put in the cylinder months ago were still in there, and when the triggers of the respective revolvers were pulled—ding-a-ling-a-ling—ambulance—doctor—hospital—doctor bill.

Walter Stimmins did this very thing, but the bullet hit Harry Payne in the knee, thereby causing Payne to go to the hospital instead of a hog-fry party this afternoon.

John Amos was walking down the railroad track near Sixth street. He didn't know his pistol was loaded.

"Gee, that's a nice, round hole you've got in your hand. How'dja get it?" inquired Police Surgeon Folts as Amos was brought in.

CHICAGO PAPER TO PRINT PAGE ARTICLE ON OMAHA

The Saturday Blade and Ledger, published in Chicago, is soon to carry a full page article on Omaha. The article will be illustrated by various cuts from different parts of the city. The material and pictures were furnished by the bureau of publicity.

Hay Fever and Asthma

The Season is Here to Spoil the Pleasure and Comfort of Thousands.

Among the disorders which have baffled medical science since time immemorial none has been so puzzling or devoid of sympathy as hay fever, or its forerunner, rose cold, and its complication, bronchial asthma. Prompt relief from the spasmodic bronchial affection can promptly be had by burning and inhaling the fumes of Warner's Safe Asthma Remedy. Its effect in stubborn cases where other means have failed is conclusively proven by the following: "You sent me a sample of Warner's Safe Asthma Remedy which helped me. I bought a box of it and it cured me, much to my astonishment, as I had tried many things without any success. It is now several weeks and do not expect any."—S. M. Davis, 1322 S. Flower St., Los Angeles, Cal. At druggists, or postpaid, 75c. A free sample to prove how promptly it relieves. Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 222, Rochester, N. Y.
