OLSEN SEEKS HIS FREEDOM

Story Told by a Marriage License Important to Kansas Prisoner.

ASKS OFFICIALS FOR FACTS

Date of Document May Prove Whereabouts of the Man and Shorten Term of Imprisonment.

A marriage license issued here on May 8, 1905, and a marriage ceremony performed on the same date by Justice E. B. Gardner, may save Charles V. Olsen from serving a number of additional years in the Kansas penitentiary at Lansing.

Olsen is in the Kansas prison under the name of George Smith and the letter from the identification bureau gives his other aliases as Charles Nelson, J. B. Kelly and Denver Kid.

Reference to marriage record here showed that Charles V. Olsen was married on the date given to Miss Jessie Allaman of Omaha, and that Justice Gardner performed the ceremony.

Several days ago Roy Hardisty, deputy clerk of the district court here, received a letter from Olsen, telling of his presence in the Kansas prison and the refusal of the parole board to release him.

EXPLODING FIREWORKS KILL CHICAGO BOYS

CHICAGO, July 4.—Lawrence Butler and John Sullivan, each 15 years old, died today of burns caused by exploding fireworks. They are Chicago's first Fourth of July victims.

Their deaths were due indirectly to the success of the same Fourth movement.

The boys, with two companions, dug the explosives from rubbish at the abandoned plant of a fireworks company which went out of business when laws were passed forbidding the use of their product.

The surviving boys are in a serious condition.

Lorimer Bank Made Him Pay Note Twice, Says John Cudahy

CHICAGO, July 4.—Charges that officials of the closed La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank fraudulently appropriated two checks, totaling $5,000, were made today by John Cudahy, the packer, in an interesting petition filed in the circuit court.

Cudahy borrowed $5,000 from the bank on February 24, according to the petition. On June 9, fifteen days before the note was due, he received a letter from C. B. Munday, vice president of the bank, which stated:

"We are endeavoring to build up our business and would like to ask you if it would not inconvenience you too much to pay your $5,000 note."

The petition states that on June 11, the day before the bank was closed, Mr. Cudahy sent two checks with which to take up the note. The checks were accepted by the bank, but the note was not delivered, the petition says.

Washington Affairs

Both houses of congress adjourned yesterday until Monday, to celebrate the Fourth of July and take a brief holiday in preparation for a long legislative grind ahead before the session ends.

Secretary Bryan announced that the finishing touches had been given to the new peace commission treaty between the United States and France and that it would be signed and transmitted to the president.
