OMAHA SPLITS DOUBLE BILL

First Game Goes to Links, but Rourke's Cop Second.

BUNK CONGALTON RUNS BASES

Famous Speed Demon Steals Second Sack on Bill Rapp and Goes All the Way Home from First on Two-Base Hit by Ward.

After eight rounds of perfectly good pitchers' battle between Crab, the new stud from the Pacific coast, and Buff Edman, battle soared yet, the Rourke took a trip over the chutes in the ninth inning of the first battle yesterday and handed it to the Links, 5 to 1, but these selfsame Rourke came back celebrating like a welcome arch in the second fray like a welcome arch in the second fray...

The second combat was pretty classy for Rourke. Pa's demon athletes did everything imaginable. Bunk Congalton, the well known sprinter, swiped a sack and one time came home from first base on a two-bagger. Such marvelous exhibitions as those mentioned pleased the paid customers mightily and they enjoyed themselves immensely. Skipper Bill Schipke stole two bases despite the fact that he has two bum pedals.

Long Hits Come Often. Two-baggers were also frequent in that second fray. Omaha got five and the Links got three. To vary the monotony Jack Cooney cut loose with two successive wild pitches which were a pair of the most ferocious heaves seen on the local lot.

Ray Crab, the native son, looks like quite a twirler. Roy has a nice cross-fire and only bad luck kept him from copping his game. George Graham scampered around the second sack with all the vim and vigor of his youth. George is a regular reincarnation and even Davey Lloyd lapped his performance with envious eyes. George Dunlop was out of the game due to a spiked fin suffered in Tuesday's battle. Skipper took third base and Thomas was shifted back to short.

The fans were given their first real glimpse of Krueger. And they got an eye-full, too. Krueger poked two hits, one of which banged against the boards in left field and started the cannonade against Jordan. He didn't allow a Link to cop a base and he swiped one himself.

Thomas shines. Artie Thomson in centerfield made two of the nearest running catches of hard hit line drives ever witnessed by a Rourke bug. Both were one-handed stabs into the atmosphere and two Links were given sufficient provocation to speak their minds as they saw fit.

Today the Denver Grizzlies will mix up with Omaha. Eamon Crossman, who has the first red lamp over the falling chumps in the game this afternoon. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Score, first game:

Smoke your Robert Burns either fast or slowly

You cannot lessen any of its mildness. It is there at the first puff. It is there as firm white ash grows longer. And it is still there—cool and satisfying as ever—until you reluctantly have to toss aside the last glowing ember.

The satisfying mildness of every Robert Burns is the result of knowing how to blend the right tobacco in exactly the right proportion.
