REBS WILL THROW SIXTY THOUSAND MEN AGAINST CITY

The column which sallied out of Guadalupe and which was met by the forces of General Luis Blanco, I repeat they have been entirely dispersed. They made a shameful flight. The number of killed it is impossible to estimate. We fought over some 100 kilometers. We are now engaging the scattered bands which have fled to the mountains. All the federal artillery was found scattered over the country covered by the battle.

Cole played the wedding march and the couple were attended by Miss Fern Barber and John Clary. The bride was beautifully gowned in white crepe du chene. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Edwards of this city. A dainty wedding luncheon was served after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw departed for Bloomington, Neb., to spend a honeymoon. They will make their home in Fairbury.

War Correspondent's Permit Cancelled by Secretary Garrison

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Secretary Garrison has enforced for the first time the new army regulations governing war correspondents in the case of Fred Boalt, an American writer with Funston's brigade at Vera Cruz. He was charged with sending out sensational and untrue dispatches. Secretary Garrison has revoked his credentials as a correspondent with the field army and ordered his deportation to the United States.

Three Volcanoes in Alaska Peninsula in Active Eruption

SEWARD, Alaska, July 10.—Further details of the tremendous volcanic activity in progress along the Alaskan peninsula west of Seward and reaching to the Aleutian island, were given today by Captain McMullen of the steamer Dirigo.

Observations made by the crew of the Dirigo showed that a new crater had opened on the north side of Mount Shishaldin, the most westerly of the three peaks reported in eruption. Flowing lava milled down the side of the mountain. A strong westerly wind blew a heavy cloud of smoke from the mountain. Mount Shishaldin, which is on Unimak island, is one of the most active volcanoes in the world and has been in almost continuous eruption for years.

Pavlov volcano, on the Alaska peninsula, west of Shumagin island, 10 miles off Mount Shishaldin, was also active when the Dirigo passed. The action of Pavlov was peculiar, the mountain throwing out a black ash, a light fall of which was noticed on the Dirigo. Pavlov, which is less active than Shishaldin, has not been in eruption since 1912.

The passengers on the Dirigo said that fishermen reported two of the six craters in the mountain ridges west of Cook inlet known as Mount Katmai, have been emitting dense volumes of sulphur laden smoke, but none of the other craters has been active. When the Dirigo was at Cold bay, thirty miles west of the volcano, a week ago, the smell of sulphur was strong, but the smoke coming from the mountain was so thick that the extent of the eruption could not be determined.

The volcanoes are so remote from civilization that no accurate record can be kept of their activities, but it is believed that the present activity began late in May, as the weather since then has been similar to that following the first violent outburst of Katmai July 3, 1912, when rain from the adjacent mainland was covered with a deep layer of volcanic ash.

SCARE FOR DES MOINES COPS

Excitement in Capital at Rumor of State Treasury Robbery.

HURRY RUN TO STATE HOUSE

Officers Find Large Number of Men Sleeping on Grounds, but None Was Found Who Looked Like Highwayman.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, July 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Rumors of another attempt at breaking into the vaults of the state treasury, caused some excitement in police circles in early morning hours today. The police received word the men had been overheard talking about the case with which the treasury might be broken into. The police found on the state house grounds a large number of persons sleeping there to escape the heat and many were arrested, but no suspicious character was found.

The state treasury has now been equipped with an alarm system.

REED WINS FROM PETERS

made Reed lead with four up. Reed holed a long putt on nine for 3 up. On ten, Peters drove into the creek and barely halved the hole with an excellent approach and a long putt.

Peters won eleven, but could not recover the lead.

Johnson Takes Early Lead.

After having the first hole, Johnson took the second, third and fourth holes in succession by a stroke each. They halved the fifth and sixth and Johnson made it 4 up when he took long tom with a 5. Johnson took the eighth with a 5, Foye landing in the creek, and missing his second shot for the green. They halved nine with 4 each, and then, they ten, halved eleven and twelve, lost thirteen and halved fourteen, winning the match 5 up and 4 to play. They medal scores follow:

Johnson—
Out ..... 3 3 5 3 3 5 4-40
In ..... 3 5 5 4
Foye—
Out ..... 5 4 6 5 3 6 6-46
In ..... 5 5 4 4

Reynolds Beats Downes.

Sam Reynolds, the touted field club player, who has been doped as winner of the tournament, easily disposed of P. H. Downes, the field club youth, by 8 up and 7 to play. Reynolds had the better of his younger opponent all the way, and won the match handily.

Hughes and Hale fought a hard match for the honor of playing into the semi-finals.

Hughes winning the match on the twenty-first hole. Hale has gone extra holes on every one of his matches in the championship flight. He won from J. B. Rahm in the first round at the twentieth hole, and from Folsom at the twentieth hole. With Hughes he halved the nineteenth and the twentieth by long putts, but lost the twenty-first by a bad approach shot.

For the first time in the history of the Nebraska state championship Happy Hollow club will have a contender in the finals. There is little difference between Reed and Johnson, so far as dopes in the club for the club championship last year, with ease, but Johnson is playing a strong game, and has an even break for the finals.

Following are the results of morning play:

Wheat Yield in Jefferson.

FAIRBURY, Neb., July 10.—(Special.)—Hundreds of threshing machines are operating in Jefferson county and farmers are threshing their grain from the shock. Wheat is yielding on an average of twenty-five to thirty bushels per acre. There is some disappointment among the farmers in Jefferson county as the yield is not as high as was expected. The yield will equal that of last year. Oats promise to excel that of former years.

Jefferson county farmers have finished corn plowing and their attention is taken up with threshing. Corn is unusually far advanced for this time of year and many fields are already in tassel.
