KEMP IN THE RACE TO STAY

Sets at Rest Any Report that He May Not Go Through.

MOREHEAD FILES AS POPULIST

Congressman Kinkaid Files for Congress from Sixth District as Progressive-Grossman Out for Judge.

(From a Staff Correspondent)

LINCOLN, July 15.—(Special)—Senator J. H. Kemp of Fullerton, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, arrived in Lincoln last night and says he is more than pleased with the outlook over the state.

To newspaper men the senator said: "I am in the race to stay and shall spend most of my time in an active canvass of the situation. I have been over the state some and I am more than pleased at the outlook. I had hoped that the campaign would not have been complicated by the addition of new candidates, but I guess the field is open and it is anybody's race who wants to get in."

"I have not come here to confer with the friends of any candidate, of course, if anybody wants to talk to me or if there are any suggestions they have to make, they are welcome to make them, but they might just as well save their breath if they think I am going to get out of the way for anybody."

Senator Kemp went to Louisville today and attended the Cass county republican convention, returning this evening. He will probably open headquarters at the Lindell hotel, as he finds that his home in Fullerton is a little inconvenient, being so far outside of the main line of travel.

More Double Filings. Not to be outdone by the other aspiring and perspiring candidates, Governor Morehead has filed a petition with his acceptance for the nomination for governor on the people's independent ticket.

Congressman Moses P. Kinkaid also got in the double nomination game and filed as a candidate on the progressive ticket in the Sixth congressional district.

Congressman Charles H. Sloan and by petition for the republican nomination for congress in the Fourth district.

More Candidates Enter. If the filing mill continues to grind out its grists of applications for places on the primary ballot as fast during the balance of the week as it has done the last few days, the voter might as well make arrangements to take a vacation for a few days before the day of the primary election and procure a sample ballot and, seated in the shade of the old apple tree out in the back yard, attempt to unravel the mystery of mysteries which will be his lot to solve. The grist today shows the following:

R. W. Eaton of Lincoln files for the republican nomination for state representative. Mr. Eaton is a brother of H. M. Eaton, formerly land commissioner of the state. He has had considerable experience in state normal work, has been superintendent of city schools in one of two towns in the state the last year or so and has been an instructor at the state university agricultural farm.

Grossman and Kaley File. Senator John H. Grossman has filed a petition as a candidate for district judge in the Omaha district. Judge Grossman was a candidate for the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Howard Kennedy, but the place was given to the incumbent, Judge English. He files under the nonpartisan judiciary act. He served in the last state senate as a democrat.

Jacob L. Kaley of Omaha also files for the judgeship of the Omaha district under the nonpartisan law and presents a petition with the required number of signers.

William Wilson files as a democratic candidate for the state senate from the Twenty-sixth district, composed of the counties of Frontier, Red Willow, Hitchcock, Hayes, Dundy, Perkins and Chase. He represented in the last session by John F. Cordell, who filed yesterday for re-nomination.

Raymond E. Dale of Loup City files for the senate as a democrat to serve the Twenty-second district, composed of the counties of Buffalo, Sherman and Kearney. This district was represented in the last session by Peter Wink, who has filed for re-nomination.

L. H. Howe of Humboldt files for the progressive nomination for representative from the Third district, composed of the counties of Richardson and Nemaha.

J. J. Benedict of York wants to represent the Forty-third district in the lower branch of the legislature as a progressive.

Fred L. Nutzman of Nehawka, who served in the 1911 session as representative from the district composed of the counties of Cass and Otoe counties, wants to come back. Charlie Busch of Nebraska City represented the district in the last session. Mr. Busch is a democrat.

W. H. C. Woodhull of North Platte, a republican, has filed a nomination to represent the Seventy-seventh district, which is composed of the counties of Keith, Lincoln and Dawson, represented in the last session by E. M. Seale, a republican.

Wesley Tessler of Ogallala desires to represent the Seventy-seventh district. Skiles for Regent.

MAYFIELD SUES NORFOLK FOR TEN THOUSAND

MADISON, Neb., July 15.—(Special)—Olin M. Mayfield has brought action in the district court against the city of Norfolk to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 for injuries which he alleges in his petition he sustained on the night of June 15, 1914, by reason of a pile of brick obstructing Twelfth street between Park and Phillips streets, there being no danger signals.

Frank A. Brown, traveling man of Sioux City and formerly of Omaha, has brought action for divorce against his wife, Ella B. Brown of Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were married at Pender, Neb., in 1909. He alleges cruelty as grounds for separation and asks for the custody of their minor child.

Suffra Will Tour Richardson. STELLA, Neb., July 15.—(Special)—Mrs. R. T. McGier, president of the Richardson County Suffrage club at Falls City, announces an automobile tour for Saturday, July 18. The suffragists will leave Falls City at 1:30 p. m. and speak at Dawson at 4 p. m. They plan to take a picnic supper with them and will eat at Humboldt, where they go direct from Dawson. Bull Moosers Fill Out State Ticket

(From a Staff Correspondent)

LINCOLN, July 15.—(Special)—After frequent conferences behind closed doors, the bull moose party has finally succeeded in finding enough patriots who are willing to allow their names to be used in connection with the bull moose nomination for a state office and the following list is now given out. Lieutenant governor has not been filled, but has been left to Omaha members to fill in:

Governor, H. E. Sackett, Beatrice. Secretary of state, Charles Skella, McCook. Treasurer, W. J. Branch, Omaha. Auditor, J. E. Hanson, Fremont. Land commissioner, W. I. Benedict, York.

Attorney general, W. T. Willis, Bluffe. Superintendent, W. T. Davis, McCook. Railway commissioner, J. C. Harpham, Lincoln.

Regents, Don L. Love, Lincoln; W. H. Miller, Bloomington.

Too much credit cannot be given Boss Carrick for landing the above members for the way the herd has been dodging around the enclosure trying to escape the lasso in the hands of an experienced roper like Carrick, has been a caution, and while the boss is now drawing the first long breath of relief for many moons, he still has to be awake early and late to keep the captured moosers from slipping the noose and getting away, before Secretary of State Walt closes the gate and applies the padlock.

Should Build Up, Not Disrupt Party

(From a Staff Correspondent)

LINCOLN, July 15.—(Special)—The self-projection of the republican national committee into the field as a candidate for governor, is drawing fire from all sides, and particularly from those more interested in party success than in personal profit. Said a man at the state house today:

"In the position of national committee man of the republican party, one of the most important duties is to build up the party, and prevent friction and factionalism. The national committee man has no right to use his position as a lever to help himself into any office. His duties require more self-respect than self-aggrandizement. He should work for the party, and not for himself."

Mr. Howell said while in Lincoln that he proposed to hold on to his $5,000 job on the Omaha Water board. He does not have enough confidence in his ability to land the nomination or the election to take a chance, but proposes to hang on to the one public post until another is within grasp. In other words, Mr. Howell's love for the municipal water plant of Omaha only extends to using as a stepping stone to further his political ambitions.

Loup City Candidate Makes Winning Fight

(From a Staff Correspondent)

LINCOLN, July 15.—(Special)—R. P. Starr of Loup City has been in the city this week on business for a few days. Mr. Starr recently filed for the republican nomination for the state senate from the Twenty-second district comprising the counties of Buffalo, Sherman and Kearney. This district was represented in the last session by Peter Wink of Kearney.

Mr. Starr was pressed into the race two years ago to fill a vacancy only a very short time before the election, but notwithstanding this pulled a big vote and would have probably been elected if he had had a chance to make the campaign. He believes that with a full campaign before him he can make a winning race this fall. Mr. Starr was formerly county attorney of Sherman county and is very popular in his locality.

MAN WANTED AT PIERCE ARRESTED IN SIOUX FALLS

(From a Staff Correspondent)

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., July 15.—(Special)—As he stepped from the doors of the county jail in this city after completing a thirty-day term for drunkenness, John Williams, a Nebraskan, was arrested on a warrant charging him with burglary and jail breaking in Pierce county, Nebraska. Williams' smile faded away when the officer took him into custody. He refused to return to Nebraska without requisition papers, and these will be secured as speedily as possible by Sheriff Goff, the Nebraska official, who traced Williams to Sioux Falls. Pending the securing of the requisition papers Williams is being held by the Minnesota county authorities on the charge of being a fugitive from justice. Williams' alleged crime was committed in August, 1911. He had been indicted and was awaiting trial when he broke jail.

Crawford Kennedy accepts Peace Plan

(From a Staff Correspondent)

LINCOLN, July 15.—(Special)—The good natured letter sent out by Charles C. Marshall, candidate for the republican nomination for congress in the First district, to the other seven candidates for the same office suggesting that the candidates all meet at the Lincoln hotel after the primary as the guest of the successful candidate, has brought out the following characteristic reply from Crawford Kennedy of Lincoln:

My Dear Charles: I am in receipt of your letter of July 11 suggesting that the republican candidates for congress from the First congressional district meet at Lincoln on Monday August 24, as the guests of the successful candidate. Reports from over the district are strongly indicating that I will be the nominee I assure you the plan meets with my unqualified approval. I had already made plans to entertain my opponents on the terms you suggest, but modesty has prevented me from extending the invitation until I received your letter and ascertained that you had by some means been informed of my intention. Trusting the meeting will be a most interesting one, I am glad to hear that you will continue between us during my career in congress that has prevailed during the primary campaign and the many years of our acquaintance I am very sincerely yours.
