Dashner, Rapps, Reisigl and Cooley Perform Antics on Coaching Lines for the Benefit of Fans in Grandstand.

The lowly Kaws, instilled with a great ambition to do something heroic for their home village, put on a terrific burst of what Dick Cooley calls speed in yesterday's combat with the Rourkes, with the disagreeable and distasteful result that Omaha was licked into a state of submission which closely resembled that of coma. There is no question about it, the Kaws were entirely too previous and prominent in Saturday's battle and their impolite conduct calls for two wallopings today, and Johnny Gonding declares that the said wallopings will be forthcoming Before the Kaws got through shattering the pleasant dreams of Messra. Hamilton's Wildness Helps Yankees Win listic at times, was sent to the mound to NEW YORK, July 18.-Hamilton's wiidness helped the New York Americans had bum luck, probably due to lack of to an easy victory over St. Louis by a from sliding into last place. Score, first training, as he was not in the pink of score of 5 to 2 in the second game of the condition as is necessary when assuming series today. Four bases on balls and the burden of avenging a fellow athlete's a wild pitch without the aid of a safe defeat. Bert was battered from sight in hit gave New York two runs in the third the sixth and Walter Slagle was called inning. Coldwell was strong in the upon to oblige. Walter did very nicely, pinches and None checked a St. Louis but got himself in bad by refusing to score in the eighth by a fast play on allow a Kaw to get a hit in the ninth. Shotten's hard bounder, retiring the run-That inning alone ruined the record the ner for the third out with two on bases,

GRIFFIN WINS THE CLAY COURT TITLE

Can Franciscan Defeats Elia Fotrell of Same City at Cincinnati Tennis Tourney.

PRETTY PLAY IS EXHIBITED

HIS DRIVES ARE SHORT CHOPS Miss Mary Browne of Los Angeles

and Mrs. Williams of Chicago Defent Miss Lyons and Miss Dadd.

CINCINNATI, July 18 .- Clarence Griffin of San Francisco today won the clay court championship tennis title from Elia Fottrell, also of San Francisco, but it was by the closest possible margin. The match went five sets, three of which were hard fought, and in which some of the prettiest exhibitions of tennis skill ever seen here was shown. Endurance proved the victor in the match, for at one time Fottrell was within a single point of annexing the homer. The scores were, 3-6, 6-8, 8-6, 6-0, 6-2 Fottrell had his man at his mercy during the first set. The steady, careful game for which Griffin is noted, proved successful in the long run, however, for after the first set, the points began to grow on the side of Griffin. While he lost the second set by a close margin, yet his steady drives along the lines began to tell on the fast tiring Pottrell in the third set. It was at this point that the climax of a remarkable situation was in this set after all of them had gone to deuce several times. Griffin's wonderful placing then began to tell, for he took the fourth and fifth games rather handily. Fottrell gathered in the sixth, and Griffith came back strong, winning the seventh and eighth and making the score four all. Fottrell took the ninth and Griffith the tenth.

Wins First Three. Fottrell annexed the first three games

Then Fottrell took the eleventh and took the first three points in the twelfth, thereby being within one point of the championship. Here, however, Griffin. rallied, deuced the game and then won it, making the games 6-6 on the set. Fottrell had been noticed to falter. His drives lacked the force that had characterized them during the earlier games and after two hard fought games Griffin won out and won his first set. By this time Fottrell was almost in a state of complete exhaustion and it required a ten minutes' rest before he was able to resume play. Efforts Almost Pittful. When he did his efforts were almost pitiful. What had heretofore been drives developed into short chops and his returns were of the weakest. Griffin, gaining confidence at every stroke, ran out the set, 6-0, allowing Fottrell only a few scattered points during the entire set. In the fifth and final set Griffin took the braced, getting back to something like his old form and by tremedous effort won the fourth and fifth games. This, however, used up all of his reserve endurance, and the remainder of the match was easy for Griffin, he winning the next three games with Fottrell scoring only a point in each game. Miss Mary Browne, Los Angeles, and women's doubles. Score, 6-2, 6-1.

Wayne and Browne, Los Angeles, won the men's doubles clay court championship by defeating Griffin and Fottrell, San Francisco, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.
