OMAHA WINS DOUBLE BILL

Rourkes Cop Two Games from Topeka Before Enormous Crowd.

ROY SANDERS HURLS ONE GAME

Sters Semi-Pro Twirler Works in Second Battle and Has No. Trouble Winning from Cellar Champtons.

Sunday crowds in Omaha have a particular fancy to double bills. The crowd yesterday had an especial fancy toward yesterdny's double bill for two reasons. First the Rourkes copped both combats. Second, Roy Sanders worked in the sec ond game and trimmed the Kaws with due ceremony and eclat. Roy showed he had it in him by keeping the Kaw hits well scattered and only in one inning did they score on him. The score of the first game was 6 to 5 and the score of the second, 8 to 3.

Red Styles started the first battle and did very nicely except on two occasions when he uncoupled wild pitches which permitted Kaw runners to score from third. Red weakened a bit in the eighth and was boisted from sight, but the Rourkes won the battle by a nifty rally in the final two rounds.

With the score a tie in the seventh the Kawa made three runs in the eighth and it looked like goodby combat. Such was not so though, for Omaha came back strong and tore off two runs. Krueger walked, but was forced at second by Krug. Thomason busted a double to right and Thomas followed with another in the same spot.

Rourkes Win in Ninth. The Kaws made one more off Dan Tip-

ple in the ninth and Omaha's chances weren't bright. Then Congalton beat out Ward poled a double to center. Graham went out, but Crosby hit one to Tallion, who threw home to Waite, who, in turn, let the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and Conny and Ward counted With the pill trickle through his legs and the pill trickle through his legs and the pill trickle through the pill trickle th

SCORE, Moines here today, 7 to peared from the horizon propelled by Dick Cooley's well known derrick. If Bleycle had remained it is probable that Bunk Congalton would have knocked a pedal off. Bunk took a single off Jones an unknown youth who succeeded the damaged Bicycle, and the Prussian prince scored a fourth run.

Lead Enough.

This gave Sanders a lead which the Kaws never overcame and the Rouskes made four more off Jones just to show Roy that they were with him. For four innings Jones performed very nicely, but in the sixth Graham's hit to center, Sanders' hit to right and Krug's infield hit netted one. In the seventh Schliebner's hit and Wakefield's error coupled with a wild pitch and Ward's sacrifice fly counted the prince. Thomason's hit followed by a hit by Thomas and an error by Bowen and Congalton's sacrifice fly gave the Rourkes their last run. Only in the fifth inning did Sanders weaken before the Kaw batters. Three runs were scored off him in that round. Graham started by muffing Bowen's bounder. McAllister followed with a hit to center and, after Jones and Wakefield went out. Rapps beat out an infield hit, scoring Bowen. Forsythe poked one to right, scoring McAllister and Koerner's drive to center scored Rapps. After that Sanders steadled and had everything his own way the rest of the game. Today the last game of the series will he played. After the battle today the Rourkes start the long swing around the western circuit and will not return home until August 7. Today will be ladles' day and the game will be called at 3 o'clock.
