GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Western Farmers Holding the Whip Hand Over Wheat Situation.

CORN IS STILL IRREGULAR

Yellow Cereal is Quite Uncertain in Level of Prices and is Fluctuating Up and Down in Price.

OMAHA, July 27, 1914.

OMAHA, July 77, 1914.

According to Joe Pritchard, the average ditisen is doubtlessiy impressed with the idea that with a wheat crop of more than 900,000,000 bushels in the United States, the man who follows the plow will be obliged to meet the views of foreign buyers. This is not the case, however, as western farmers hold the whip hand in the wheat marts of the world.

Crop conditions in many of the countries of the old world are not as glowing as wheat importers would like to see, and this will give the "Yankee" farmer a better market for his wheat. From Russia comes word that the spring wheat prospects are rather discouraging.

Farmers of Kansas, which is the banner wheat state country, and where the crop is continued as from 150,000,000 Farmers of Kansas, which is the banner wheat state country, and where the crop is variously estimated at from 150,600,000 to 180,000,000 bushels, have made a stand to hold their wheat for higher prices. As to the crop prospects in the spring wheat country, they are not as favorable as was the case a fortnight since. Crop experts, however, who have been sent into that country for the purpose of ascertaining the exact condition of the growing wheat plant have worn threadbare taining the exact condition of the growing wheat plant have worn threadbare

Corn has ruled unsettled and irregular and price changes have followed the changes. Those who have put out short lines of good size have been forced to cover at losses, save during the last few days, when there was a change in sentiment, with the weather the controlling factor. Conditions in Argentine, while somewhat better, because of clear and cooler weather, falled to cause any weakhess in the markets of the old world, where prices were steady to firm. While the course of the oats market in the near futures will depend to a large extent upon the action of wheat and coorn, it has been evident during the last few days that the traders in this market are more inclined to take the initiative and pay less attention to other pits. This is true to a greater extent when prices in the pair than the beautiful to the traders of the prices in the prices in the pair to the pits.

is true to a greater extent when prices in the big pits move upward than when weakness is shown, because of the trade fears to follow the buying side too closely in view of the better crop reports that

Those who have long ines of hog prod-Those who have long lines of hog product have been disposed to take profits at all favorable opportunities during the last few days, but whether this indicates that they have lost confidence in the future position of the market or not, is a question they do not care to answer.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Hope that a European war might yet be avoided made the wheat market react sharply today after a decided advance. The close was nervous at the same time as Saturday night to %c up and the outcome was unchanged to %c up and oats unchanged to the from the northwestern states and from Canada received but little attention in the wheat pit, where business hinged almost entirely on the chances of peace or war. Under the circumstances a hig increase of the visible supply was almost virtually ignored.

Corn also depended chiefly on the war cutlook, as hostilities in earnest would greatly curtail or stop altogether any shipments from the Daaube. Dry, hot weather in the domestic belt gave a little sesistance to the buils and so did a failing off in the total of the stock in sight. Oats, although rather firm at the outset, proved afterward much weaker than other grain. The rapidly increasing proved afterward much weaker than other grain. The rapidly increasing proved atterward interesting other grain. The rapidly increasing movement of the new crop appeared to be responsible.

Provisions advanced with hogs. Lard was said to have been purchased freely for European account.

Review of Operations on Stock Exchange During the Day.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Losses of 2 to 4 points were registered by the local stock market in the course of today's early trading. Prices of Americans in London were down that much or more and the seriousness of the Servian situation, coupled with new developments in Uister, contributed to a demoralized condition at the British Metropolis. Continental exchanges were even more panicky, according to advices and the Vienna bourse orderd a cessation of operations until change During the Day.

Bank Clearings

cording to advices and the Vienna bourse orderd a cessation of operations until Thursday. The weakest feature here was Canadian Pacific which opened with a drop of over 3 points. Other shares in the international group were down 1 to 2 points and trading was of the most active and feverish character. Foreign seiling was again a factor in the decline. Alarming conditions abroad caused decilines of 2 to 4 points in the stock market today with a sharp recovery in the final dealings, due to advices of a more hopful character. The closing was irregular.

Abolition of Rule for Imprisoning for Desertion From Navy

WASHINGTON, July 27.-Abelition of imprisonment for desertion from the navy in times of peace was ordered today by Secretary Daniels. Under the new regulations blue jackets who overstay their leave or commit similar breaches of discipline will be summarily dismissed in | 6 ... stead of being sent to prison, while men 10. who become dissatisfied with the service and want to quit may have an honorable discharge by merely refunding certain enlistment allowances.

This radical departure from traditional naval methods has been under consideration by the secretary ever since he came into office. He announced today that the navy now had practically a full quota -51,348 enlisted men-compared with a shortage of more than 4,000 eighteen months ago, and that the time to take the step had come.

of these players in bringing out his points. He spoke of Christy Mathewson, who never has pitched a game of ball on Sunday. He spoke of Charles Herzog, Fred Snodgrass, Arthur Fletcher, Chief Meyers, Tris Speaker, Ty Cobb, John McGraw, Counte Mack and many other ball players who are members of some church or other. He also read letters and interviews from some of the greatest athletas declaring that base ball and the church ran hand in hand.

Rev. Mr. Relaner spoke of the Wards of Brooklyn, owners of the Brooklyn franchise in the Federal league, and how they refused to permit their team to play on Sunday despite pleadings from assoclate magnates. He emphasized the cleanness of base ball, how it was honest and free from the crookedness which goes to make a good sport unpopular. He showed how the base ball fan was the finest fellow in the world as long as he was a fan; how the banker and the office boy were in one and the same sphere when attending ball games, and how base ball was a sport to be encouraged by all Americans as it was clean and demanded the right kind of living by all who participated

U. P. RIVALS DISLIKE ORDER Say Closing of Denver Gateway in a Hardship.

TO TAKE CASE TO HIGH COURT

Other Railroads Assert the Decision Will Turn Eastbound Business as Well as Westbound to Union Pacific.

HOGS—A moderate supply showed up this morning, about sixty-nine cars or 4.500 head being reported in This is 1.700 smaller than a week ago, but is 1.000 heavier than on the corresponding Monday last year.

Shippers and speculators were out early this morning, buying such hogs as suited them at prices that were anywhere from surong to as much as Eguch higher. Fackers, however, were slow in getting started, and such bids as they made early were no more than steady to possibly a tentral court.

Union Pacific.

The other Omaha-Denver railroads are not going to submit to the order of the interstate Commerce commission cidsing the Denver and Pullman gateways in favor of the Union Pacific on everything in the freight line except lumber and fruit. At least they are not going to submit unless the finding is sustained by the United States supreme court.

Under the decision of the commission, representatives of roads other than the Union Pacific take the position that the finding is contrary to public policy, is unfair and is discrimination. those as grounds for an appeal, the case will go to the supreme court. They con-tend that merchants shipping from Missouri river points to points in Wyoming, Washington, Idaho and Oregon are prevented from designating their routing and that under the decision everything is turned over to the Union Pacific and its aubsidiary lines.

In addition they go so far as to say that under the decision the Interstate Commerce commission takes the situation in its own hands and virtually says to the merchants in Missouri river cities that if they have business relations with persons in the western states it must be transacted solely with the Union Pacific, and that no matter what facilities other roads offer they must be ignored. See Far-Reaching Effect.

Not only does the ruling turn over to business, but railroad representatives contend that it works in the same manner with all shipments coming east, with the exception of lumber and fruit. They point out that if a business man is out in Wyoming, Idaho, Washington or Oregon and wants to consign a shipment to Omaha. by the Union Pacific, he must give business to this one road, no matter other inducements or facilities the roads may offer. The position is not that when the conditions are pointed to the supreme court the chances are that when the conditions are pointed to the supreme court the chances are the Deriver and Fully steady for anything in the line of ased sheep. Owing to the fact that a large proportion of the receipts was on the in-between order the movement was only fairly active, it taking most of the mand seemed best for the decent killing lambs, while the less desirable grades and a large share of the mutton offerings were neglected until mear the close. Chicase had a fairly good run for a Monday, and the feeling there showed a little improvement over last week.

The early lamb sales were made chiefly at $7.505,000,000, the latter price being as high as any lambs, compared with a top of $8.10 last Friday. Transactions appear lower on paper, which is due to the considerable falling off in the quality.

In the neighborhood of 1,200 Oregon wethers changed hands early at $3.500, with 300 head out. Bome Idaho ewes brought $8.50.

Likens Ball Game

to the Game of Life

"The game of base ball is essentially like the game of bife; to be a success in the game of base ball, like in the game of life, the player must be clean, he must be ambilious, he must be able to learn. Thus spoke Rev. Christian F. Reisner of New York City at the First Methodist church Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Reisner spoke of the big league base ball players, with many of whom he was personally acquainted. He related many incidents in the successful careers of these players in bringing out his points. He spoke of Christy Mathewson, who
