

WHEAT PASSES DOLLAR MARK

Omaha Dealers Say that the End is Not Yet Reached.

OMAHA MARKET IS FEVERISH

Speculators in Omaha are buying side and expect to make a big cleanup before the finish comes.

Dollar wheat has come, the first time this year, and Omaha dealers in grain are of the opinion that the top has not been reached.

The dollar wheat of May wheat was reached soon after the opening of the market, but it did not stop there, but kept on climbing until 1.05 was reached.

Like all the grain markets of the country, Omaha opened feverish, with 193 cars of wheat, sixty-five of corn and thirty-one of oats offered.

Chicago cash wheat closed at 85 cents Wednesday and opened with a wide split yesterday, the range being from 81 to 84 cents.

There are some speculators in Omaha and they were all on the buying side. Many of them bought at the close Wednesday night, and in the morning at the opening realized that they had cleaned up snug sums.

The May wheat option Wednesday night closed at 82 cents and opened at 84 cents, but the price did not remain there.

The May option, according to the Omaha traders, is to be the lively one and the one that is going to make money.

Austrians Receive Word to Take Up Arms for Country

Austria is asking its former soldiers now in the United States and not yet full-fledged citizens here to return and take up arms in defense of the fatherland.

Such a request came to Fred Goodman of Benson, employed as checker for Ed Maurer. It came through the Austrian consul at Chicago, simply notifying Mr. Goodman that his country was now at war with Serbia and asking him to report to his troop in Vienna.

"I would do so in a minute," said Mr. Goodman. "If I were still a single man. But I have a wife and children. I cannot leave them. My country I love and would defend, but my wife and children are dear to me. Besides, nothing is said of the expense. I could not afford it."

Mr. Goodman served a few years in the Austrian army, rising to the rank of petty officer. He came to the United States seven years ago, stopping first in New York, then Chicago, then Omaha.

He has taken out his first papers and meant to perfect his citizenship before this, but neglected it. He thinks he will perfect it now.

Mr. Goodman feels that his native Austria is right and will win in the impending struggle, but he deplores the war and expects it to be of short duration.

Sees a Good Year for Western Iowa

After making an automobile trip through a goodly portion of western Iowa, traveling several hundred miles and covering most of the counties lying west of the Des Moines river, Harry V. Hayward, president of the Willow Springs Brewing company, returned feeling confident that the farmers will garner one of the best corn crops in the history of the state.

"The small grain has been harvested and considerable has been threshed. Wheat has turned out well, oats are yielding better than in years, while fruit, potatoes and all of the root crops are close to being bumper crops.

Harvest Over in South Dakota; No More Men Needed

Now the cry is that too many men are flocking to South Dakota for work in the harvest fields. With the harvest practically over there, it is said that the employment agencies of Omaha and other cities are still sending great carloads of men daily to South Dakota, expecting harvest work, when as a matter of fact it is all over.

The Omaha police department took the matter in hand at the suggestion of the Commercial club, stating that carloads of men are still being shipped to Dakota to work in the harvest fields.

This was the result of a letter received by the Commercial club from Secretary W. H. Holmes of the Sioux City Commercial club, stating that carloads of men are still being shipped to Dakota from Omaha in spite of the fact that the harvest is practically over in South Dakota.

MISS WHITE SPEAKS ON TRAINING OF CHILDREN

Miss Charlotte E. White, lecturer for the Child Conservation League of America, spoke on "Scientific Training of Children" at the First Memorial church Wednesday afternoon.

"The first too often made the strong child bitter," said Miss White, "the second unfitted the child for success in life, while the third aims to turn the strong qualities of the resolute nature in the right direction, and to develop the gentle spirit to strength and virility. To be good is not always to be successful, and parents are beginning to realize that scientific training is just as valuable with the child as with the plant or animal."

ACCUSED FORGER ASKS REDUCTION OF BOND

Asserting that he is innocent and that his family is suffering for lack of his support, Edward L. Bates has been brought to Omaha and placed in the county jail, awaiting trial on the charge of forging the name of his brother-in-law, John Price, to a government money order two years ago.

The complaint against him was filed here some time ago and Bates was arrested in Denver, from which city he was brought to Omaha by Deputy United States Marshal Robinson. His bond has been fixed at $1,000, and Bates asks that the amount be reduced, so that his relatives in Illinois can get him out of jail and allow him to return to his family.
