ROURKES BATTER TURNER

Home Athletes Assemble Ten Runs Off Des Moines Hurler.

SEVEN RUNS MADE IN FOURTH

Turner Aviates in that Stanza and, with Subsequent Tallies, Rourkes Run Up 10 to 6 Score in Booster Day Battle.

A gink by the name of Turner, who once encumbered the pay roll of some American association club, essayed to train the fiery Rourke athletes yesterday, but in that capacity he was quite invisible to the naked orb. He hurled horrendously for three innings but that much prosperity made him somewhat hors du combat and he ascended with remarkable rapidity in the fourth when the demon home athletes celebrated Booster day in a most fitting and proper manner by bumping seven runs over the well known plate. This seven was augumented in subsequent rounds until the final score stood, 10 to 6.

Outside of the fact that Omaha copped the combat and Rourke and Isbell worked for nothing, Booster day wasn't what might be called cyclopean success. A bare thousand bugs paid their way into the park and Vic Parrish opines the coin realized therefrom will not pay for the grape juice the attendants at the convention of the National Association of Professional Base Ball leagues may dispose of during their stay among us. Vic wasn't any too sanguine over the venture and he declares necessity demands another Booster day early in September.

The Boosters from Des Moines were quite militant in the opening stanzas. Three runs did the belligerent gents compile off Mr. Roy Crabb before their fellow citizen and compatriot, Mr. Turner, departed for the clouds in the fourth.

Fourth Some Inning.

But the fourth round was sweet to all loyal Rourke fans. Turner started by walking Krueger. Fred Schliebner, the well known Prussian prince, who would rather fight Isbell than all the Russians in the world, doubled to center. Congalton poked a single to the same pasture and when Ewoldt and Hartford beat it out to centerfield to get a closer view of the signs painted on the fence, Krueger hiked for the plate while Isbell emerged from the habiliments of the proletariat in the visiting sarcophagus to call sundry words of advice. Krueger made the hike with success and the Prussian prince hiked with equal success to third while Hunter hit the pill firmly in his noble mitt and waited for somebody to throw it. Thomas popped to Turner in a futile effort to sacrifice, but Graham poked one through Hahn for a double. Dunlop rolled a little one to Ewoldt, who promptly made one of his famous hectic heaves toward the inoffensive bugs in the grand stand and Congalton and Graham raced home. Crabb doubled into deep center scoring Dunlop and Krug hit one a mile or a mile and a half into right field for two sacks scoring Crabb. Thomason beat out an infield hit and Krug scored when Kruegger went out, Turner to Jones. Thomason was caught trying to nab third and the agony was over.

Not content with battering Mr. Turner to a frazzle in the fourth the turbulent Rourkes started after him again in the fifth. The Prussian prince singled, was sacrificed to second, went to third on a passed ball and came home on Thomas' sacrifice fly.

Turner a Game Guy.

To show he is a regular glutton for punishment Turner bravely carried the fray into the next round. Crabb poled a hit, Turner made an error and Thomason made another hit. One run. Krug then scored on Kruegger's fielder's choice for the second run. That was all as the Rourkes did not want to ruin Mr. Turner entirely. He might pitch again here.

In the eighth inning the Boosters tried to rally. They rallied for a minute but that was all. Andreas walked and Jones, Haley and Ewoldt singled in succession, thus netting three runs. Nothing more doing, however, as Crabb was right on the job.

Today Jesse Garret wil heave for the Rourkes. Game called at 3 o'clock. Sunday a double-header will be staged. First game called at 2 o'clock. Pep Sanders, of the Storz Tirumphs, will heave one game. Score:

Take Fall Out of Norfolk.

NORFOLK, Neb., Aug. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Columbus turned the tables on Norfolk and took a 10 to 2 victory this afternoon. Heavy hitting by practically the entire Columbus lineup counted twelve big hits, which made ten scores. Reid was knocked out of the box in the third inning, and Columbus had no trouble in finding Getschell. Theiman was hit for seven long hits, but his support held down the Drummer scoring. Melker was benched, and fined for tugging at Umpire Black's shirt, over a ball and strike. The score:
