Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Accummutating domestic stocks and the cancelling of ex-port contracts had a depressing influence today on the price of wheat. The market closed heavy at & to 1½ c net decline. Corn showed a loss of ½ to 1½ c com-pared with last night, and oats of ½ c to 1½ c. In provisions the outcome was the same as last night to 10c off. Prospective difficulties in regard to financing wheat supplies that can find no outlet to Europe began to tell dis-tinctly today against values. Nothwith-standing that conservative traders doubled whether any fears in this pit were constantly made aware that scaboard ex-porters were trying to resell here, and when unable to do so were hedging by sale of various futures. Rallies which took place at times to-day in the wheat market failed to hold. The chief encouragement for the upturns was the hope that the conference be-tween exporters and Secretary McAdoo would bring specially looked forward to was a possible arrangement whereby American exporters would able to col-lect promptly payment for shuments esceed by the British governuent. aiy tendency of prices was more in evi-dence. Local brokers said that the buying movement of ant week probably had supplied the more urgent needs of con-sumers, and while uncertainty was still more or less generally expressed as to the probable cost of replacing domestic stocks there seemed more of a disposi-tion to await developments. Very little business was reported on the rurb. September contracts were offered for sale at 1.5cc in the afternoon or a little more than a cent a pound below the high level of last week. Spot quotations showed similar reactions from the re-cent high point. Rios is being quoted at 8½c and Santos 4s at 13½c.
