CCORDING to Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, who was in Omaha last week, the endorsement of suffrage by the General Federation of Women's clubs helped the suffrage movement immensely, but it helped the federation more.

'The Federation of Women's clubs is the child of the old Woman's Rights party," she said. "The child had to be taught to waik in the ways of its parent It toddled along in its swaddling clothes until it was 21 years old, when it asserted itself as a child of the suffrage movement. The speaker denied that "gag" rule had been resorted to in order to gain the suffrage endorrement at the convention as had been assorted and said that every delegate came to the meeting imbued with the spirit of the movement. "Of the thousands of women present, there were less than twenty-five dissenting votes,' she said.

Mrs. Trout told of the organization of the city of Chicago by the ward and precinct system now being tried in Omaha. under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Sunderland. She said that every ward and precinct chairman could be reached within one hour and a half in case of immediate need, because of the perfect organization of the city. Mrs. Trout admitted that local organizations are apt to be jealous of each other and urged them to overcome this characteristic.

Mrs. Trout also spoke of the need for the ballot as a tool to combat the white slave peril.

The annual meeting of the Frances Willard Young People's branch of the Women's Christian Temperance union was held Friday evening at the Jennings Methodist Episcopal church. Miss Sarah Givens was elected president. Mr. Roy Christians, vice president; Mr. Clarence Palm, corresponding secretary; Miss Ruth Elmberg, recording secretary; Mr. Morris Anderson, treasurer. Miss Esther Karel. the retiring president, and Miss Lillie Givens were elected delegates to the county convention which will be held at Waterloo Friday
