WENT to the style show this morning, together with about 200 visiting milliners and merchants who are here for "Style week."

Mr. Cne is the well known man milliner of New York, formerly of Paris, and says that the Americans are fully capable of designing and originating their own styles.

"Our minds are running to everything military, because of the European war, and everything will be decidedly martial and military in appearance and silhouette," said Mr. Cne.

"Paul Poiret got the idea of the full tunic from the Servians, and everyone is wearing them."

"The elaborate trappings of the Montenegrin horses caught the eye of Monsieur Poiret, the alert designer, and nearly all of the well-gowned women of the civilized world have been wearing the wide belts and girdles suggested by Poiret."

Mr. Cne also gave an interesting talk on salesmanship this morning to the visitors at N. A. Spiesberger's. "Have you seen a careless clerk flop an artistic hat on her head, not noticing that she had the front at the back, and walk up and down in front of a prospective customer?"

This afternoon the man-milliner is going to explain how to make twenty-four different kinds of bows. I have yet to see a man who can tie even one kind of a bow, so I think I will go to the next lecture.

European Travelers.

Miss Ella Reynolds received word this morning from Judge and Mrs. B. S. Baker, under date of August 5, to the effect that they are safely located in London, "but would much rather be home under the circumstances."

CEREALS SHOW STRENGTH

News New Orleans is Accepting Exports Gives Market Strength.

OMAHA RECEIPTS ARE LIGHT

Only Twenty-Eight Cars of Wheat, Twenty-Nine of Corn and Sixteen of Oats Received for Local Sale.

Word reached the Omaha Grain exchange yesterday that New Orleans is accepting wheat for export to London, Liverpool and Belfast, the charges to be prepaid, and as a result all of the cereals showed strength right from the opening of the market.

At Omaha the receipts were light, there being but twenty-eight cars of wheat, twenty-nine of corn and sixteen of oats received. This was quickly bought up, the cash prices of wheat being 85 1/2 to 86 cents.

Chicago, like Omaha was higher, September wheat having a range of from 94 1/2 to 95 cents; December from $1 to $1.02 and May from $1.07 1/2 to $1.08 1/2. Corn and oats followed wheat in the upward movement.

RABBI W. P. KOTKOV TO SPEAK HERE FRIDAY

Rabbi W. P. Kotkov of Chicago is expected in the city Friday morning to deliver a series of lectures at the Jewish synagogues. The rabbi will speak in English Friday evening at the Beth Hamed-rosh Hazodol synagogue, Nineteenth and Burt streets, to which service Jewish young men and women have been especially invited.

The rabbi comes to Omaha pursuant to action taken recently by these orthodox congregations to bring an English speaking rabbi here, whose work will be principally with the Jewish young people of the community.

The New SAXON $395

Here's the Car You Can Afford to Buy and to Keep

6000 Saxons in owners hands all over this country and abroad are daily proving that you can economically own and operate an automobile.

This car, stylish, sturdy, of standard design throughout, is, we claim, absolutely the best two-passenger motor car in the world at anywhere near its price—its first cost.

In upkeep cost the Saxon is absolutely without a rival. It has traveled from New York to San Francisco, over the Lincoln Highway, through deserts, over hills, through all kinds of going and averaged 30 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

In owners hands even more striking economy-records are reported:

G. W. Gilmore of Macon, Ga., says, "I drove my Saxon over 100 miles and hung up a record of 35 miles per gallon of gasoline."

H. V. Smith of Marion, Ind., writes, "I made 248 miles on seven gallons of gasoline."

W. P. Hanzley of Calumet, Michigan, says, "My Saxon has cost me 16c a day to run."

And these are only typical of hundreds of others.

Economy with Style

This is the first real automobile cheaper to own and to run than a horse and buggy. And no car has more style, more high priced car standard features and no car is easier handled.

Come in and see the car yourself. Let it tell its own story to you.
