Coffee Market.

Caffee Market. NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—COFFEE—The spot coffee market was lower again today with Rio No. 7 quoted at 8 and Santos is at 13. The foreign exchange situation, so far as financing shipments from Brasil through London is still very uncertain, but it is reported that Brasil is showing more disposition to offer coffee, and it is rumored primary shippers have asked for New York credits. These features are supposed to point to an increased move-meat in this direction from Brasil in the near future and it was said here today that Brasil had offered cost and fraight coffee free to New Orleans at considerable concessions in prices.

1.000 head. It is very evident from the size of the run that the range season is setting under way. With the demand good in the face of light receipts, all kinds of killing cattle, were very free sellers, prices as a rule being fully steady with yesterday.
