

ROURKES HAVE DAY OF REST

Open Date in Schedule Busts Winning Streak Asunder.

BOOSTER THURSDAY GAME

Funds Taken in at Gate Will Be Donated to Entertainment of Convention of Professional Base Ball Leagues.

When Pa Rourke asked to have August 31 an open day in the Western league schedule he failed to figure that his loyal athletes might be in the middle of a spurt after the manner of the Boston Braves, but he figured that the day of rest would be both beneficial and advisable. But therein he was wrong. His athletes won five straight games in a row, which is some feat for the Rourkes, and now the open date busts the streak asunder. As a result the athletes moped around town yesterday bemoaning the cruel fate which jinxed a string of victories which would have carried them clear to the top of the heap, perhaps.

The athletes spent most of their time yesterday lamping the new fall lids in the shop windows. As pay day is still some distance off no hats were bought, but they all picked out their style, and when they blossom, Jesse Garrett and Red Styles, acknowledged to be the sartorial sensations of the team, will look like a couple of hicks just blown in from Pump-

After lamping all the headwear the athletes started to plan on a method of attack against the well-fortified Kaws, who open here today. The Kaws copped five successive combats in Topeka at the last series and what our demon athletes intend to do to those Kaws in the way of revenge is a plenty. Even Dick ! Cooley will be compelled to kneel on the Booster Game Thursday.

Pa Rourke and Vic Parrish spent a busy day framing the Booster day program for Thursday. The last Booster day was shy on the boost, and this one shall not be so, say Pa and Vic. The funds derived from the loyal citizens who attend Thursday's battle will be donated toward the entertainment fund for the convention of the National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues, to be held here in November. That is to be held here in November. That is to be fraternity are up for discussion there will be a whole lot of base ball history mad in Omaha during the fatal days of the convention.
