ROURKES HAND KAWS GAME

Pa's Athletes Graciously Slip Combat to Cooleyless Kaws.

TODAY WILL BE BOOSTER DAY

Coin Taken in at Gate Will Be Given Toward Entertainment of Delegates to Convention of Base Ball Leagues.

As yesterday was pay day for all the Rourke athletes, the said athletes decided to maintain an attitude of strict neutrality. In addition to maintaining the state of strict neutrality the Rourkes persisted in treating the Topeka bunch so as to spend the coin in a profitable manner. The result was they gave the Kaws everything from base hits to the ball game. The final count was 3 to 2. There is no getting around it, Rourke is demoralizing. Pa should quit paying his hired hands and maybe they might play a little base ball.

Richard Cooley was not a participant in the pastime yesterday. It is a good thing he wasn't. The umpire has enough trouble with the other Topeka players without having Cooley around to address them in unexpurgated dictation. The Kaws so excited Umpire Cooley that he actually mistook enough nays to have a gink by the name of Whelan out of the park. Whelan was tickled to be dispersed as he had a date at a nearby corner.

Jesse Garrett was the victim of circumstance yesterday. The box score said the Kaws made twelve hits, but as it is a well-known fact that box score figures lie frequently, the Kaws should have got about six hits and Rourke about six errors. All the Topeka men had to do was pop the pill in the air and the Rourkes let it fall unheeded among them. The Rourkes would be fine guys to dodge bombs dropped from Zeppelins over in Paris.

Mr. Weldman, recently mobilized from the State league, heaved for the Cooleyless Kaws. He did a fine job. He also made an error. It was some error. He threw the pill about a mile or a mile and a half into right field and helped our boys make one of their scores.

Booster Day Today. All coin taken in at the gate will be given to the entertainment fund for the convention of the National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues in Omaha, November 10. All fans are urged to bring the required 50 cents to get by the vigilante at the gate. Johnny Guindling will bring out a car load of wild squirrels to let 'em look at the fibers on the Topeka club. After lamping the Kaws in action it is expected that the squirrels will become so wrathful that such choice fibers be wasted on a Topeka ball club and will therefore attack most of them and store them away for the winter supply of provender. It will be a fitting end for the Topeka nuts. Game called at 3 o'clock.
