Tuesday evening Miss Carpenter and Miss Darlow will have twelve guests; living: Baxter, ten; A. R. Wells, eight; R. C. Peters, fourteen.

European Travelers. Miss Annie Doyle returned Saturday, after having spent two months in Europe. She was in England when war was declared and as the boat she was to sail on was seized by the government to transport troops she managed to secure passage on the Baltic, which arrived in New York August 22. She made a short stay in New York before returning to Omaha. Her sister, Miss Mary Doyle, preceded her on another boat.

Hamilton-Barber Wedding. The wedding of Miss Mildred Barber, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Barber, and Clinton Hamilton took place Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Nathaniel McGiffin of the First Presbyterian church of Fremont, formerly of the Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church of this city officiated.

The bride wore an afternoon gown of French hand embroidered crepe, made in the Russian tunic style, with corsage bouquet of white sweet peas and bride's roses. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served for the immediate relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left for a wedding trip to Chicago, Milwaukee and the lakes of Minnesota and after October 1 will be at home at 812 Davenport street. The wedding comes as a surprise to the many friends of the young people. The bride is a member of the 1914 class of the Central High school. Mr. Hamilton at-

Now is Corset Time

You should purchase your fall corset before you look at suits or gowns. For the corset, all careful dressers know, is the foundation of the costume, and upon it depends much of the effectiveness of the suit or dress. If your corset is correct, your appearance can hardly fail to be smart. The figure of the coming season is erect, the poise normal and easy. The waist is large, with a slight curve over hips. If you would have your figure conform to fashion's requirements, you should have your corset fitted at Brandeis. We have several new fitting rooms, so you will not have to wait. Our fitters are all expert corsetiers. With their aid, and with such a complete corset stock as ours from which to choose, you should have no difficulty in securing a perfect fitting, smart appearing corset that will give you perfect satisfaction and comfort. Fitting appointments may be made by phone.
