Appeal Made to Citizens of Lincoln

to Turn Out in Lumbers and Offset Loss (nused by Bad Weather.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 2-(Special)-With the sun shining this morning the state fair grounds began to put on a busy appearance

In agricultural hall the red and blue tags bekan appearing in evidence and the work of judging the county exhibits began. Twenty-two counties have entered in the contest for honors in the county collective exhibit class, more than have entered for some years. The state is divided into three sections, so that the older counties of the east do not compete with the newer counties of the middle section of the state and the comparatively new west portion, the entries being as follows, with the name of the individual having the exhibit in charge:

Don't Buy New Yet

It is almost a certainty that dry goods will be much cheaper next year. There will be no foreign demand for our cotton and wool, therefore it must be manufactured into cloth here in the United States, and that means no imported goods at fancy prices, but an abundance of domestic at low prices.

Think Twice Before Buying New Clothes

You'll be surprised at the great improvement we can make in your old suit, overcoat, jacket or dress.

In addition to a thorough Cleaning or Dyeing and Pressing, we can put new linings in coats, overcoats or jackets, put on new velvet collars, new buttons, new pockets, etc.

We employ only first class tailors and can make any kind of Alteration or Repairs on either men's or women's garments at about one-half to two-thirds what the regular tailors and dressmakers charge.
