Jensen Seeks Divorce—James P. Jensen alleges in a divorce petition that his wife, Mary, called him abusive names and cut him with a knife.
Ut Visits Office—John E. Ut, general freight agent of the Rock Island road, stricken last week with paralysis, has so far recovered that he was at his office for a short time.
School Enrollment Larger—Attendance at public schools has been steadily increasing since opening day. The number enrolled shows an increase of 650 over the records of last year.
"Today's Complete Movie Program" may be found on the first page of the classified section today, and appears in The Bee EXCLUSIVELY. Find out what the various moving picture theaters offer.
To Count the Books—Orders from Washington have been received at the local department of railway mail service that a general inventory of equipment must be made and forwarded to the fourth assistant postmaster general this month.
Rev. Titus Lowe is Chosen—At the quarterly meeting of the First Methodist church, Rev. Titus Lowe was unanimously chosen as pastor for another year, subject to appointment by Bishop Theodore Henderson of the Nebraska conference, who is presiding in place of Bishop Pristol.
Decree Favors Mrs. Boucher—Although a decree of divorce has not been filed, because the costs of suit were not immediately paid, District Judge Sears has entered a memorandum decree in favor of Mrs. Cora Boucher, 1313 South Thirty-third street, who sued for divorce from her husband, John J. Boucher, an Omaha lawyer.
Mrs. Monson Asks Divorce—Mrs. Ruby Crumbliss Monson has sued for divorce from Earl L., whom she says is a barber at the Young Men's Christian association. She alleges cruelty and non-support, and asks for an absolute divorce, alimony and money for the support of a 2-year-old child. She also wants her maiden name restored.
Mrs. Book Answers Husband's Suit—Answering the divorce petition of Frank Book, his wife, Mary, alleges cruelty, physical violence, abandonment and non-support, asks that his petition be dismissed and that she be given a decree of absolute divorce, with their house, alimony and allowance for the support and education of a 13-year-old daughter.
Lewis to Drop Suit—Counsel for S. Arion Lewis, defeated democratic candidate for a legislative nomination, who petitioned for a recount and was refused, has announced that nothing further will be done in the case. He says he has concluded, upon examination of the statutes, that the law contemplates a recount only on strictly city primary ballots.

Charges Are Filed Against Officer Peterson; Assault
 Charges that Police Officer Otto P. Peterson wantonly assaulted George Cathroe, a health inspector, and injured him by striking him in the face with his club have been laid before Police Commissioner A. C. Kugel and the other members of the city commission. A public hearing may be given.
 According to Cathroe's complaint Peterson arrested the young son of the health inspector without cause. When Cathroe, who was reading a newspaper in his home, came out to inquire why the boy, who had been playing in front of the house, had been arrested words followed.
 Cathroe says he then turned away and after his back was turned Peterson hit him with his club over the head and then struck him in the face.

GERMAN CAVALRY CLASHES WITH MOTOR CAR FORCE
 LONDON, Sept. 15.—An engagement took place yesterday near Alost, fifteen miles northwest of Brussels, between German cavalry and a Belgian quick-firing detachment in motor cars, according to an Ostend dispatch to Reuters Telegram company. The German losses are reported to be heavy.
 Twenty thousand Germans, the dispatch says have evacuated Alost hastily to reinforce their troops elsewhere. Before their departure the Germans removed their flag, which had been flying over the railway station.
 Contrary to reports previously circulated, the prison at Louvain remains intact and still holds prisoners.

NOMINATED CANDIDATES QUIT ELECTION RACE
 To be regularly nominated by primary election as candidates for office, and then decline to run, is the unusual action of three Omahans Harry E. Ryan received the progressive party nomination for state senator, E. G. Houck got the nomination of that party for state representative, and John Mahoney was nominated for democratic justice of the peace, by having his name written in the blank space on the ballot. All three have sent their refusals to the election commissioner. Since being nominated on the republican ticket to run for police judge of Benson, John H. McGuire has died, so another candidate must also be substituted for him.

FOSTER AND MILLER FILE FOR BOARD OF EDUCATION
 Two more candidates for the Board of Education have filed petitions. They are Dr. J. J. Foster, present member from the Ninth ward, and August F. Miller, better known as "Gus," who lives in the Twelfth ward. Dr. W. H. Mick had previously filed, and lives in the same ward as Dr. Foster, whom he must defeat in order to be elected.
Cured of Indigestion.
 Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.
