

LAST TWO GAMES TO OMAI

Kaws Succumb to Slants of Re Crabb and Ralph Willis.

FINAL COMBATE OF SEASO

Fred Thomas Makes Last Putout Local Lot and Rourkes Depart for Twelve-Game Trip

Man on Road.

Tep tried and true athletes out of band of fourteen Rourkes, who have so wived the terrific warfare of the Weste league this summer, surrounded the Ka forces yesterday afternoon at Rour park, blew up the ammunition train a literally annihilated the Kansas troo in two frays, 2 to 0, and 7 to 1. The ten tried and true warriers were fighte of first water yesterday and they prov they were well equipped to protect t onor of this marvelous municipality. While out of an army of fifty-seven, forty-three have been cut down by the enemy or captured, the gallant little band fighting for Omaha yesterday, to use an old and hackneyed expression, rang down the curtain on Western league base ball for the season of 1914 in Omaha and have departed from our midst to wage a brief foreign campaign before hiking for the fireside, where they will spend the winter trying to horrow advance money from Hill Rourke to pay for the substances which are acknowledged the necessities of life.

The Cooley-less Kaws yesterday were duck soup. The Kaw hurlers had a de cict propensity toward placing themspeak at crucial interview, Ridgeway and Cochran were the gents who were so careless and they are now bemoaning to Crabb Heaves Profoundly. Los Angeles and other places adjaces thereto, found the Kaws duck soup. To measly little bingles were all he pe mitted them and only once did a Ka get as far as second. Foriern and u his heartiess mates. Two others we left in similar status at first base.

Ridgeway didn't do so worse for six Dashner, 2. Bases on balls: Off Willie, innings, but in the seventh a timely and off Dashner, 4. Time: 1:23. Umpires: M well placed bust by Fritz Schliebner, who well placed bust by Fritz Schliebner, who in recognized as a military genide, inhim in the seventh.

The seventh laning also proved to be the remests of Mr. Dashner and again Schliebner started the cannonade. The range was wen in the seventh and four bunched hits on Vance and Pursell today bunched hits on Vance and Pursell today and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in the eighth for good and made it three atraight from St. Jones were added in three atraight from St. Jones were attained to the st measure. Mr. Dashner pitched here Tues day and also in the first fray yesterday Sometimes he is allowed to rest over night before taking up the burdens o battle, but Bill Rapps was reckiess yes terday and didn't give him any rest. The Kaws only made one run durin the eighteen innings. Then a slip b Willis permitted it. Willis went to slee and forgot to field an infield grounde right in front of him and Lattimor sneaked home.

Both Combats Thrilling. The bugs and bankers lamped all kinds of swell base ball yesterday. The games were short and played in two hours and forty-five minutes. A bunch of double plays were executed, every athlete in the game tried at one time or another to take a couple of bases when custom decreed one was enough and Krug and Schliebner tried to steal home, but were nipped by the wrathy Kaw catchers. The Moose quartet dispensed mellifluous melodies at intervals and a couple of bugs aroused the ire of Bert Grover. thus inciting Grover to a state of wrath Luckily Bert believes in safety first and made the last out of the year by apear- rer. ing a fly of Bill Rapps and instead of the grandstand by way of deletiration he irg, the well known custodian. Dr. Payne, the well known veterinarian, second, making sensational stops and cutting Kaws off at the front. Breen, If..... Krug and Sphliebner will go with the Rourkes on the trip. Then, according to confirmed rumor, they will depart for Europe to take a hand in the war. In case the Germans win Marty will demand Germantown, Pa., as his part of the spoils and Fritz thinks he'll take Milwaukee.
