Creighton Students Organize a Political Club; Nonpartisan

The Creighton Political club organized Creighton law college Thursday evening. for the year in a lively session at the It is estimated that nearly 500 students attended the enthusiastic gathering, following a red hot canvass of the student body. Officers for the year were elected, and it was decided that the club would be strictly nonpartisan in its attitude.

The club is recruited from all departments of the university alike, and the offices are equally distributed. To the law students as those who are most closely connected with politics, was given the presidency. J. J. McDermott of Shelton Neb., a junior in that department, was elected over L. D. Kavenagh of South Omaha.

A vice president was chosen from each department to promote the interests of the club is his school. Hugh Gillespie of Omaha, a junior at the law; John Tamises, junior medic of Omaha; Walter Coakley of Flandreau, S. D., senior arts student, and Robert Gallagher, dental student, were chosen from their various departments.

Otto Brisskey of Wisner, pharmacy student, was chosen financial secretary; Edward Murphy of Minnesota, medical junior, secretary, and Matthew Kane, dent, treasurer of the organization. Thomas Ensor, Mark Ryan and Gerald

Lyons, acted as judges of the election. BALDWIN AND THOMAS IN RACE FOR CHAIRMANSHIP

The call for the republican county committee to meet Saturday afternoon to organize for the campaign has been followed up by notice to the members over the signatures of the officers who presided over the late meeting of party nominces reinforcing the candidates' recommendation as to whom the committee should select for its officers. Members of the committee think they ought to have something to say as representatives of the party and are not all inclined to carry out the slate, and a friendly contest is in prospect for the chairmanship between John N. Baldwin. ir., who showed up so well in his run for police judge at the primary, and Amos Thomas, who heads the list of "recommendations." For secretary, Edward Simon is acceptable to all, and for treasurer, W. E. Rhodes.

LUSITANIA BRINGS MANY REFUGEES BACK TO U. S.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 .- With a total of 1.062 passengers on board the big liner Lusitania reached New York from Liverpool tonight.

Americans returning from the war zone made up the majority of the Lusitania's passengers, but there was a liberal sprinkling of eminent foreigners in its cabins. One of these was Sir James Barrie, author and playwright, and another was A. E. W. Mason, also British author of prominence. Widely known Americans include William Hale of Chicago, Harry Rowe Shelley, organist and composer, and Mrs. George Vanderbilt and daughter.
