FOOT BALL SEASON IN WEST AT HAND

Situation at Minnesota.

Reports from Minnesota indicate that Coach Williams will have a hard time rounding out a team of the class which formerly represented the Gophers.

Only three veterans have been left on the Iowa squad, Barron, tackle; Gross, quarter, and Parsons, quarter and half.

Both Squads Working.

Added interest will be drawn this year to the careers of Michigan and Notre Dame because the former plays Harvard at Cambridge October 11 and the latter meets Yale October 17.

With the problems of filling the hole left by the clever Craig and the development of a line facing him, Coach Yost already has begun work on the Michigan squad.

Reports from Northwestern and Ohio State indicate the gridiron leaders are still in doubt as to the men likely to show up.

Chief among the problems which confronting Coach Jesse Harper is that of finding a quarterback to take the place of Dorais.

Dorais was one of the features of Notre Dame's play last fall. He is a famous fullback of the gold and blue, will return, and others expected back are Finnegan, Dugan, Pliska and Bergman.

Among the most promising of the reserves is Cofahl, a halfback of the smashing type who is likely to prove a star, according to those who have seen his work this season.

Coach Macklin expects another good year with the Michigan Argies, claimants of the western championship. Captain Julian leads a set of fast veterans which will form the nucleus of the eleven.

Nine veterans are expected to report at Western Reserve to Coach Walter Powell. They are: Captain Ray Englehart, full; Tubby center; Jim Rossman, tackle; Ray Portman, guard; Jack Price, half; Maynard Sheldon, tackle; Herman Schuele, quarterback; Louis Landy, halfback; Reserves include Frank Baird, end; Will Hiles, end; Leonard Hile, lineman; Persky, lineman; Curry, end; Denapio, halfback; Pentland, halfback; Craigman, lineman; Emmertman, lineman; Kovarsky, lineman; Ostman, halfback; Young, halfback; Englehart, Price and Portman are expected to do the kicking.

A big squad is promised Coach George Little of the University of Cincinnati. The veterans he looks for are Captain Leonard Baehr, full; Leslie Bryant, center; Paul Seaton, guard; Ellis Greer, tackle; J. Morris, tackle; B. Morris, guard; Gobert Giebel, end; James Montlgomery, half; Edgar Baker, half; Roy Palmer, end; Anton Schneider, guard; R. Vanchemin, half; H. Porter, tackle; Joseph Ginz, mer, guard; H. Goodman, half. Promising reserves are: B. Richardson, Cliff Gregg, Dan Price, H. Green, A. Boss and A. Buttfield, linemen, and J. Stark, Ben Schneider, Ralph McHugh, A. J. Langhammer, Joe Hall, William Pease and George Hodapp, backs.

In the Missouri Valley, veterans apparently will be scarce. At Nebraska, Coach Stehm expects back Captain Victor Hall, tackle; Warren Howard, fullback; Dick Rutherford, half; Roy Cameron, center and tackle, and Earl Abbott, guard. Howard will be depended on for the kicking. The reserves from whom Stehm hopes to draft the rest of a good eleven are: Earl Hawkins, half; Edwin Hugg, end; Russell Amack, end; Roy Hugg, end; Berlin Chamberlain, end; Harold Core, tackle; Hu H. Ostapuk, guard; William Norris, guard, and Conland Wilson, tackle.

Coach John J. Griffith at Drake, expects but four of last year's team back. Quarterback, Blackburn, full, and Hewitt, center. A large squad of sophomores and scrubs includes: Moe, guard; Hanson, guard; Shearer, half; McCoy, end; Wamock, tackle; Smith, end; White, full; Jerni, a quarter; Each, tackle; Scott, end; Lambertson, center; Brown, end; Krull, half, and Davidson, half.

Seven of last year's team will report to Coaches Brewer and Schmit of Missouri. Led by Captain James A. Clay, they are: Jacob Speisman, end; Frank Herzog, end; Paul Shepard, half; Herschel Laka, half; William Dunckel, full; Clinton Collins, quarter; Shepard and Toby Graces, are new comers, are expected to do the punting and drop kicking. Second string men, who look good are: Lee Groves, guard; Richard Rutledge, quarter, and John Skillman, tackle.

At Ames, Coach Hubbard will have eight veterans. Captain Lew Reeve, tackle; Homer Mattison, tackle; Earl Holmes, guard; Harold McKinley, guard; Edward John, center; Nile Kincock, quarter; Edward Uhl, full, and Ray Wilson, half. Sophomores and scrubs are: Roscoe Packer, end; D. Jones, end; Drury Moss, quarter; Mose Harrison, full; E. McDonald, half; D. McDonald, quarter; John Evans, quarter; Jim Talcott, half; Moveman, tackle; W. Evans, guard; Roy Mauer, full, and Edward M. Axthelm, guard. Four good kickers are on the Ames squad—Kinnick, Mattison, Moss and Packer.

At Case, Coach Wesley expects back Captain Dan Parrish, quarterback; Will Allan, end; John Perkins, guard; George Horsey, tackle; Jack Jenkins, halfback; Harry Haffner, halfback; Harrison Fisher, halfback. The reserves are Dwyer, line; Mitchell, line; Black, line; Wett, line; Hense, end; Poe, line; Newell, line; Frew, quarterback; Jones, end; Post, end; Erben, line; Graves, end. Parrish probably will do the kicking.

A big squad is promised Coach George Little of the University of Cincinnati. The veterans he looks for are Captain Leonard Baehr, full; Leslie Bryant, center; Paul Seaton, guard; Ellis Greer, tackle; J. Morris, tackle; B. With Score Seven to Three, Baltimore Hammers in Three Runs, but Next Three Men Go Out in Order.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 19.—Chicago won an exciting game from Baltimore today, 7 to 6. With the score 7 to 3 in Baltimore's half of the ninth inning the locals scored three runs on two singles and a double, but the next three men went out in order, leaving a runner on second. Baltimore made five two-base hits and Chicago made three. Score:

Grinnell Foot Ball Outlook is Dubious

GRINNELL, Ia., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—Foot ball practice has begun in earnest at Grinnell with only four members of last year's team in suits. Muncke and Andrews are the only line men who have returned with the intention of playing this year. Norris, who played end last year, will be kept out by old injuries. Captain Witters, quarter, and Little, half, are the only survivors from last year's backfield.

The prospects, however, are fair for a fast and heady backfield. Sutherland, a 1913 fullback, intends to enroll, and will probably be worked at half. Barrett, who did good work on last year's freshman team, is the logical candidate for the other half, and with Little at full and Witters at quarter a very strong backfield should be developed. Severeid, the star shortstop, and captain-elect of the base ball team, is being tried at quarter and if he shows up well Witters may be shifted to end. Smalley, McLaughlin, and Macy of last year's freshman team are candidates for backfield positions.

The outlook for the line is far less promising. Although there is considerable material, the lack of experienced men is liable to prove a great handicap. Muncke and Andrews are trying for their old positions at guard and center. George Nelson, a member of last year's squad, should find a permanent berth either at center or guard. Gould, Matthew, Schwab and Dewey are promising candidates for last year's freshman squad. Ernest Martin and Gross, two upper class men, with good high school records, are out in suits for the first time on the Grinnell field. Frehm, McCleary, Turner, J. and P. McGregor, are among the other candidates for line positions.

SIX GAMES FOR UNI OF OMAHA

Light Foot Ball Schedule at Local School for This Year.

START WORKOUTS ON MONDAY

Effort Will Be Made to Get Every Male Student at the School to Try Skill at Handling the Pigskin.

One of the lightest schedules in the history of the school has been arranged by Manager Weinberg of the University of Omaha foot ball team. The schedule as now arranged calls for six games, two of which will be played in Omaha and the remaining out of town. No games will be played with Creighton college or Wesleyan university this season, although Manager Weinberg had an opportunity to schedule both of these contests. The reason given by Coach Dow for not playing these teams is that they wanted games too early in the season.

As these teams are materially stronger than the University of Omaha the result has often been such as to greatly weaken the University of Omaha squad for the rest of the season. Both Creighton and Wesleyan start their practice a great deal earlier in the season and are in much better condition in the opening games than the Crimmon and Red.

Tentative Schedule. The tentative schedule is as follows: October 3-Tabor at Tabor, Ia. October 10-Central college at Central City, Mo. October 24-Tarkio college at Omaha. October 31-York college at York, Pa. November 13-Cotter university at Omaha. November 26-Hastings college at Hastings, Neb.

Manager Weinberg is trying to schedule a game for November 6, making a total of seven games.

Regular Gymnasium Classes Will Start at the "Y" Tomorrow

The Young Men's Christian association classes will begin Monday, with the largest enrollment in the organization's history. Beside J. Pruitt Maxwell, to direct the exercises, there will be Ralph A. Leake of Baltimore, Roy A. Swan of Omaha, Dennis Ryan, as boxing instructor, and Clarence Seely, who will care for those interested in wrestling.

The policy of the association this year will be, to promote more than ever before, competitive sports, such as basketball, swimming, track and field athletics. It is the aim of the association to send a basket ball team to the Central Athletic union championships in Chicago next spring, and to enter a team in the Kansas City Athletic club track meet, also to make a tour of the state with the swimming team.

There will be the usual number of basket ball leagues and hand ball tournaments within the association. Notably the Commercial Church and Hero leagues.

Cubs to Take Trip. Cub players threaten trouble if President Charles Thomas refuses to sanction the proposed barnstorming trip to Cuba next month. When members of the team learned in Pittsburgh that the Cub head had announced that he would not permit the trip, they said that they would make the visit to Havana regardless.

HURON, S. D., Sept. 19.—The twenty-fifth annual South Dakota state fair closed Friday night.

TY COBB BACK TO HIS OWN

Georgian is Again at Head of the American League Batters.

ERWIN HEADS THE NATIONALS

Leader Leading American League Pitchers, with James and Rudolph of Boston Topping the Nationals.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Ty Cobb, the slugger Georgian of the Detroit club, batted himself to the front during the last week, according to figures published here today. He is now leading his nearest rival in the American league by 27 points and at the rate he is going there is little likelihood of his being headed. The averages as published here show eleven hitters in the 300 class. They are Cobb, Detroit, .378; E. Collins, Philadelphia, .348; Jackson, Cleveland, .347; Hoblitzel, Boston, .347; Spackler, Boston, .328; Cree, New York, .327; Crawford, Detroit, .321; Baker, Philadelphia, .319; McInnes, Philadelphia, .316; C. Walker, St. Louis, .307; M. Mitchell, Washington, .306.
