EVEN the little children are feeling the war spirit. The kiddies residing on South Thirty-eighth avenue, near Dodge street, gave an interesting little play Saturday at the home of Charlotte McDonald, and added their mite to the Red Cross fund to be sent to Europe for the soldiers' widows and orphans.

The idea originated with the little ones themselves, and they wrote a breezy little conversational play and called it "College Girls." Between acts there were fancy dances, with music on the Victrola. The play was given on the McDonald lawn, and they made their own tickets and also boxes of fudge, which they sold. Master Burton Guckert took in the tickets and Miss Harriet Sherman announced the various acts and numbers. The children taking part were Charlotte McDonald, Dorothy Guckert, Dorothy Sherman, Ruth Carpenter, Gertrude Carpenter, Polly Robbins and Dean Robbins.

Tickets sold at 5 cents apiece, and the children made $6.51 to send to the Red Cross fund.

In getting out of France to the coast she had many exciting experiences.

War to Result in Better American Trade in Europe

"The opportunity for Omaha manufacturers is no better in South America than in Germany, France, Russia, China and Japan," said William R. Shamon of Chicago, southwestern manager of the Exporter, published in Chicago, in speaking before the directors of the Manufacturers' association at the Commercial club rooms. As a man who has studied the export situation for many years, he pointed out that the canal had now shortened shipping distance to these countries by thousands of miles, and that the demand for American goods would be great as soon as traffic was made more feasible by a change of the war situation. He pointed out that the race hatred engendered by this great war could not be lived down for a great many years, and that when the war is over, Germany will buy nothing with the stamp of a country that belonged to the allies, while the allies in turn will for many years buy nothing "made in Germany."

WALTERS FINDS CASPER ENJOYING HEALTHY BOOM

General Manager Walters of the Northwestern is back from a trip over the Wyoming lines, where he found crops excellent and business good in all of the towns. The live stock movement is heavy and concerning it Mr. Walters said: "Last week from Wyoming we brought 600 cars of range cattle to the Omaha market and expect to handle 600 more cars this week. This morning we brought in 213 cars. The range cattle are in prime condition and the range is the best in years, owing to the abundance of rain during the summer. The oil industry is giving Casper a healthy boom, one that gives promise of continuing. While no new wells are being developed and while no new wells are being brought in, business is good. From 14,000 to 15,000 barrels of crude oil is being piped to the Casper refineries daily from the Sand Creek fields. There seems to be a good market for the refined product, it being sent out all over the west."

FIRST WINDOWS IN NEW FONTENELLE HOTEL

A few window panes have already been installed in the Fontenelle hotel, on floors where the plastering is thoroughly dry. Now that the brick work has been washed with acid, the beauty of the big structure is more apparent, and the rapid progress of the work toward completion is being closely watched by many Omahans, as well as all Ak-Sar-Ben visitors, who have begun to arrive in numbers.

Cottage Milk
Standard Evaporated Milk

Standard Evaporated Milk is far superior to bottle milk. Its uniform richness down to the last drop always gives satisfactory results. Cottage Milk is always fresh, pure and sweet. It is the richest milk with most of the water taken out, perfectly sterilized, and with nothing added. It lasts indefinitely.

AUDITORIUM TURNED DOWN

City Council Places on File Proposition to Vote Bonds for It.

COMMITTEES ASK PURCHASE

Mayor Dahman Leads Fight in Opposition to the Scheme—Hot Words Are Exchanged in Council Chamber.

Another attempt to sell the Auditorium to the city was defeated when the city commission placed on file by a three to three vote the $100,000 bond ordinance. Mayor James C. Dahman threatened to go before the people and oppose the ordinance. He also threatened to attack any of his fellow commissioners who supported the ordinance.

Committees from the Commercial club, Manufacturers' association, Real Estate exchange and Improvement clubs appeared before the council to ask that the ordinance be submitted at the November election. W. H. Green and the mayor vigorously opposed the ordinance. "It looks like there's something rotten here from top to bottom," said the mayor. "First the Auditorium was offered for $25,000, then for $50,000, and now we are able to buy it for $100,000, and we would be buying a white elephant at that."

Then came the information that Harry Tukey had secured an option on the building. He told the council he would sell the building for $150,000. He was charged with having paid only $14,000. He had had actually purchased the building and money possessed on his contract.

GREAT WESTERN ENLARGING ITS LOCAL FREIGHT YARDS

The Great Western has begun the expenditure of between $5,000 and $10,000 in improving and enlarging its freight yards west of the Sixteenth street viaduct. Additional team trackage sufficient to accommodate fifty cars is put in beyond the present tracks, and all of the driveways are being paved with vitrified brick. The improvements by the Great Western come as the result of the recent visit of officials, who after looking the ground over concluded that the growth of company business justified the expenditure.

SMALL COMET VISIBLE IN NORTHERN HEAVENS

Few people in Omaha realize that any clear night a comet is visible just after midnight in the northwest, directly above the big dipper. No, it is not Halley's, nor will it strike the earth, at least for several billion years to come. The short-tailed sky wanderer is known as Delevan's comet and was discovered by P. T. Delevan, in an Argentine observatory, early in 1913. "The visitor may be seen to better advantage in the early morning in the northeast, but I would not advise anyone to get up especially to see it," remarked Father Rizzo of Creighton college.

CASES ARE ASSIGNED IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT

The September term of federal district court opened with Judge Page Morris of Minneapolis on the bench in place of Judge Munger, who is ill. The day was spent in assigning the cases for trial, the first one to start October 13. The case of Mrs. Edwards against the Omaha Street Railway company was to be tried at an opening, but owing to the necessity of Judge Morris returning to Minneapolis it will not be tried until October. Judge Walter I. Smith was also in court.

HIGH STUDENTS ALMOST HAVE UNEXPECTED LEISURE

Pupils at the Omaha High school had a brief vacation when Jim Coleman, colored janitor, who has all the keys to the building, was in jail, and considerable difficulty was experienced before he could be located. Mrs. Coleman was arrested on complaint of William Douglas, and Coleman came to the station to get her out. When he arrived, he got into trouble himself and was locked up.

Cost Kept Down—Quality Kept Up. No better medicine could be made for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchitis, etc., than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. That's why they can't improve the quality, and war or no war, the price remains the same. E. J. Sargent, Dallas, Tex., says: "I believe Foley's Honey and Tar has no equal for it completely relieved me of all symptoms of tuberculosis and my cough has entirely disappeared." Don't accept any substitute, for Foley's Honey and Tar is the best. All dealers.

SEND YOURS IN NOW

If you were to be favored with a view of all the finer garments that are bought and worn by Omahans, you would startle as though suddenly brought out of a sound sleep. Omaha owns a positive wealth of garments. There are half-gowns owned by Omaha ladies that could cope successfully with the very toniest clothes donned by fashionable New Yorkers or even Parisians. There are frocks, tailored suits for street wear, etc., that cost unbelievably low. There are full dress suits owned by Omaha men, made up of as fine materials as the world affords; measured, cut and styled by tailors who ply the needle only at a huge salary. But even these finer garments have to be cleaned, pressed, altered, repaired, trimmed, or even dried once in a while. Now is the time they are being brought to light; just before the Ak-Sar-Ben activities. Dresher Brothers, at their $7,000 plant at 2115-2117 Farnam St. are cleaning most of these "swell" clothes, for the parties owing the garments do not quite feel safe in sending them to the ordinary cleaning concerns. Possessors of ultra fine garments know that Dreshers are financially responsible for any loss by fire, burglary or accidental damage; they know that Dresher's will deliver a quality beyond question; they know that Dresher's charges are more reasonable, high-grade service than do the side-street cleaners who are so reckless with the property of others. Now, then, you've a fine outfit of clothes of your own, haven't you? And you want everything put into perfect shape for the Ak-Sar-Ben ball, don't you? Well, send them to Dresher! A phone message to Tyler 32 will bring a courteous wagon man in a hurry. Just tell him what you want done to the clothes, or phone to the Dresher department heads if you have something special to explain. And when you get the clothes back, you'll say "Fine." Those Dresher boys certainly did a fine job on that. I won't have to buy any new attire at all for this year's festivities. Quite a bit of money saved for your truly. Great outfit, that Dresher bunch." Out-of-town folks may take every advantage of Dresher's may work; too, for Dreshers pay express one way on all shipments of $5 or over and guarantee to get the work out in a hurry. Out-of-town folks, by the way, should write to Dreshers' new illustrated 22-page booklet, showing every phase of the cleaning and dyeing business. It's free if you say you want it. Get your Ak-Sar-Ben clothes to Dreshers at once. Not tomorrow, but NOW. Or leave them in the Dresher receiving station in the Brandeis store, or at Dresher, The Tailor, at 1315 Farnam street.—Advertisement.
