

AK'S CROWD BIGGEST EVER

Visitors in Omaha More Numerous Than in Festival's History.

BEACHEY IS SPECTACULAR

Does Some Extra Stunts for Large Audience—Thursday Will Be a Big Day for the Youngsters.

A throng, vastly greater than any previous Ak-Sar-Ben crowd, witnessed Lincoln Beachey's farewell flights over Quivera's fair city of Cibola, yesterday and viewed the magnificent electrical parade.

Yesterday's combined events, the fraternal parade this afternoon, and the wonderful coronation ball Friday, have attracted a vast multitude from far and near, which, added to the thousands of Omahans, will swell the total attendance at the festival to an unprecedented number.

The longest and best flights of his Ak-Sar-Ben visit were made by Beachey. On his first appearance, at 11:30 a. m., he was not content with his usual daring performance of looping the loop, and flying upside down, but also presented a notable burst of aerial speed right over the highway, and then flew southward until he appeared to be nothing but a tiny speck in the sky.

He went as far as the southern edge of South Omaha and circled the city, while thousands of Packtown folks stood on the streets and open squares marveling at his skill and nerve. Then he made his thrilling giant dip, and ate lunch before repeating the last stunts of his engagement in Omaha. He flew earlier than usual today in order to catch a train for Denver, where he will race against Barney Oldfield in an auto.

Today for Youngsters.

Today will be another big day for the youngsters at the carnival as the schools of Omaha, South Omaha, Dundee, Benson and Florence will have a half holiday, and children's day prizes will prevail at the carnival. A nickel will admit any child under 12 years to the grounds and that will also be the special admission fee at each show during the afternoon.

The freight depots will be closed after

1 p. m. and the big jobbing houses will practically suspend work in order that their employes may enjoy the sights of the daylight parade and the Plaza of Pleasure.

This evening will be the Carpenters' union night on the grounds, the members of that organization attending in a body.

Heard on the Highway.

Four cyclones or bad windstorms have struck the World at Home show this season, yet it is now presenting its various attractions just as fresh and new as when it took the road this summer. Its tents, buildings, platforms, columns and other property were completely leveled at Cedar Rapids, Ia., June 3; at Appleton, Wis., June 23; at Fargo, N. D., July 25, and Des Moines, August 31. After the chaos of the King's Highway Saturday night, it will show four days at the International Dry Farming congress, which commences here on the Texas state fair at Dallas.

Parker Farm Will Be Platted and Sold Out as Addition to Omaha

The sale of 128.8 acres, lying north of Miller park and adjoining the park, for approximately $190,000, is one of the biggest vacant ground transfers made in Omaha for considerable time. The deal has just been closed, Charles W. Martin buying the tract, which is part of the old James Monroe Parker estate. J. E. Richardson and John E. Brislin, trustees of the estate, represented the estate in the deal. Harry A. Tukey made the deal with E. A. Conway, attorney acting for the trustees.

The tract lies between Twenty-fourth and Thirtieth street just north of the park. This is part of the great estate left by the late James Monroe Parker. The trustees have held it vacant through all the years of Omaha's growth and development.

Mr. Martin intends to plat the ground and put it on the market in the spring. Last year Martin bought a great tract lying south of the park. He platted and developed this into one of the finest subdivisions in the city. He says no expense will be spared to make the new addition another splendid subdivision, and a credit to the city.

The tract is a half mile square and will make between 700 and 800 lots.

He Farmed Kountze Place Forty Years Ago; Here to Reunion

George Davison of Des Moines is one of the former Omahans who has dropped in to meet old-time friends and participate in the festivities of the week. Mr. Davison resided here forty years ago, went to Iowa thirty-five years ago, and this is the first time he has been here since twenty-five years ago. Said Mr. Davison:

"The changes in the city are astonishing. I am now a stranger in a strange place, and in going about I find that most of the people I knew have gone."

Forty years ago I farmed what is now Kountze Place and raised splendid corn there many years. At that time it was out in the country, there being quite a space between the tract and the city.

"Omaha as I remember it when I went away was a straggling, poorly built frontier town, but now it seems to me that it is one of the best of the cities, but most of the people I knew have gone."

Auto Owners Must Keep Machines Off the Parade Streets

Mr. Automobile Owner, if you go away and leave your machine standing on one of the streets upon which the electrical parade moves, you are going to be put to the trouble of finding it after the parade.

The police positively will not allow any vehicle of any description to stand along the parade right-of-way. For the benefit of owners who neglect this order the police have several trucks and cables, by means of which the autos will be hauled far out of the district.

Another rule for the Ak-Sar-Ben parades is that motorists may view the parades from their machines provided the machines are parked on side streets. The machines must be banked evenly on either side of the side street, leaving a wide space between, so that in case of fire or accident the police and fire department can get through without difficulty.

See readers are too intelligent to overlook the opportunities in the "want ad" columns. They're worth while reading.

Beachey to Teach Oldfield the Ways of Looping the Loop

"Barney Oldfield plans to quit auto racing, and tells me he wants to become an aviator." Lincoln Beachey said Oldfield in a contest for the speed title of the universe. "I have told him that I will teach him to become a regular loop-the-loop flyer in three months if he is in earnest, and I expect he will take me up on the proposition."

Beachey is a firm believer in the perfect, well established type of plane, originally brought out by Orville and Wilbur Wright, who claim the basic patents on all heavier-than-air machines used in this country. Beachey pays the Wright Brothers company a royalty of $25 for each day he makes a flight. He flew twenty-three days last month, and mailed a check for $575 to the Wright company just before he came to Omaha.

Union Pacific is Not Ready to Start Work on New Bridge

Union Pacific officials assert that nothing will be done in the near future in the way of commencing work upon the proposed new railroad bridge across the Missouri river, north of the present structure and south of the street railway and wagon bridge, crossing at the foot of Douglas street.

According to the provisions of the charter granted the Union Pacific by congress, work on the proposed bridge must begin as early as November 1 of this year. A report has become current that unless work is started prior to the date named, the charter will be annulled by the government. As to this report, Union Pacific officials assert that it has not reached them. That, add, however, that it will be impossible to start work by November 1.

Knights of Luther Protest Holiday on Columbus Day

Knights of Luther and other anti-Catholics have protested to the Board of Education against the board's action in dismissing school children on Columbus day, a legal holiday.

"I have received verbal protests," said President C. T. Walker of the board, "but no formal protest has been made." Columbus day is a legal holiday and the observance of it by the Catholic order, the Knights of Columbus, is incidental to the board members, who voted for the dismissal of the children on that day.

August Burdin of the school board voted against dismissing the children on this day, and displayed a considerable resentment over the action.

ARRESTED FOR STOPPING PAYMENT ON A CHECK

Gus Steinberg was arrested by the police on request of the Fair Mercantile company, which alleges that he defrauded them of $5 and a $20 suit of clothes. Steinberg of Stratford, S. D., presented a draft of $20 in payment for clothing and after getting his change stopped payment on the draft and wired the bank upon which it was drawn to send him a duplicate as the original had been lost. He was waiting at the general delivery window for the duplicate when the police got him.

WORLD'S SERIES MAY RUN INTO COMING BAD WEATHER

Weather Forecaster Welsh asserts that it looks decidedly as if the world series would make its advent during unsettled and rainy weather. Owing to the fact that the west and northwest are in this condition at present, and as the bad weather is traveling toward the east, it is more than likely that the coming series will see several postponed games. Locally conditions will remain unsettled for sometime.

INTEREST IN WORLD'S SERIES KEEN BUT FEW BETS MADE

While there is considerable interest in the big world's base ball series in this city, there seems to be little money changing hands. Although sentiment seems to favor the Braves, the fans are slow about backing them with their coin. Fred Burlington of the Merchants hotel has an even 1,000 yen which he is trying to place on the Athletics, but is meeting with little success.

Stop Those Early Bronchial Coughs. They hang on all winter if not checked, and pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and take it freely. Stops coughs and colds, heals raw inflamed throat, loosens and brings up a mildly laxative. Chas. T. Miller, Ed. Publisher, Cassilton, Ind., had bronchial trouble, got very hoarse, coughed constantly from a tickling throat. He used only Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Was entirely relieved. Wants others to know of Foley's Honey and Tar. All dealers everywhere.—Advertisement.

Railroads Taxed to Haul Visitors to See the Parades

The heavy rains of last night, general over the eastern and central portion of Nebraska and western Iowa, shut out hundreds of people who anticipated coming to the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities with their automobiles, but they boomed the railroad travel into the city today. Through western Iowa and out through central Nebraska, as far west as Hastings and Kearney, the rain was the heaviest in several weeks, the precipitation ranging from one to two inches and continuing most of last night. The conditions in western Iowa were practically the same, as a result all the morning trains into the city were loaded to capacity.

Reports at railroad headquarters indicate that the special trains coming in this afternoon and evening will bring immense crowds and that much more equipment than was figured on will have to be used.

ANTI-LEAGUE KICKS ON SALOON DECORATIONS

Woe unto the saloons that are too enthusiastic in decorating for Ak-Sar-Ben, the outburst of the Anti-Saloon league, its local superintendent, F. A. High, says he has taken a lot of photographs of saloon windows in which the view is obstructed by flags, Ak-Sar-Ben colors, bills, posters and other obstructions, and that he has written Police Commissioner Kugel a letter calling attention to the fact that it is against the law.

Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Advertisement.

Dixie Flyer to Be Put in Service for Southern Travel

Prompted to promote southern travel this winter on account of the European war, which will practically eliminate foreign travel, the lines constituting the Dixie route are planned to establish an improved train service from Omaha and Chicago to Florida. The famous Dixie Flyer will again be placed in commission on the Illinois Central. This is a solid steel train, with full equipment, and will inaugurate its schedule on October 15. The time has been cut an hour and fifteen minutes over the table last year. The hotels will be opened earlier this year in anticipation of the heavy travel. The Florida Lake Region Land company has an elaborate display regarding Florida in the window of the Illinois Central ticket office, and also in the Milwaukee window. Dr. T. E. Sarsille is directing the work from Omaha.

Visitors Admire Court House Lawn

Appreciation on the part of the carnival crowds at the beautiful lawn in front of the court house is one of the features of this year's Ak-Sar-Ben. The broad sidewalks and spacious approaches are favorite places from which many spectators viewed Beachey's flights and the crowds have with few exceptions observed the "loop off the grass" signs which protect the lawn.

Surviving besides the husband are five sisters and one brother in various parts of the country.
