Fighting Alites Furtously. The Telegraph's correspondent of Bel-gium, under Tuceday's date says:

"The fighting between the allies and the enemy has been furious. Advancing between the forts, the German Infantry were mowed down in thousands. They are, however, attacking in great strength, having brought up fresh troops from Brussels in the last few days. They huried their infantry recklessly against the alties' trenches and eventually suc ceeded in crossing the Nethe.

"From all accounts the German infantry contributed little towards the progress of the enemy. Their markmanship was poer and it was only by hurling forward sudcossive bodies of men that they succeeded Charles G. Fox, cashier, and Thomas Mcin advancing. Their big guns are adclusively by shrupnel.

Covet German Isle as a Possession

TOKIO, Oct. 8.-Government officials are careful to designate that the taking of the German island of Jaluit, seat of government in the Marshall Archipelago. Pacific, and the destruction of the Gery man base was not an occupation. Nevertheless they declare that Japanese assurances that the empire has no ambition for territorial aggrandizement must not be interpreted to mean that Japan will refrain from taking steps necessary for the protection of commerce.

The foreign office has issued no staterelative to the future status of Jaluit. Baron Kato, minister of foreign affairs, has assured the American ambassador, George W. Guthrie, that the taking of the island was a military necessity Baron Kato said that the German fleet eluded pursuers and that the manner in which it secured coal was a mystery.
