

By MELLIFICIA. Thursday, October 8, 1914.

SOCIETY girls and others ask me for my "job," or position, at the rate of an applicant a day. They see me sauntering to "work" most any time of day and leaving early, perhaps, and playing hockey almost every afternoon except Saturday. Well, perhaps it looks easier than it is, for there is no telling when there will be an elopement and the society editor has to stay home from a dinner party to write up the affair and get her "copy" in on time. You have to remember all the nice things that the bride has ever done, and if the groom is from out-of-town; that he is wealthy and comes from a prominent family. All of these things become second nature after a while, and then your work is easy. But I have heard of an easier "job," or vocation. Miss Ruth Timme of Chicago is an expert with automobiles, and recently she advertised for a position as "automobile maid," to take out for drives the children of car owners too busy to go out themselves. She found plenty of work.

Ak-Sar-Ben Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Atkins and daughter, Jane, of York, are visiting friends and relatives during Ak-Sar-Ben. Miss Marion Treat of Cheyenne is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Weaver for the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities. Miss Treat formerly lived in Omaha with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Treat.

Fine Arts Society.

The Omaha Society of Fine Arts held a business meeting this morning at the Young Women's Christian association to arrange the program for the coming meetings.

For Miss Frigiana.

Mrs. Charles Grotte will entertain at dinner this evening in her apartments at the Normandie in honor of Miss Frigiana, the head-liner at the Orpheum this week. Covers will be placed for twelve.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mrs. Harvey Jackson returned Monday from a month spent in Oshkosh, Wis., where she went to attend the wedding of her cousin.

Mrs. Duncan Vinsonhale, who returned Friday from the east, leaves Friday morning for Maryville, Mo., to attend a wedding. She will be away several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Magee, who have been spending a few weeks on a ranch near Billings, Mont., are expected tomorrow to spend a week or ten days here and will be with Mrs. Herman Kourize, who has taken their house for the winter.

Duluth Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. George M. Wallace will go to Duluth Thursday evening for the wedding of Mr. Hugh E. Wallace and Miss Maude Emily Mattson, which takes place Saturday evening. Mr. George M. Wallace will act as best man for his brother, Prof. Fred C. Froenante, formerly of Omaha, now of Minneapolis, close friend of the groom, will sing. This affair has additional interest to Nebraskans outside of the acquaintance of the groom throughout the state, because the ceremony will be conducted by former Nebraskan, Dr. W. W. Lawrence, formerly of the First Presbyterian church of Lincoln, the bride's pastor, assisted by Dr. Robert Yost, formerly of St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church, Omaha. The Wallaces will return to Omaha in about a week, and the bride and groom will probably spend some time in Omaha after the first of November.

Mithen Sues for Clothing Lost on European Trip

Suit for $500 for the loss in Germany of valuable wearing apparel, which for all that is known of it, may now be worn by the Kaiser's soldiers and nurses, has been started in district court by J. H. Mithen, well known Omaha insurance man, against the Manhattan Insurance company of Germany. Mr. Mithen, who, with his family, was touring Europe when the war broke out, checked a steamer trunk filled with $500 worth of clothing from Cologne to Brussels, Belgium, after insuring it and paying a premium of $12.50. It was never delivered to him. Whether the insurance company is liable for the loss under war conditions is the question which the district court will decide. It has a local agency here, thus making it possible to be sued in Omaha.

Miss Evans Back from European War Zone

Miss Ethel Evans, sister of Mrs. Z. T. Lindsay, has reached Omaha from France, where she was following her profession as an artist when the war started. She was visiting in the chateau country at the time war was declared, and was advised by the authorities to leave France, so went to Barcelona. At the Spanish city she was treated with the utmost courtesy by the people, and hotel-keepers granted the American refugees unlimited accommodations on credit, as paper could not be cashed. Miss Evans had to pay the exorbitant rate of 10 per cent in order to get her small amount of French gold changed to Spanish money. She left all her paintings and other property in Paris, in her haste to get out of the country. Other recent arrivals in Omaha from Europe are Judge and Mrs. William A. Redick, Mrs. John A. Redick and baby, and Mrs. D. S. Griffin.

FIRE IN STORAGE HOUSE CAUSES LARGE DAMAGE

Damage estimated at close to $10,000 was worked to the building and contents of the Globe Van and Storage company, 213 1/2 street, Wednesday night. Lightning is supposed to have struck a wire, causing the blaze, which started under a stairway and burned for several hours unnoted. The Gate City Furniture company is the heaviest loser by the fire. This firm had a large stock stored on the second floor which was almost entirely destroyed. Most of the damage is covered by insurance.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS PLEASED WITH PAGEANT

A. E. Sweet, general manager; G. W. Rourke, assistant general manager of the lines west of the Missouri river, and A. W. Sheahan, all of the Rock Island, and all of Topeka, Kan., came in Wednesday night on a special train to take a look at the Ak-Sar-Ben parade. They were accompanied by a number of lesser officials and were delighted with what they saw, expressing the opinion that they never witnessed a pageant more beautiful.

Cured of Indigestion. Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me so nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Worden P. Noble, One of West's Pioneers, Dies at Salt Lake

A distinguished pioneer of Omaha and the far west passed away in the death of Worden P. Noble, at his home in Salt Lake City last Tuesday morning. The summons came to him at the close of a week's illness, at the age of 55. Mr. Noble was a resident of Omaha in 1848, and was employed as clerk of the Hornum hotel, Ninth and Farnam streets, which later became headquarters of the Union Pacific railroad. A few years later he was married in Omaha to Miss Margaret Halleran, who died some fifteen years ago. Prior to that event Mr. Noble became interested in various mercantile enterprises in Wyoming towns, following the advance of the builders of the Union Pacific railroad, and became one of the largest freighters in the new west. He was one of the first of the empire builders to see the vast opportunities for fortune making in stock raising on the plains and entered the business with characteristic zest. He confined his operations mainly to sheep raising and frequently had as many as 100,000 head on ranges in Wyoming, Utah and Idaho. For the last quarter of a century Mr. Noble has been a shipper to the South Omaha market, and has operated sheep feeding stations at Fremont, Grand Island and North Platte. Salt Lake City has been his home for nearly forty years.

Surviving Mr. Noble are one son and three daughters: Fred W. Noble of San Francisco, Mrs. L. C. Robinson of Salt Lake City, Mrs. R. Gouff-Smith of San Francisco and Miss Mayme Noble of Salt Lake City.

Rev. Robert Yost to Become Missionary

Friends of Rev. Robert Yost, D. D., former pastor of St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church, are informed of his resignation from the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church at Duluth, which he handed in last Sunday morning, to take effect January 1. Dr. Yost states that he has been hearing the missionary call for years and resigns to devote his future to educational work among the mountaineers of the south. It is understood a friend of Mr. Yost has offered to finance his work for the remainder of his life if he will take it up.

Suffragists Start Canvass of Votes

The most ambitious piece of work the suffragists of Nebraska have yet attempted has been inaugurated in the First ward. Under the leadership of Miss Jane Thompson and Miss Elsie Vandergrift a complete canvass of the city will be made and a straw vote taken to determine the exact strength of amendment No. 306, the suffrage amendment. As soon as the First ward is covered the leaders will proceed to the second ward and so on throughout the city, then South Omaha, Dundee and other suburbs.

ARAPAHOE BAND GIVES THE BEE A SERENADE

The Arapahoe band, under the direction of G. C. Froude, appeared in the court of the Bee building yesterday and played several delightful selections. The band was immaculately clothed in white duck, because the regular uniforms were soaked and in cases ruined by the rain Wednesday night. The bandmen were not discouraged by the impetuous elements and their white duck looked as nifty as their suits.

DAN CUPID IS TRYING FOR A RECORD THIS MONTH

Ak-Sar-Ben this year is maintaining its reputation as a rival to June in assisting Cupid, ten to fifteen couples each day securing marriage licenses at the court house. The majority of these are from out of town.
