FILE UP AN OFFENSIVE LEAD

Braves First to Score, Putting Two Ahead in Second—Chief Forced to Retire Before Avalanche of Hitting.

In McInnis had scored and Strunk was on third. Barry struck out. Schang hit an ugly grounder at Evers, who made a fine stop, and by a fast throw caught the speedy Strunk at the plate on a close decision. Schang was forced out at second by Bender. Maranville to Evers.

Rudolph Easy Out.

The Braves, with the edge on the Athletics by the narrow margin of one run, did not figure much in their third turn at bat. Rudolph was an easy out. He connected with the ball and rolled a grounder to the Boston pitcher, and was retired at first.

Another double play broke up Boston's fourth inning. Connolly smashed a hot drive for a single that Collins jumped for and could not reach. Whitted hit to Bender and forced Connolly at second. Barry made the play and shot the ball to Collins ahead of Whitted. McInnis had to stretch to his limit to get the throw. Schmidt went out, Collins to McInnis, ending the inning.

Baker Strikes Out.

The world's champions were almost as easy for Rudolph in the fourth as they were in the third. The mighty Baker struck out and McInnis also fanned. Strunk made his second hit of the game by a pretty drive to left field. It looked good for two bases, but quick fielding on the part of Connolly and a deadly throw to Maranville caught Strunk at second, trying to stretch the hit.

The National League champions put their third run together in the fifth time at bat. The dangerous Gowdy opened with a terrific smash to left center field for three bases, to the great joy of the Boston supporters, and came home when Maranville dropped a single back of first base. Deal here hit his second double play in an attempt to sacrifice.

Bender Driven from Box.

The sixth inning opened auspiciously for Bender, but before it was over he was in the dressing room, driven from the pitcher's alley for the first time in his world's series career. Moran filed to Barry, who made the greatest fielding play of the game in scoring the out. He ran at top speed almost to the left field stand and by extending himself caught the ball in his bare hand. It was a great catch and was loudly cheered by friends and foe.

Evers Slated to Center Field.

Evers slated to center field, the ball almost striking Bender as it shot past him. Connolly received a base on balls, and both Evers and he came home on Whitted's great three-base drive in the right field wall. The Indian seemed to weaken, as he pitched rather unsteadily to Schmidt, who finally pushed a single into left field, scoring Whitted.

Wyckoff in Box.

Wyckoff, who had been warming up for two innings, was then called into the game and the big Indian slowly walked off the field. The young pitcher gave Gowdy a base on balls; Maranville hit sharply to Wyckoff, who threw to Baker to head off Schmidt, but the leave was too late and all runners were safe. With the bases full Deal tried hard to clear them, but the best he could do was to hit into another double play. Baker scooped up his grounder and after touching third, forcing Gowdy, he threw Deal out at first. Wyckoff gave a hand for stopping the run making.

It was one, two, three for the American leaguers, despite the urgings of the crowd.

Rudolph seemed to be pitching just as strongly and steadily as he did in the opening innings. Murphy went out, Evers to Schmidt. Oldring was an easy victim. Deal to Schmidt, and Collins quickly ended the inning by rolling a slow grounder that Rudolph shot to first ahead of the speedy second baseman.

Lapp Relied Upon.

Lapp went in to catch for the Athletics in the seventh inning. Rudolph was applauded by hitting a single past second base, but was forced at the middle bag when Baker threw Moran's grounder to Barry. Evers struck out as Moran stole second. Connolly grounded to McInnis, who loosed him out to Wyckoff, the pitcher covering first base. Wyckoff, the crowd stood up and stretched as

Baker took Deal's grounder and touched third, forcing Gowdy, and then three hits, no errors.

Philadelphia—Evers took care of Murphy's slow roller and threw out the runner. Deal tossed out Oldring. Rudolph was pitching a perfect game, his slow ball coming high and coming low, but never where the Athletics bats were. Rudolph tossed out Collins. No run, no hit, no error.

Seventh Inning. Boston—Lapp went in to catch for the Athletics. Rudolph got an infield single, which Collins was barely able to knock down. Philadelphia—Evers fumbled Baker's grounder, and the runner was safe. McInnis walked on four pitched balls. Strunk grounded out to Schmidt, Baker going to third and McInnis to second. Barry struck out. Rudolph threw out Lapp at first. It was superb pitching by Rudolph. No run, no hit, no error.

Eighth Inning. Boston—Whitted sent up a high fly to Baker. Schmidt got a Texas leaguer to left. Gowdy singled to left, Schmidt went to third. Maranville struck out and when Gowdy ran to second Schmidt stole home. Gowdy tried to go to third, but was thrown out by Lapp. One run, two hits, no errors.

Philadelphia—Baker drove the ball up against the fence for a double. Deal threw out McInnis, Baker being held at second. Strunk popped out to Evers. Maranville threw out Barry. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Boston Goes Crazy Over Victory of the Braves in Old Philly

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 9.—Business was partly suspended here today, while thousands followed the bulletins in the streets and in the theaters or made use of telephones to learn of the fortunes of the Braves, battling in the opening game of the world's series in Philadelphia. In front of newspaper offices traffic was blocked at times and there were wild demonstrations, particularly when the Braves added three runs in the sixth inning.

After 5 street throngs thinned out, many of the fans being confident, apparently that the issue of the day had been decided. Praise for Manager (Sal) and appreciation of the strategy of his eleventh hour change of Gowdy from eighth to sixth place in the batting list were freely voiced in the crowds.

Speculators piled a lucrative trade tonight in tickets for the three games to be played in this city. The sales made were always at a big margin of profit. Forty dollars was asked and received for a pair of tickets, which were sold at the grounds for $18 for three games.

Up to the start of the game today the betting here was generally at 10 to 6 on Philadelphia, but tonight the odds had changed and the home team was a 10 to 9 favorite.
