

Latest War Photos from the Scene of Action

British wounded being removed to hospital base

Belgian dog mitrailleuse in action at Termonde

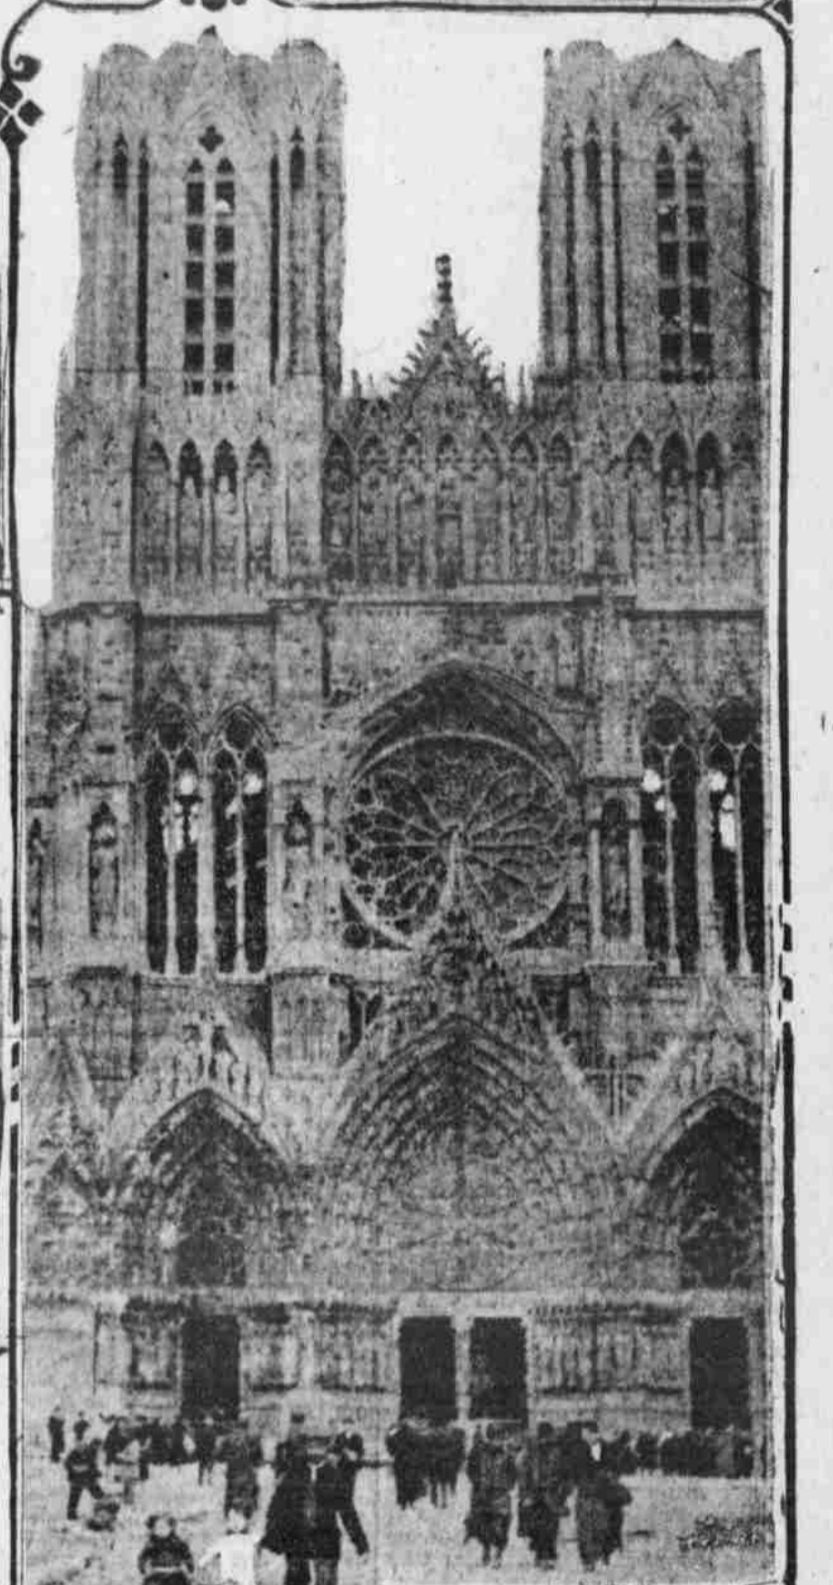

Indian Sengalese and British chatting together

Damaged French Monoplane left lying on the battlefield near Namur

French Infantry digging trenches during the French advance in the Battle of Marne - (Exact location struck out by censor)

Cathedral at Rheims after bombardment. Daylight through arches shows roof taken off

Searchlight at work from Charing Cross Station to safeguard London against bomb dropping Zeppelins

German prisoners of war put to work by the English at the compound of Camberly

Turcos on the march - French Soldiers from Algiers marching into Soissons