

FIGHT WITH THE SABRE AND SPEAR

French British and German Hussars Cuirassiers and Lancers Clash Near Lille.

CONTEST EVERY INCH OF SPACE

Infantrymen Engage in Very Violent Encounters with Bayonet After Artillery Duel Ceases.

FROM THE BATTLEFRONT (via Paris), Oct. 11.—Sabre and lance came into play many times today. The French, British and German hussars, cuirassiers, dragons and lancers in enormous numbers, came into contact near Lille. There were no brilliant charges by long files of horsemen as occurred by the British squadrons in khaki and the French in their light and dark blue uniforms, often crossed swords with the blue-gray-clad Germans.

There is not an inch of ground hereabout which does not show traces of the awful character of the battle. The town of Albert is a mass of ruins, only a church steeple remaining standing. Roye has disappeared under constant bombardment. The German artillery had taken advantage of the German lines in the vicinity where they had placed guns which were beyond the reach of the French artillery.

Frequently Clash.

Recommencing parties, seeking to discover the strength of their opponents, frequently came in conflict. In these engagements the soldiers would take shelter behind the many bodies on the field or occasionally make short dashes across the open, where their arms glistered in the sunlight, but nothing occurred which could be called a general battle.

The vicinity of Arras, however, was the scene of very vigorous encounters between infantrymen who engaged in close fighting with the bayonet after the artillery duel had ceased. At some points along the line numbers of Germans approached the trenches of the allies without their rifles and offered to surrender if given food, saying that the rations at that part of the German position had run out.

Beyond Roye, where the fighting has been exceptionally severe for fifteen days, as possession of the place means control of the railroad lines and also the road to Amiens, the allies continued their efforts to dislodge the Germans, who held on with wonderful tenacity. It was necessary for the allies to conduct regular siege operations to get at them.

Make Considerable Advance.

Further east the French made a considerable advance in places and captured some territory on the heights of the Meuse, where the Germans attacked them repeatedly, but always were driven back. Night attacks appear to have ceased for the present except in a few isolated instances.

General Sibille, a French infantry commander, has been killed by a fragment of a shrapnel shell.

starvation, as the whole region has been stripped of food. A large number is being evacuated to the Dutch frontier.

Germans have occupied St. Nicolas and Lokeren, and are pushing bodies of cavalry northward in an attempt to cut off the Belgian army. The general staff left Calloo in automobiles this morning. At daybreak the Belgians blew up all the forts along the Scheldt.

Every road leading north is choked with fugitives, military and civilians. Field ambulances, farm carts piled high with furniture and bedding, flocks of sheep and herds of cattle, omnibuses and motor cars are in inextricable confusion. Officers shouting orders, drivers cursing, women weeping and children screaming. And no food or shelter for fugitives anywhere. Tens of thousands spent last night in ditches or fields and will do the same tonight.

Some Personal Experiences.
I spent last night in a motor boat lying off the Antwerp quays. The boatman was reluctant to stay, so I was compelled to emphasize my orders with an automatic. He said he had a wife and children waiting for him. For that matter, so have I.

On the Red Star line quay a rabble had broken into an enclosure containing supplies taken from German steamers and was carrying off everything it could lay its hands on. Being exceedingly thirsty, I attempted a little looting myself, but as the place was pitch dark I could not see what I was getting. Just as I laid hands on a little bottle ashell burnt in the immediate vicinity and we ran for our lives. When back in the launch I struck a match to examine my prize. It was a bottle of pepin bitters.

Miracle Did Not Intervene.
I lay off the city throughout the night with big shells roaring through the air with a sound like a distant express train and the heavens rosy with the reflection of burning petrol tanks and dwellings.

Unless a miracle happens, tomorrow morning the sun will shine on the German flag floating over Antwerp.

Child's Tongue Becomes Coated If Constipated
Children love the "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become lightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-back, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother. See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it—and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

Germans Say War Loan Paid Up to Hundred Fifty-Nine Millions

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—(By Wireless to Sayville.)—The following information has been given out at Berlin for publication:

"A bomb dropped by one of the enemy's bombers at Dusseldorf damaged an arship.

"The seat of the German government has been moved from Nish and is now at Ukhuk.

"The German war loan, which amounts already to 2,430,000,000 marks ($396,000,000) has been paid up in cash to the amount of $28,000,000 marks ($43,000,000).

"The Brazilian minister in Berlin has requested thirty of his countrymen living in the German capital to inform their relatives that they are enjoying complete security and that they have not been deprived of their liberty. This step is taken because of telegraphic reports to the effect that Brazilians in Berlin had been shot.

"The reports that cholera has broken out here are unfounded.

cost them dearly. Both sides will have long casualty lists. There is no reliable information as to the loss of life in the city and the damage there.

Crowds of refugees arrived in London tonight. Most of them left Antwerp Thursday night and their accounts of the attack are confused. The Belgians themselves, besides destroying forts, blew up steamers at the docks and set fire to the port stores and everything that could be of use to the invaders. They also took away what the transports could carry.

Suburb Destroyed.
Berchem, where the military and other hospitals, the orphanage and some public buildings are situated, is reported to be entirely destroyed. Even if this is an exaggeration it must be badly damaged, as it was burning at least two days.

The Antwerp railway stations also made marks for the shells from the big guns, but, according to some of those who have reached here, the cathedral, which is on the other side of the city nearer the Scheldt, while struck, was not badly damaged. The inmates of the hospitals and other institutions were removed on Thursday, or earlier, so that they were well out of the way before the Germans arrived.

Effect Upon Campaign.
A question which is now arising is as to the effect upon the general campaign of the German occupation of Antwerp. The Belgian garrison, or the greater part of it, escaped and is reported to be engaged with the Germans.

The strategic importance of Antwerp consisted in its menace to the German lines running through Belgium. Now matters have been reversed and the allies will have to take their turn in keeping forces before the city to prevent the Germans from Antwerp attacking their flank or rear, should they be able to advance.

The Germans propose, according to the Berlin reports, to use the city as a base for operations against England.

So long as Great Britain commands the sea no great part of the German navy can use the port, even should Germany overcome Holland's objection to the use of the Scheldt by belligerent ships.

What Germany May Claim.
Germany, it is thought, may claim that being in possession of the city it acquires Belgium's right to use the river on equal terms with the Dutch and will proceed to build destroyers and submarines there to menace the British fleet.

If Holland should allow these vessels to pass through the Scheldt, England, it is declared, would certainly proclaim it a breach of neutrality. In any case, Holland's position becomes more and more uncomfortable.

In France, according to the French communication, the allies have maintained their positions in spite of violent attacks at several points. The cavalry still is engaged along the Belgian frontier and across it, each side trying to work around the other's wing. This movement, has compelled the Germans to withdraw some troops from other parts of the line and the allies are seizing the opportunity to make headway.

French Gain Advantage.
The communication reports that to the north of the line the French troops have attained a real advantage in several parts of their zone of action, while in the St. Mihiel region, where they are trying to drive the Germans back across the Meuse, appreciable progress has been made.

The German and Russian forces on the East Prussian frontier are still fighting stubbornly. The Russians apparently continue to make progress slowly and the Germans evidently feeling another day's respite in East Prussia, according to news from Berlin, received through Rome, are sending reinforcements to their army both by railway and through the Baltic ports.

Russians Occupy Town.
An unofficial dispatch received from Petrograd says the Russians have occupied Margrabowa, which is eight miles over the frontier in East Prussia, almost due west of Suwalki. This would indicate that the Russians have overcome in this region the German resistance, which has been of longer duration than at any other section after the Germans were driven back from their attempt to cross the Niemen river. Lyck, which also has been occupied by the Russians, is fifteen miles south of Margrabowa.

Fighting also continues in Hungary, where another Russian force is reported to have arrived south of Marmorasziget. The death of King Charles of Roumania is likely to have a marked effect on that country's action with regard to the war. The late king, who belonged to the Hohenzollern family, was opposed to Roumania joining with the allies, although a majority of the people favored the government's taking advantage of the opportunity to annex Transylvania, which is largely populated by Roumanians. It is doubted whether the new king will have sufficient influence to keep his country out of the war even should he desire to do so.

FIRE ON AMERICAN SOLDIERS

Renewed Attack by Maytorena on Carranza Garrison of Naco Re-sults in Fifty-Eight Killed and Many Wounded.

NACO, Arizona, Oct. 11.—Four shells from the guns of Governor Maytorena fell on American territory last night during a renewed attack on the Carranza garrison at Naco, Sonora. One of the shells wrecked a large residence. Another damaged property surrounding the United States customs house. The others fell in a stock field and in a mercantile establishment.

During the engagement, which lasted the greater part of the night, several of Maytorena's Yaqui Indians crossed the boundary line in order to attack the Naco garrison in the rear. They were promptly disarmed.

Previously, American soldiers had been fired upon and they returned the fire. General Hill, commanding the garrison, lost about eight killed. Maytorena's loss was estimated at not less than fifty killed and many wounded.

CARRANZA MUST BE GOOD, SAYS THE U. S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The United States government will make no further move in the Mexican situation and will reserve announcement of its future policy towards the Mexican central government until General Carranza, the first constitutionalist chief, has given formal guarantee of full protection of aliens and Mexicans, irrespective of their political affiliations, and promises not to reimpose customs duties collected by Americans during the occupation of Vera Cruz.

"The enemy also began on Thursday to press strongly on the line of communication near Lokeren. The Belgian forces defending this point fought with great determination, but were greatly pressed back by numbers.

Decide to Evacuate.
"In these circumstances the Belgians and British military authorities in Antwerp decided to evacuate the city. The British offered to cover the retreat, but General De Guise desired that they should leave before the last division of the Belgian army.

"After a long night march to St. Gilles the three naval brigades entrained. Two out of the three have arrived safely at Ostend, but owing to circumstances which are not yet fully known the great part of the first naval brigade was cut off by a German attack north of Lokeren and 2,000 officers and men entered Dutch territory in the neighborhood of Hulstia and laid down their arms in accordance with the laws of neutrality.

"The retreat of the Belgian army has been successfully accomplished. The armored trains and heavy guns were all brought away.

"The retreat from Ghent onwards of the naval division and of the Belgian army was covered by strong British reinforcements.

"Vast numbers of the non-combatant population of Antwerp—men, women and children—are streaming in flight in scores of thousands westward from the ruined and burning city."

The admiralty also reports in the same statement that the naval aviation party, having completed its attack on Dusseldorf and Cologne, already reported, has returned safely to its base, protected by armored cars.

French and English Defeat Teuton Force

LONDON, Oct. 11.—A serious German check is reported this morning (October 11), at Quatrecht, near Wetteren, east of Ghent, where, according to an Ostend dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, 20,000 Germans have been repulsed by French and British troops.

CHARGED WITH ROBBING POSTOFFICE AT EDMONT

EDMONT, S. D., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Jack O'Neal is awaiting trial before the circuit, under $500 bonds, on a charge of robbing the Edgemont postoffice Monday night, and Pat Athel is being held as a witness against him. Athel was captured in the cottonwood jungle east of Edgemont, and several steel saws and almost an armory of artillery were found in his possession. It is claimed that he confessed, implicating O'Neal as the principal actor in the robbery. The latter was captured in a saloon. No part of the $300 taken from the postoffice safe has been recovered.

MAY LOSE CONGRESS SOON

Administration Leaders Seek to Adjourn by Saturday Night.

WAR REVENUE BILL IN WAY

No Certainty that Measure Can Be Disposed of Within Coming Week so Legislators Can Beat it Home.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Administration leaders in congress are making every effort to wind up the long session by Saturday night, with assurances from the president that it will be unnecessary to return until the first Monday in December. While no new legislation is to be permitted, there is no certainty, however, that action on the war revenue bill can be completed within the week. When it has passed the senate a conference will be necessary, and the prospect is that it will be October 29 before congress can adjourn.

"We will expedite the bill in the senate as rapidly as possible," said Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee. "Democrats are not disposed to change the measure as it came from the caucus. We all realize that war revenue is necessary, and we believe that the bill we have framed is the best that could be devised at this time."

Republicans Won't Delay.
Republican senators are not inclined to prolong the debate, as many of them are anxious to get into the campaign. Several attacks on the measure already have been made and others will follow, the republicans maintaining that there would have been no necessity for a revenue measure but for the alteration of the tariff and extraordinary appropriations. Several of the minority leaders have declared that they would aid in bringing about early adjournment as soon as assurances were given of a definite purpose to end the session without contemplation of any recesses. Such is now the administration program.

Democratic leaders hope that the Alaska coal land leasing bill may be adjusted in conference in time for adjournment, but there will be no holding of congress if the conferees, to whom the measure was recommended by the senate, cannot reach an agreement within a few days.

Myers' Assessment.
Senator Myers of Montana, chairman of the senate conference committee, has declared that action of the senate has presented the passage of the measure at this session and that it would have to go over until the winter session and take its place with other conservation legislation that will be pending.

In the house the bill to pave the way for ultimate Philippine independence probably will be passed within a day or two. Following that the house will mark time awaiting senate action on the war revenue measure. Some of the dem-

DON'T INJURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Take a Teaspoonful of Rheumalaxits for Lame Back or Bladder Trouble

Do you occasionally have a "crick" in your back? Does your back ache with a dull, heavy, aching throb? Is it hard to straighten up after stooping? Is it hard to rise from a seat or to turn quickly? If you are bothered this way, then your kidneys need attention. No doubt your blood is filled with uric acid. This irritating acid has caused your kidneys to become weak from overwork. It has made them sluggish, the liver and bowels are clogged, and the waste which should be drawn from the system is retained in the blood to poison the entire body. Kidney diseases start mysteriously and sometimes lead to Dropsy and Bright's Disease.

At the first "pain in the back" get from your druggist about five ounces of Rheumalaxits. Take two teaspoonfuls in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your back will feel fine, because your kidneys are working right. Rheumalaxits is a wonderful effectiveness lithic drink, which helps the weakened kidneys and liver and cleans out the stomach of toxins and poisons and leaves the intestinal canal clean and sweet. It is delightful to the taste, it is an absolutely harmless uric acid solvent as well as a saline laxative. Acts quickly without griping or nausea. If your druggist does not keep genuine Rheumalaxits, remember there is nothing "just as good." Rheumalaxits is prepared by the famous Rheumalax Company, Minneapolis, Minn.
