

MACKS CRUSHED BY BRAVES

Stallings Miracle Men Sweep Series from Outgamed Athletics.

CONNIE'S MACHINE TO PIECES

Athletics Take Defeat in Sportsmanlike Spirit and Offer No Excuses of Their Overthrow.

(Continued from Page One.)

In defeat the Mackmen took it in sportsmanlike spirit, praising the winners and offering no excuses for their failure to hold their National League rival in check.

Outplay Mackmen.

In fact, none are available for the Bostonians outplayed and outgamed their more experienced opponents in every game and department of play.

To crush completely and decisively the great combination which has represented Philadelphia in the American league in recent years is honor enough for any rival base ball club, but the Braves in their youthful ardor and speed did even better, for they established a new world's series record by winning in succession the four games necessary to clinch the title.

Not Done Since 1905.

Not since the National commission assumed charge of these annual interleague contests in 1905 has this feat been achieved until today. Several clubs have won four of five games and in the early days of the Temple cup and National league against American association straight victories were chronic.

The Athletics fought doggedly until the end and even late in the game of today their adherents, who had made them two to one favorites in the wagering before the opening contest, confidently believed they would start a batting rally that would bring about at least a momentary check in the Braves' headlong run.

Honor to Evers.

To Captain Johnny Evers fell the honor of scoring the initial run of the final game of the 1914 series. He opened the fourth session by working Shawkey for a pass, advanced to second on Connolly's infield out and moved to third on Whitted's single and scored on Schmidt's infield out.

The Athletics tied the score in the fifth inning, when Barry singled, took second on Schang's out and scored on Shawkey's double. Nothing daunted, the Braves came right back in their half of the same inning and won the game with two additional runs, both made after two were out.

Win Proceeds of Series.

Because of the shortness of the series the club owners and National commission divide a smaller sum than in any world's series since 1905. The attendance at today's game was 34,383 and the receipts $52,923.

Of the Boston club twenty-six players are eligible to share in the prize money, giving each man $4,938.43, should the money be divided equally. On the Athletics' side twenty-four players are entitled to divide the losers' end, which would give each Mackman $2,081.68, on a share and share alike basis.

Players' Share.

The players receive less money than has fallen to their lot since the series of 1910. Each of the four umpires receives $1,000, the money coming from the National commission's percentage of the profits.

The world's series of 1914, was the tenth between the pennant winners of the two major leagues since the National commission, the highest court of base ball, took charge of the annual autumn championship battle in 1905.

Looked for Bender.

The wise ones had been figuring that Connie Mack would send Bender back at the Braves to stave off final defeat and there was some surprise when Bob Shawkey came out of the Athletics' dug-out and started to warm up.

Rudolph opened the game by grooving a strike on Eddie Murphy. The next pitch was a ball. Murphy drove the third one straight at Evers and was out at first. Oldring, who had been a poor performer at bat in the series, sent up a high foul to Gowdy and walked almost unaided to the bench.

Chops Grounder at Evers.

Boston's first turn at bat was short. Moran clipped a grounder at Baker and was thrown out. Evers also offered Baker a grounder and "Stuffy" McInnis made a fine pickup of the third baseman's low throw.

Walsh, playing for Amos Strunk, who has an ailment on his hand, rounded a two-base hit against the fence, bounding the stands in left field. Connolly seemed

Official Score Fourth Game World's Series: Boston, 3; Athletics, 1

Scoreboard table with columns for BOSTON and PHILADELPHIA, listing players and their statistics (AB, R, H, O, A, E).

Totals Boston 28 8 6 27 16 0 Philadelphia 31 1 7 24 18 0

Summary: Two base hits, Walsh, Shawkey, Moran. Hits: Off Shawkey, four in five innings; off Penneck, two in three innings. Stolen bases: Whitted. Double plays: Gowdy to Evers. Left on bases: Philadelphia, four; Boston, five. First base on balls: Off Shawkey, two; off Penneck, two; off Rudolph, one. Struck out: By Penneck, three; by Rudolph, seven.

Passed balls: Schang. Wild pitch: Rudolph. Time: 1:40. Umpires: Plate, Byron; bases, Hildebrand; left field, Klem; right field, Dinenc.

to misjudge the ball, as it struck low enough for him to have caught it. Jack Barry was tossed out, Maranville to Schmidt, Walsh being gunnable to advance on the out. Schang struck out.

Falls to Advance.

The National league champions got a man on in their half of the second after two were out, but he failed to advance. Whitted sent a hot liner that Oldring ran in to get. Schmidt punched a grounder to Shawkey and was retired at first.

Gowdy waited and was given a base on balls. He was forced out at second by Maranville, Barry making the toss to Collins.

Shawkey opened Philadelphia's third inning by striking out. Murphy went out on a quick scoop and throw by Deal. Tube Oldring made the Philadelphia fans rejoice by getting his first hit in the series, a clean single to center field. He tied the score and was out on Gowdy's fine throw to Maranville.

The Braves went out in one, two, three or four in the third. Deal raised a fly to Oldring. Rudolph poked a grounder at Barry and was thrown out. Moran went out the same way.

Two Hits in Fourth.

The Athletics got two hits in the fourth inning but did not have the punch to put a man across the plate. Collins opened with a sharp grounder to Evers and was easily tossed out. Baker shot a hot drive at Schmidt which the big first baseman could not handle.

Play was stopped while Schmidt regained his equilibrium, the ball evidently having struck him in the face. McInnis ripped a single into left field. Baker made a great dash to third and beat Connolly's throw. On the throw in McInnis tried to reach second but was out, Connolly to Deal to Evers. With two out, the Athletics did not look so dangerous. Rudolph was cheered as he struck out Walsh.

Boston scored its first run in its half of the fourth inning. Evers drew a base on balls and went to second on Connolly's out. Collins to McInnis. The Philadelphia second baseman intended trying for a double play, but momentarily juggled the ball and caught Connolly only in the nick of time.

Collins Turns Ankle.

Whitted shot a hard drive at Collins and the ball was deflected sufficiently by the fielder to permit Whitted to reach first and Evers third. Collins, in trying to field the ball, turned his ankle and play was stopped for a few minutes. He limped to his position and play was resumed. Then came the first real cheer of the Boston fans. Schmidt showed a slow grounder at Barry, who threw the Boston first baseman out as Evers crossed the plate. Whitted moved to second on the out and was left there when Shawkey threw out Gowdy. Up to this time the Athletics had made five hits without scoring, while Boston manufactured a run out of a base on balls, an out, a short single and a second out.

Berry made his first and only hit of the series in opening the fifth inning. It was as if nothing could prevent Boston from winning the series. Rudolph, who had been touched up for seven hits in the first five innings, seemed to have the Athletics' measure, as he appeared to be pitching stronger. Penneck was an easy out, Evers to Schmidt. Murphy filed out to Mann, who made a fine running catch toward center field. Oldring filed out to Evers.

Evers Good-Natured.

Captain Evers, frazzled in the eighth for Boston, took his strikeout good-naturedly. Schmidt and the monarchs of base ball fell from their throne.

First Inning.

Philadelphia-Murphy was out. Evers to Schmidt. Oldring sent up a high foul to Gowdy and sat down. The Athletics were evidently not waiting Rudolph out, but hitting at the first ball pitched, as the Boston pitcher was sticking them over. Collins singled over the middle station. Rudolph held Collins closely to the bag to prevent a steal. Baker out on a fly to Whitted. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Boston-Baker threw out Moran. Evers was given a good hand when he came to the plate. He was also out, Baker to McInnis, who made a nice pickup of Baker's low throw. Connolly filed out to Oldring. No run, no hit, no error.

Second Inning.

Philadelphia-Deal threw out McInnis.

Large advertisement for Prince Albert cigarettes featuring a cartoon illustration of a man with a pipe and a pack of cigarettes. Text includes 'P. A. for smoke grouches!', 'EVERYBODY'S mighty strong for Prince Albert...', and 'Get this hunch: P. A. is made by an exclusive patented process...'.

Advertisement for Budweiser beer featuring the Statue of Liberty. Text includes 'Of All Human Blessings Personal Liberty Is Prized the Highest', 'EVERY AMERICAN would sacrifice his fortune and his life to perpetuate the freedom guaranteed by the Constitution...', and 'Budweiser Means Moderation'.

Advertisement for Vassar Union Suits for Gentlemen. Text includes 'The Criterion', 'In every kind of wearing apparel there's usually a criterion—a quality leader.', 'Vassar Union Suits for Gentlemen', and 'KING-PECK CO. UNION SUITS'.

FISTULA PAY WHEN CURED DR. E. R. TARRY - 240 Bee Bldg., Omaha, Neb.