SACRED HEART alumnae held its annual meeting Tuesday at Park Place. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock from small tables in the refectory, which was tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and shrubs.

Attractive centerpieces on each table were India baskets laden with fruits and placed on mounds of leaves. Covers were laid for seventy-two. In the afternoon an enthusiastic business meeting was held, a resume of the year's doings of the alumnae read and officers for the coming year elected: Mrs. L. C. Crofoot, president; Miss Marie Woodard, first vice president; Mrs. Thomas Parmelee of Plattsmouth, second vice president; Miss Blanche Kinsler, treasurer; Miss Nan Murphy, secretary, and Mrs. Arthur Keeline, recorder. The feature of the day was a musicale at 4 o'clock, given by Miss Alice Virginia Davis and Miss Emily Clere.

An informal tea was held at 5 o'clock, the former presidents presiding at the urns.

Former pupils of the Sacred Heart convents all over the world have chosen October 20 as a special holiday to be known as Sacred Heart day. This was also Alumnae Day in Omaha.

Church Reception.

Rev. and C. N. Dawson of the Diet Memorial Methodist church were tendered a reception at the church Tuesday evening. Mrs. Dawson was presented a large bouquet of roses, the presentation speech being made by John H. Bexten. R. S. Deems gave the address of welcome. A musical and literary program was given. Miss Helen Gilman, Mr. Jack Alvord and Mrs. J. Kiger taking part. One hundred guests were present.

Johnson-Sagert Nuptials.

The wedding of Miss Frieda Sagert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sagert, to Frederick R. Johnson took place Wednesday at noon.

The Rev. Mr. Collar performed the ceremony. Miss Marheff played the wedding march. Miss Modjeska Johnson was bridesmaid and Mr. Loring Elliott best man.

The bride wore a suit of dark blue imported French serge trimmed in black fur and a large black velvet hat trimmed with imported quills. The bridesmaid was also gowned in a blue suit with hat to match. The church was decorated in Kilmarney roses and ferns. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the Hotel Loyal.

After November 15 Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be home at 4716 North Fortieth avenue.

Morton-Pindell Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Angelina Pindell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pindell, and Cyril John Morton of Grand Island, took place Tuesday at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Thomas J. Mackay of All Saints' church performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. Mrs. George M. Durkee played the Lohengrin wedding march.

The bride wore her traveling suit of dark blue novelty cloth, with a black velvet hat, trimmed with white egret feathers. She wore a corsage bouquet of Mrs. Ward's roses and lilies of the valley.

The only attendant was Miss Angelina Rush, niece of the bride.

The decorations in the dining room were in bride's room, white pink chrysanthemums were used in the parlors and garden flowers in the living room.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton have gone on a western trip, and after November 15 will be at home at Grand Island.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. D. E. Lynde of Chicago and Miss Olive Pindell of Minneapolis.

At the University Club.

Mrs. Charles G. McDonald entertained at luncheon Tuesday at the University club, followed by a matinee party at the Brandeis for Mrs. Walter Clark of Missouri. Mrs. Clark was the guest of honor. This afternoon Mrs. J. R. McDonald had four guests at the Commercial club for Mrs. Clark.

For Deadwood Visitor.

Mrs. C. B. Coon, entertained at bridge Tuesday afternoon for her daughter, Mrs. George B. Ayers of Deadwood, S. D. The decorations were yellow and white chrysanthemums. Three tables were placed for the game. Mrs. Ayers leaves Sunday for her home in Deadwood.

For Mrs. Hacker.

Mrs. Frank Bacon entertained at bridge this afternoon for Mrs. T. B. Hacker of Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., who is here with Major Hacker, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. McMullen. Major and Mrs. Hacker were formerly stationed here. Mrs. McMullen will give an informal tea for Mrs. Hacker Saturday afternoon.

Pageloo Dancing Party.

The Pageloo club will give a dancing party Thursday evening at the Metropolitan club.

Groetschel-Rau Nuptials.

The marriage of Miss Anna Rau to Albert Groetschel took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride. They were attended by Miss Matilda Rau, sister of the bride, and Mr. Wilmer Handstedt. Rev. C. N. Seihart of the Grace Lutheran church officiated. The immediate families were the only guests present.

B'nai B'rith Meeting.

The ladies' auxiliary to McKinley lodge of the B'nai B'rith will meet this evening at the Metropolitan club at 8 o'clock. A musical and literary program has been arranged.

White-Downing Nuptials.

The wedding of Miss Nellie M. Downing and Mr. H. Victor White was celebrated Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Diet Memorial Methodist church. Rev. C. N. Dawson officiating. The young couple were attended by Mrs. Nellie M. Shaw and Mr. E. L. Johnson of St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. White will be at home at 1915 Pacific street.

Dancing Club.

The S. B. Dancing club has announced a series of dances for the coming year. Those in charge are Messrs. E. L. Hoag, E. F. Skinner, T. L. Combs, R. E. Thomas and W. G. Striver.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mrs. William J. Hunsicker of Regina, Mich., who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Clarke last week, is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clarke, Jr.

Dr. Dan Cozzens has returned from an extended trip to the Pacific coast, visiting at Los Angeles, San Diego and San Francisco.

Candidates' Cards Must Not Be Nailed to Telephone Poles

Four motorcycle policemen and all patrolmen on the force have been ordered by Acting Chief of Police M. F. Dempsey to tear down the campaign posters of the political candidates.

"One large district where these posters had been tacked to telephone, electric light and telegraph poles was cleared of the cards by 11 o'clock one night," said Chief Dempsey. "The next morning the posters were still on the poles."

"We cannot prosecute the candidates and it is difficult to apprehend the men who work after midnight for them, but we are doing all we can to prevent the violation of the law."

The policemen have been notified to immediately arrest anyone found perpetrating the nuisance of posting the candidates' advertisements on telegraph poles and public property.

Goodyear Tire Men to Have Big Meeting

Ten local salesmen of the Goodyear Tire company will leave next Tuesday in a special Pullman for Akron, O., where they will participate in a general session of all the company's selling forces. There will be a meeting of men from western territory in Chicago, where it is expected that about ten train loads of Goodyear tire men will assemble and all leave at once for the home office.

On Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the same week the officers and men will discuss new selling plans and the whole affair wound up with a sumptuous banquet at Akron.

MANY ROOMS LISTED FOR THE VISITING TEACHERS

Over 450 rooms, capable of accommodating 1,000 persons, are already listed with the publicity bureau's rooming department being conducted at the Young Men's Christian association for the Nebraska state teachers' annual convention, to be held during the first week in November. A number of teachers have already written in to arrange for rooms. More rooms are to be listed, as an unusually large attendance is expected. Superintendent E. U. Graft of the public schools will arrange through the local teachers to secure more available rooms in homes of the school children. Secretary A. A. Remington of the Young Men's Christian association is handling the room lists.
