THE Association of Collegiate Alumnae has reorganized in a different manner than last year. A new department, which will be designated as the Welfare Section, has been created, with Mrs. Harvey E. Newbranch as the leader. This section will take the place of the Consummation, League department and educational department, and will take up all other matters coming up under its province.

The other departments of the association are the social settlement section, Miss Anna Fry, leader; the dramatic section, of which Mrs. J. M. Bateman is the leader; music, Miss Avilda Moore; and story telling section, Miss Margaret Guthrie, leader.

The first open program of the Omaha Woman's club will be given Monday, in charge of the social science department, Mrs. F. A. Follansbee, leader. Prof. Philo M. Buck of the rhetoric department of the University of Nebraska will speak on "Universal Peace," and the Omaha High School Glee club will give two numbers.

The business meeting of the club, which will be called at 2:30 o'clock, will be preceded by a meeting of the directory at 1:45 p. m.

Mrs. W. C. Lambert is the new chairman of the civic committee. Other committee members are Mesdames F. S. King, J. H. Dumont, W. E. Shafer and F. L. Keller. This committee will also present an open-day program later in the year.

The oratory department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Prof. Rieed will read, "The Principles of Public Reading and How to Read Drama." Mrs. S. A. Collins will read "The Hour Glass."

The French department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the residence-studio of the instructor, Miss May Mahoney, "L'Pervier," which is being produced in New York City, will be the subject for study, along with the regular grammar lesson.

Mrs. G. C. Bonner is leader of the program for the literature department of the Omaha Woman's club, which will meet Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Bennett's "The Great Adventure" will be studied. Mrs. G. A. Sammis will tell the story and Mrs. F. A. Howard has as her subject, "The Drama." Mrs. Bonner will talk on "The Novel, and What It Is."

Mrs. Thomas H. Tracy will give a talk on "Carbohydrates" at the meeting of the home economics department of the Omaha Woman's club, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. "The Five Food Principles" is the subject of study by the department this year.

The next meeting of the Dundee Woman's club will be held at the Omaha Conservatory of Music and Arts, Wednesday, November 11, instead of at the home of Mrs. E. H. Hume as announced in the year book. The change is made so that slides on "Modernism in Art," which are loaned by courtesy of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts, may be shown with the stereopticon. Mrs. J. P. Palmer will have charge of the pictures. The entire program will be on "Modernism," with painting, literature, music, theater and amusements as the sub-topics. Mrs. T. R. Braden will be leader of the program.

The literature department of the South Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. M. Graham, president of the club, who will be leader of the program on "Russia." Mrs. Walter Nitsche will give a talk on "Physical Russia" and Mrs. Graham will tell about "The Russian People." Current events will be given by Mesdames J. D. McBride, A. J. Bell, R. O. Bagby and W. M. Davis.

The next meeting of the home economics department will be held Tuesday, November 10, at the home of Mrs. Jay Leaverty, instead of Mrs. H. G. Kiddoo, as announced in the year book.

Hot lunches were served at the West Side school Thursday for the first time, under the direction of the South Omaha Woman's club. The idea originated with the president, Mrs. Graham. The lunch was prepared by the domestic science classes of the South Omaha High school, under the direction of Miss Bookmeyer, the instructor. Three lunch tickets cost the children only ten cents and nearly fifty children were served the first day.

Mrs. George E. Mickel was re-elected president of the Mother's Culture club for the third time Wednesday, at a meeting held at her home. Mrs. C. R. Cameron is the new vice president; Mrs. E. W. Koch, secretary; Mrs. J. F. Beard, treasurer; Mrs. T. L. Combs, critic; Mrs. W. H. Indoe, chairman of the program committee; Mrs. W. W. Fisher, of the membership committee, and Mrs. Frank J. Adams, of the courtesy committee.
