Turkey's Advent Into European War Boosts Price of Wheat.

MOVING EXPORT PURCHASES Sentu Sold to Outside Nationa Now Being Transported to Its Various Buyers Across the Atlantie.

OMAHA, Oct. 21. 1814.

The entrance of Turkey into the war abroad was reflected in the wheat pit yesterday, when there were not price gains of beging. The stand of the lurklish authorities will further complicate the war situation, as it will remove any immuniate prospects of breadstuffs passing through the Dardenelies. It has been hoped by importing nations that these strain would soon be open to commerce and that the suipments of breadstuffs from Russia and the Danube would again be in evidence, thereby heipling the nations abroad who are at war as well as those who are at peace.

The wheat that was recently purchased in this country has commenced to move

Speculators at the scock yards led in the buying of provisions through commission houses and packers were credited with most of the selling, stay pork was in larger offering and these sales were credited to Patrick Cudahy, the Milwaukee packer.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Big receipts at primary points made the wheat market fail back today after an early advance. The close was nervous, at the under last night. Corn finished unchanged to the down, oats off the to be and provisions varying from 10e decline to a rise of the Nearly twice as much wheat arrived at the principal terminals today as the total amount of the corresponding date a year ago. Besides, the figures for the week exceeded by 250,000 bushels the recorn for the preceding seven days. In this connection it was said that so much wheat had already been sold to go to Europe that experters were becoming reluctant to take the risk of contracts which called for shipment during November. Prices on Board of Trade.

which called for shipment during November.

Bullish sentiment resulting from the aggressiveness of Turkey and the chance of a wet harvest in Argenting was responsible for the strength of wheat at the outset, the market advancies to the strength of wheat at the outset, the market advancies to the about he about he lowest prices of Thursday morning. Realizing sales, however, proved unexpectedly heavy, some of the largest houses joining in with decided vigor. On the break, though, as a whole the trade reverted to an attitude of extreme caution.

Fine weather put something of a check on the bulls in corn. Account was also taken of the setback in wheat. On the other hand, fresh sales to Eurore were reported, and it was said that the new federal grading would delay the marketing of a great deal of corn which was moist. Oats were governed chiefly by
