DISASTER FOR YOST'S ELEVEN

Out of Four Intercollegiate Contests This Season, Ann Arbor Squad Has Lost Three.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 14.—Cornell today clearly outclassed Michigan and won by a score of twenty-eight to thirteen, thereby closing for the Wolverines their most disastrous season in point of defeats since Fielding H. Yost has coached this eleven, never before during the fifteen years Yost has been at Michigan has a Maize and Blue eleven lost three games in one season. Of its four intercollegiate battles this year Michigan won but one game, the Pennsylvania contest.

Barrett, the Cornell quarterback, was the brightest star in this afternoon's game. Time again he eluded the Michigan tacklers for long runs, and his last play was a thrilling wash from his own forty-yard-line through the whole Wolverine eleven for the final touchdown of the game. As he fell over the goal line Sprawn threw his hand to the ground and carried from the field. Schuller and Phillip also pierced the Michigan line for many yards. Phillip got three of the visitor's four touchdowns.

Basket Ball Men In Three Leagues Planning for Season

Basket ball players will have no complaint to make this season of want of action. Three amateur leagues are being organized and should the list prove inadequate for the rubber tossers a fourth will be formed. Of the three being organized, the Church league already has had several meetings and has arranged a practice schedule. So far eight teams have joined, and there are excellent prospects of bringing the number up to twelve.

The other two leagues, one composed of employees of commercial firms will be organized, known as the Commercial league. The other is to be known as the Tri-City league and is to be made up of college and high school teams of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs.

At a meeting last Tuesday at the Young Men's Christian association representatives of nine different commercial firms and schools met to outline a program of action.

The difficulty of playing so many games on the Young Men's Christian association floor was also discussed, and it was decided that another floor would be secured. It is probable that the University of Omaha gymnasium will be secured.

Potter returned seven yards, and a forward pass, Rutherford to Chamberlain, netted eighteen yards. The Jayhawkers held and Strothers punted. Howard and Strothers exchanged a few punts on which Nebraska gained considerably. Just before the whistle blew Strothers punted to Potter, who fumbled, but Rutherford captured the escaping pigskin before the rush of Jayhawkers arrived and ran thirty yards to the middle of the field. Chamberlain went around fifteen yards on the next play and Rutherford twenty more on the one following. Just as Halligan started a place kick the whistle ended the period.

Rutherford Scores. Halligan failed to make the kick, his direction being a bit off. Strothers punted from the twenty-yard line to Nebraska's thirty-eight-yard line. Chamberlain gained twelve yards on a forward pass, Rutherford to Howard, gave Nebraska eighteen more yards. Rutherford took the ball on the subsequent play and dodged his way through the mass of Chamberlain to a touchdown. Halligan kicked the goal.

Strothers kicked off to Rutherford, who returned to Nebraska's forty-yard line. Then came a few punts and finally the ball came into possession of Nebraska on its own twenty-one-yard line. A forward pass, neatly accomplished from Chamberlain to Howard, netted twenty-five yards. Rutherford scampered around end for twenty-five yards and Chamberlain carried the ball the rest of the way to the goal line. His run was twenty-nine yards. Halligan for the fourth time kicked the goal.

Corahuskers' Final Score. Following up this rush Nebraska came back with another. Strothers kicked off to Potter, who carried the ball twenty yards to the forty-two-yard line. Chamberlain took the ball on a cross-back and shooting rapidly through a wide hole made by Halligan, found a clear field for a touchdown. Only Russell, playing safety, was in his path and Russell was easily stiff-armed. The big half back ran fifty-eight yards for the last touchdown of the game. He was then removed in favor of Porter.

Following this last run the ball straggled 200 and forth a moment and then the final whistle blew ending the game and making Nebraska Missouri Valley champions once more.

Short in Numbers. The Creighton squad is at present short in numbers, due to the dropping off of the second string men, and Coach Stehm and Dudley are hard pushed when injuries develop. Some means will be worked out to give the coaches more material next year.

The Creighton high school squad has made a very enviable record this year, especially since Cyril McCarthy, former varsity halfback, took charge. McCarthy took a promising lot of beef and speed and rapidly developed them into one of the most formidable high school teams in this section.

Creighton high plays O'Neill High school at that place Thanksgiving. With the waning of the foot ball season, the basket ball dope begins to bubble. There are a number of good men in the school, but the absence of a gymnasium is the principal objection to each side running a team in the field. The athletic board is now considering the proposition.
