

VACATIONS FOR STUDENTS

Creighton Men Will Have Short Respite Around Thanksgiving.

THREE DAYS WITHOUT CLASSES

Holidays Start Wednesday Evening Before the Feast and End the Following Sunday Evening.

The student body of Creighton university is now looking forward to the annual Thanksgiving holiday, when a short respite from the daily grind will be granted.

The Thanksgiving holidays will begin in the professional departments Wednesday evening preceding turkey day and continue until the following Monday.

The results of the recent elections held in Nebraska show that several Creighton alumni have been elected to office.

The war has struck the medical department of Creighton with perhaps greater force than the others.

The college office has been changed to the north end of the main corridor, on the second floor, and a complete new set of desks and furniture, together with a safe, have been installed.

The regular meeting of the Creighton medical society was held Friday evening at the law school.

Prof. Neil D. Steward is offering a new course to the law students on "Legal Bibliography," which is making quite a hit with the bar.

The sixth session of the moot court was held at the law college Friday evening.

The fourteenth annual meeting of the Woodbury Study club was held at the dental college last week.

Anson Bigelow, professor at the law college, acted as a judge of the South Dakota State-Kansas State Agricultural college debate held last week at Manhattan.

A corps of doctors ought to charge well. A corps of dentists should be good at digging in.

A corps of gardeners should be able to take the enemy.

A corps of stokers should not mind advancing under a hot fire.

A corps of artists should always enjoy a brush with the foe.—Boston Transcript.

Faces As Fair As An Orchid

Are Possible When Stuart's Calcium Wafers Are Used After Meals to Clean Up Skin Eruptions and Discolorations.

When a face is covered with blotches, liver spots, pimples, blackheads, etc., Stuart's Calcium Wafers will act like some magical charm.

"With a Face as Fair as a Day in June."

The abolishing of all skin disorders must begin with the blood.

An unightly and pimply face due to impure blood is one of the most disgusting sights one can see.

There is no need for this condition if you will take Stuart's Calcium Wafers daily and keep all salves, ointments, cosmetics and other harmful preparations from clogging the pores.

Every first class druggist in this country carries Stuart's Calcium Wafers, which are pleasant to take, harmless, and may be obtained for 50 cents a box.

How Are Your Nerves?

Disordered nerves cause dependency, "blue blues," fretting and worrying, impatience, restlessness and excitability.

Warner's Safe Nerve is a natural product of the earth, it restores to the nerves their strength, endurance and resistive force.

Warner's Safe Nerve should be taken according to directions. It restores to the nerves their strength, endurance and resistive force.

Warner's Safe Nerve is a natural product of the earth, it restores to the nerves their strength, endurance and resistive force.

PRESIDENT OF SMITH COLLEGE TO BE HERE MONDAY.

LONDON WARNED ON INVASION

Natives Advised by Newspaper How to Act in Case of Siege.

ORDERS HUNDRED YEARS OLD

Duke of York Prepared Stipulations at Time When it Seemed Imminent Napoleon Might Send Troops.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 14.—The request voiced by several London newspapers that the citizens of England be instructed by the war office...

"We must naturally suppose, from the host of foes that surrounded us and from the advantages our insular situation gives us while they can be kept at a distance, that their great object must be an invasion of these countries."

"Before the descent of the enemy is undoubtedly expected, or the particular object of it is known, the troops will be cantoned or encamped in the manner that appears the most advantageous."

"On the first landing of an enemy, if he cannot be prevented in the attempt, not a moment must be lost in assembling the troops and pushing on the most advanced, however few in number, till more can be collected."

"As soon as ever he has quitted the coast, he must be surrounded in front, flank and rear; a knowledge of the country and a superiority of cavalry gives that advantage. He must be obliged to fight for every article of sustenance."

"The nature of the country affords every advantage for that purpose; intricate and inclosed, it is exceedingly difficult for an enemy to advance. He is never to be lost sight of by the light troops. Every inch of ground and every field may to a degree be disputed, even by inferior numbers."

"We must naturally suppose, from the host of foes that surrounded us and from the advantages our insular situation gives us while they can be kept at a distance, that their great object must be an invasion of these countries."

"Before the descent of the enemy is undoubtedly expected, or the particular object of it is known, the troops will be cantoned or encamped in the manner that appears the most advantageous."

"On the first landing of an enemy, if he cannot be prevented in the attempt, not a moment must be lost in assembling the troops and pushing on the most advanced, however few in number, till more can be collected."

"As soon as ever he has quitted the coast, he must be surrounded in front, flank and rear; a knowledge of the country and a superiority of cavalry gives that advantage. He must be obliged to fight for every article of sustenance."

"The nature of the country affords every advantage for that purpose; intricate and inclosed, it is exceedingly difficult for an enemy to advance. He is never to be lost sight of by the light troops. Every inch of ground and every field may to a degree be disputed, even by inferior numbers."

"We must naturally suppose, from the host of foes that surrounded us and from the advantages our insular situation gives us while they can be kept at a distance, that their great object must be an invasion of these countries."

"Before the descent of the enemy is undoubtedly expected, or the particular object of it is known, the troops will be cantoned or encamped in the manner that appears the most advantageous."

"On the first landing of an enemy, if he cannot be prevented in the attempt, not a moment must be lost in assembling the troops and pushing on the most advanced, however few in number, till more can be collected."

"As soon as ever he has quitted the coast, he must be surrounded in front, flank and rear; a knowledge of the country and a superiority of cavalry gives that advantage. He must be obliged to fight for every article of sustenance."

"The nature of the country affords every advantage for that purpose; intricate and inclosed, it is exceedingly difficult for an enemy to advance. He is never to be lost sight of by the light troops. Every inch of ground and every field may to a degree be disputed, even by inferior numbers."

"We must naturally suppose, from the host of foes that surrounded us and from the advantages our insular situation gives us while they can be kept at a distance, that their great object must be an invasion of these countries."

"Before the descent of the enemy is undoubtedly expected, or the particular object of it is known, the troops will be cantoned or encamped in the manner that appears the most advantageous."

"On the first landing of an enemy, if he cannot be prevented in the attempt, not a moment must be lost in assembling the troops and pushing on the most advanced, however few in number, till more can be collected."

"As soon as ever he has quitted the coast, he must be surrounded in front, flank and rear; a knowledge of the country and a superiority of cavalry gives that advantage. He must be obliged to fight for every article of sustenance."

"The nature of the country affords every advantage for that purpose; intricate and inclosed, it is exceedingly difficult for an enemy to advance. He is never to be lost sight of by the light troops. Every inch of ground and every field may to a degree be disputed, even by inferior numbers."

TO ENTERTAIN PRES. BURTON

Head of Smith College and Mrs. Burton to Be Omaha Guests.

ARRIVE MONDAY MORNING

Visitors to Stop at Home of Mrs. Edgar H. Scott and Will Be Banqueted Monday Evening at Uni. Club.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

A dinner will be given in honor of these guests Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the University club, following which President Burton will speak on "The Meaning of a College Education to Women."

Tuesday morning President Burton will speak to all the girl students at the Omaha High school, who will be excused from classes for this occasion, following which the distinguished college president will address the Brownell Hall girls.

The local Smith college club is arranging for the entertainment of President Marion L. Burton of Smith college and Mrs. Burton, who arrive in Omaha Monday morning to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Scott until Wednesday.

Religious Paper Plays Up Ak-Sar-Ben Biblical Scenes

Omaha continues to get a lot of good advertising from its late Ak-Sar-Ben parade, which had for its theme, "Pictures from the Book of Ages."

Rev. Ralph H. Houseman of Omaha has contributed a page story on the parade to the Continent, one of the leading religious weeklies of the country.

"To project a parade the character of this one," runs the story, "in a city of such mixed foreign and native population, was revolutionary in idea. No American city had attempted to feature such sacred themes in its annual carnival occasion. When the idea was proposed many men of judgment said, 'The idea is too bold; it cannot be done safely.' But it was done and the spectacle was most inspiring. Nothing bearing the semblance of sacrilege was tolerated."

Mr. Houseman describes the character of Ak-Sar-Ben briefly, gives credit for the selection of the theme to Gus A. Bense, superintendent of the parade, and for the harmonizing and executing of details of material and color to Charles Klein, artist, and concludes:

"A pageant where so many thousands were brought face to face with so much of sacred fact in so short a period is perhaps unique to this generation. When biblical scenes are visualized by a method so striking, under conditions so unusual, with fact-light's deeper themselves in becoming men, people are furnished exact incidents and facts which will be as enduring as the memory. The volume and tabular method of presenting important scenes and truths was doubtless never attempted on a more gigantic scale and at the same time with such acceptableness."

ing colleges for women and studying educational problems and methods. He won great popularity by raising a $100,000 endowment fund for teachers' salaries within two years, of having accepted the presidency.

Local members of the Smith College club include: Miss Dorothy Ringwalt, president; Miss Nellie Elgutter, secretary, and Mrs. Bernard Capen, treasurer; while Messrs. H. C. Everts, A. W. Gordon, Ralph M. Holman, Henry W. Pierpont, Walter G. Preston, Frederick T. House, Edgar H. Scott and Misses Anna Fell, Rathvon, Janet Monroe Wallace and Alice Woodworth, Miss Lois Andrews of Corning, Ia.; Miss Elsie Cather of Red Cloud, Miss Caroline Dodge of Council Bluffs, Mrs. H. H. Hosford of Crete and Mrs. Carlisle Whiting of Fort Crook are all affiliated with the Omaha college club.

Honor Guests at Tea. President and Mrs. Burton will be honor guests at a tea given at the home of Miss Janet Monroe Wallace, Tuesday at 4 o'clock, and in the evening will be given a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Scott, when other guests will be members of the Smith College club.

President Burton was born in Iowa in 1874. He was educated in the public schools of Minneapolis, which was his home from early childhood. After his first year in high school he received four years of practical business training, and then was graduated successively from Carleton academy and college. He was married to Miss Nina L. Morse, daughter of a Congregational minister.

On account of high scholarship he was selected to teach classes in Greek and Latin while in his senior year at the academy. He was principal of the Winona Institute Congregational academy of Minnesota for three years and was graduated with a "summa cum laude" degree from Yale Divinity school in 1903. He received the degree of doctor of philosophy at Yale, at which college he was assistant professor of theology. He accepted a call to the Church of the Pilgrims in Brooklyn in 1908, and in 1909 to the Smith college presidency, his inauguration taking place in 1910.

President Burton has traveled extensively in this country and abroad, visiting

Germans Favor the Coming of Winter As a Big War Help

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) BERLIN, Nov. 14.—The prospect of a winter campaign in Russia presents no terrors to the German military writers, now dealing with the problem of a long continuance of the war. Far from anticipating a repetition of Napoleon's disastrous experience in the Moscow campaign, they look upon the great Czar's conquests, General December and General January, as allies which will remove for them two of the greatest obstacles to operations against the Russians, namely, the transportation problem and that of overcoming the natural defenses of the country—its swamps and rivers.

The expert of the Deutsche Tageszeitung points out, too, that the Russians, in order to stem the German advance, have relied largely on entrenchments laid out on a tremendous scale. Once the ground is solidly frozen the construction of such works for defense will be greatly hampered.

A Shocking Story. "What's the show?" asked the man with a large hat and long hair. "A murder," replied the man in the box office.

"What's it about?" "Well, a man murders his stepdaughter out of revenge for the murder of his own father. At the finish there is a mix-up with swords and poison, and—"

"That'll do, I guess. I'll stroll out and see a cabaret. I'm tired of these crook plays."—Washington Star.

AUSTRALIANS AWAKE AND ARE WATCHING SPIES (Correspondence of the Associated Press.) MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 14.—Parliament has taken drastic measures to safeguard the commonwealth during the war. The governor general is empowered, under the war precautions bill, to prohibit the entrance or departure of aliens. Persons who assist the enemy are to be court-martialed.

"We do not intend to sit quietly and allow dangerous persons to cut our throats while masquerading as peaceful citizens," said Attorney General Hughes in the debate in the house of representatives on the war bill.

We May Not All Eat Turkey

But there won't be much excuse for an unattractive table. Kilpatrick's Annual Thanksgiving Sale of Linens Commences Monday, November 16th at 8:30 a. m.

A short time ago we listened to an address, delivered at one of our prominent colleges on the effect upon this nation of the European embroglio.

After numerous illustrations direct and indirect—after laying emphasis on the need of economy because of reduced income—after adverting to the acute distress and suffering abroad and the curtailment in factories in this country, he suggested that his hearers should guard against a condition of hysteria—but should as far as possible support our manufacturers and merchants by buying and selling in a normal way.

Avoiding extravagances—it was his idea we should guard against wasteful expenditure and apply the money saved to the help of those less fortunate at home and abroad. We think he hit the nail squarely on the head.

To help the good work along we start a sale on useful articles—at a fitting time—and more important still—AT A VERY MARKED SAVING TO THE BUYER.

Table listing various linens and napkins with prices, including items like 'NO. 100 DAMASK CLOTHS AND NAP', 'EXTRA SPECIALS IN MADEIRA PIECES', and 'DAMASK LUNCH NAPKINS'.

AT THE SILK SECTION

Just for one hour and that timed to start at 10 A. M. and end at 11 A. M.—1,264 yards of Brocaded Silks—as unusual a bargain as we have seen in many long day—worth $1.00—WE MEAN THIS. Listen—this is a lot left over from a purchase from one of the very big silk houses of the country.

They wholesale these silks (or rather the same kind) at from 62½ cents to 72½ cents per yard, according to the quantity bought by the customer. Oh no, my dear competitor, we are not afraid to give the facts. Trade secrets—you say. We haven't any. Made then, and jobbed to sell at $1.00 per yard. For one hour Monday, 10 to 11 A. M.—

39 Cents Per Yard

ALL READY FOR CHRISTMAS. Take a peep at the Stationery Section. Some surprises there for you. GENTLEMEN OF THE OMAHA AD CLUB. We salute you! You are doing a great work. For 20 years we have labored in season and out to wipe out fake advertising—Wrecks by land and sea—bankrupt stocks where there was no bankrupt—Failed Dressmakers—Wonderful Customers purchases—$3,000 purchase magnified to $30,000—and more. Oh what a story we could print. Again and again after long struggle we seemed to be near attainment—only to be disappointed and drop back again. W. G. Cleveland is entitled to the everlasting gratitude of every honest merchant for his fearlessness as chairman of the Vigilance Committee—and some day the great public will also arise and call him blessed. Now gentlemen, let's have decency in business. We are ready to forget and forgive the past—ready to grasp you by the hand and be business friends—if you mean business and will be honest and truthful.

Thomas Kilpatrick & Co

Supplementary IN THE WASH GOODS SECTION—Good weight practical dress materials. Burton's New Cloth. An advertised 25 cent fabric, in a great variety of plain colors. MONDAY 15 Cents a Yard—all day. Fail not—at your loss—to see the display of Party Dress Materials, Silk Warp Crepes and Voiles, Handsome Embroideries.

Berg's advertisement featuring a woman in a long coat and hat, with text: 'Three Remarkable Sales for Monday', 'New Fall Coats $13.50', 'Choice of Any $25 Dress for $15.00', 'New Fall Suits $21.50', 'Any Lingerie Waist in Stock at 1/2 Off', 'Berg's 15th & Douglas'.

Let The Bee get you a good job. "Situations Wanted" ads are free