Among other things he said: "An Omaha merchant was heard to remark, 'The choice people of the city trade at my store." "We sometimes hear words like these;

The best men in the country are in our political party,' or, 'The select people of the city are in our social set,' or, 'Our church has on its rolls the names of the superior spirits of the town." "All of these boastings may be true in sense, according to a certain standard one may compete for it in any way he of choice customers, best people, or superior spirits, but this other is certainly true: The most enviable people in the world are those upon whom God's blessing rests. Who are these people? God only knows. We may not look at the list of names recorded in His book, but we know from the Bible and from observation something about it." Rev. Mr. Highee referred to an editorial in Thursday evening's Omaha Bee and urged that the favored people of the interior of the United States, who are least affected by the war in Europe, take the opportunity which Nebraska's shielded position of uninterrupted prosperity gives. "Be opportunists," said the preacher,

'In the best sense of the word. Do not think of taking opportunity to selfishly enrich ourselves or selfishly congratulate ourselves on our favored position, but take oportunity to show the charitable spirit and enlarge the mercles which we may exercise because of this blessing which is ours.

"It is right to give thanks that we are at peace, but it is right to give out of our abundance that relief may speed its way to those who are no less God's peo ple simply because they are unwillingly forced into the disasters and deprivations

"God's blessing will be upon our chartties and upon our mercies, and if we give till only bread and water are upon our Thanksgiving tables, this bread and water will be made to taste sweeter than the richest viands, because God's blesswhile the highly-seasoned meats upon the tables of the selfish will choke or nauseate, because God's blessing is not with

"God's blessing will be in a special way upon those who are now strengthening their convictions that justice and rightcousness are the true harbingers of peace; upon the employer who disdains ever to take opportunity to demand too much of labor, and upon the laborer who shuns to take undue advantage or make unjust demands of the employer. God will bless our convictions with regard to the eternal value of the Sabbath of rest and worship; upon our burdens which are manfully and patiently borne; upon our families in homes where love and purity. prayer and praise, patriotism and industry, frugality and charity are the watch-

"The Bible shows us a picture of home blessed because the ark of God was great king who says, 'I have been you and now am old, yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken nor his seed begging bread. Rev. Mr. Highee closed with an appeal to his people to put in for a share of God's blessing, adding, "Live so that you can reverently and confidently remind God of His engagement, saving, 'Thou saidst I will surely do thee good." For Burns, Bruises and Sores
