GOLDEN KRATZ IS SECOND Wratz Leads All the Way to the Finlah. When Evans Nips Him in' the Last Block of the Long Contest.

Dwight Evans, an Omaha boy, running nder the colors of Ames, won first place in the annual cross-country run conducted by the Young Men's Christian association. Evans finished the three and one-half-mile course, over pavements, up bill and down and through the crowded streets, in nineteen minutes four and three-fifths seconds, lowering the record made last year.

Evans is a graduate of the Omana High school of the class of 1913. He was prominent in class athletics and the high school, but never made any of the first-class teams there.

Golden Kratz of the University of Nebranks was second. Krats took the lead early in the race and held it until he turned from Stateenth street onto Harney to go to the finish line in front of "Y." But Evans had saved himself for a sprint and he passed Kratz at the corner and sprinted home in the lead. The University of Nebraska team wo the cup presented for team winner. The "Y" team was second. John Filler, the little Greek lad, led the Omaha runners home. He finished fourth, with Evans, Kratz and Merle Legier of York ahead of him.

The Winners. First-Dwight Evans, Ames. Time: Second Golden Kratz, Nebraska, Time:

3:2.
Third-Merle Legier, York
Fourth-John Filler, Omaha.
Fifth-Walter Raecke, Nebraska.
Sixth-Henry Pascale, Nebraska.

Quick on the Trigger With a Snap-Shot Eye

THE crack trapshooter has to be a man with steady nerves and muscles absolutely under control—always ready, at the sudden jerk of a string to swing his gun into place and bring down his clay pigeon. This means trained, not to the minute, but to the split-second. He takes no chances with his nerves.

We present the names of some of these crack shots who smoke Tuxedo. They like to smoke; but they take no chances on a tobacco that might "throw them off."

is purposely made to give you all the benefits of the highest grade smoke. It is made from the very finest tobacco Kentucky grows - ripe, mellow, sweet and mild old Burley, aged right up to perfection-day. Then treated by the original "Tuxedo Process," which takes out the sting, makes Tuxedo smoke cool and slow, and guarantees that it cannot bite your tongue.

Tuxedo has had many imitators; none has ever equalled it in sheer quality and smoking-value.
