

Latest Photos from the War Arena

French infantry pass through a village south of Arras

The lookout of the officers controlling the armored train and directing its fire

Battle of Flanders At the trenches beyond Puzoyse Commandant Fichel of the French marine writing a dispatch

Section of a German aeroplane on the way to the front showing Maltese cross used to distinguish German aëros

Algerian horsemen escorting prisoners from border

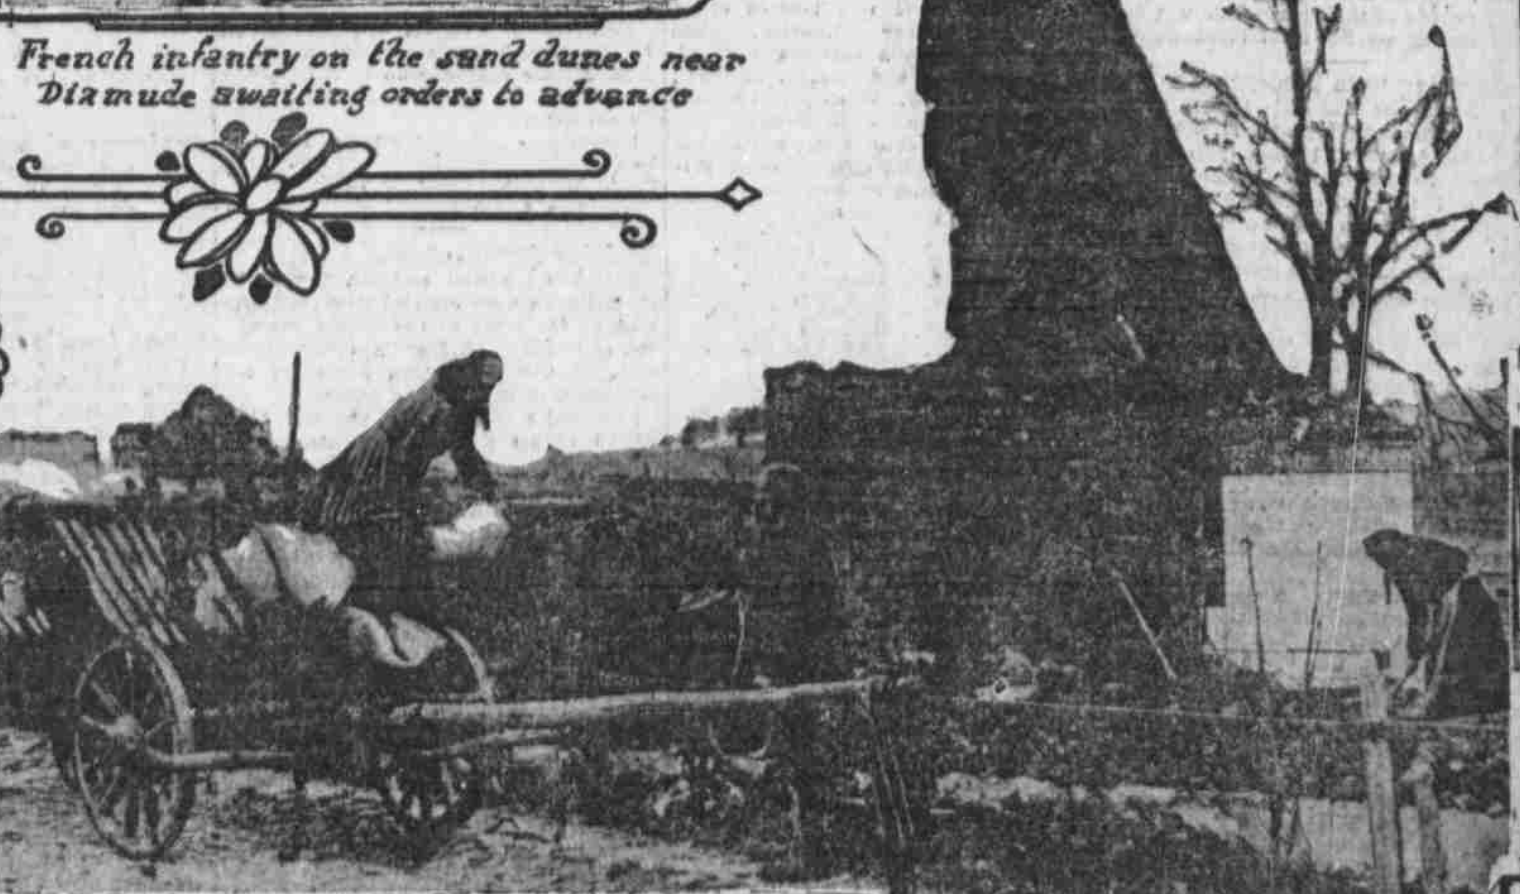

Indian Soldiers making bread in their camp.

Sengalese troops guarding the railway between Diamude and Nieuport

French infantry on the sand dunes near Diamude awaiting orders to advance

Peasants in East Prussia returning to their homes after Russians had been forced back across the frontier