

College Hero Society

By MELLIFICIA. Tuesday, December 1, 1914.

THE COLLEGE HERO production, now going on at the Brandeis theater, is interesting society maid and matron alike. One of the most enthusiastic workers is Mrs. Glenn C. Wharton, who conceived her own plan to fill charity's money chest.

This attractive matron made a beautiful flower girl at the opening performance last evening.

With her tray laden with flowers, she wended her way through the boxes and the entire lower floor, dispensing flowers and smiles and gathering up elinking coins for the Child's Saving Institute.

Mrs. Wharton's tray was soon filled with silver wealth, which came in so rapidly that Mr. W. J. Foye became the impromptu financier of the moment and assisted her in her quest. The sale brought in $25.

Mrs. Wharton was striking in a gown of black satin, ornamented with one large tulle butterfly.

PRESENTS MUST BE PUT IN MAIL EARLY

Postal Service Asks All to Cooperate in Relieving Christmas Rush This Year.

SENDING FOREIGN ORDERS

Cash Gifts Are Being Forwarded from Omaha Now at the Rate of Over One Hundred Per Day.

"Mail your Christmas parcels early" is the advice being given by the post-office and railway mail service. They are making great preparations to handle the rush of Christmas mail, but declare that unless the public helps them by mailing letters and packages early much of the Christmas mail cannot be delivered on time.

Allowances of 1,500 days' extra time and also eight extra men for one month in the terminal have been granted from Washington for the fourteenth division of the railway mail service, which has headquarters in Omaha. This large amount of extra labor will be necessary to handle the Christmas business. Besides, that much additional help will be required in the Omaha postoffice for sorting and delivery of Christmas mail here.

More Floor Space Provided.

Additional floor space amounting to 50 square feet has been added to the Burlington depot mail terminal by the building of a mezzanine floor. This will be ready for use next week.

Postmaster John C. Wharton has arranged extra wagons, autos and motorcycles for use in Christmas delivery.

Superintendent Willie of the Money Order department of the local postoffice says that the foreign money order business is now at its height, over 100 being issued daily. The rush is greatest just at present, because foreign money orders must be sent not later than this week, to insure delivery abroad by Christmas.

Witness in Matters' Trial Arrives; Must Await Postponement

G. L. Goodell has arrived in Omaha from his home at Coronado, Cal., to be a witness at the trial of Thomas H. Matters, under criminal charges of aiding President Luben of the wrecked First National bank of Sutton to issue certificates of deposit without authority. Several other witnesses also came for the trial, which was to have begun this week, until the defendant secured Morris to meet the trial for February 1. United States District Attorney F. S. Howell says that the expenses of Goodell alone amount to about $50, which will be lost to the government by the postponement. A telegram was sent to Goodell, telling him not to come, but it did not reach him, as he had already started.

"Y" GLEE CLUB WILL GIVE CONCERT THURSDAY EVENING

At the annual concert by the Glee club of the Young Men's Christian association Thursday evening the club of thirty voices will be assisted by Miss Margery Shackelford, soprano, and Miss Rena Oltman, reader. Membership Secretary A. B. Eaton, who is manager of the club, says that many tickets already have been sold at the association office and at the music departments of Hayden Bros. and Hoop's.

Bear This in Mind.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy by far the best medicine in the market for colds and coughs," says Mrs. Albert Blosser, Lima, O. Many others are of the same opinion. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

BIRTH AND DEATH RATE LESS DURING NOVEMBER

The birth date in the city for November decreased by a large per cent over the birth rate for November of 1913. The records compiled by the vital statistics division follow: Births, November 1914, 188; 1913, 235; deaths November, 1914, 115; 1913, 108.

How to Shed a Rough, Chapped or Botchy Skin

This is what you should do to shed a bad complexion: Spread evenly over the face, covering every inch of skin, a thin layer of ordinary mercolloid wax. Let this stay on over night, washing it off next morning. Repeat daily until your complexion is as clear, soft and beautiful as a young girl's. This result is inevitable, no matter how soiled or withered the complexion. The wax hourly absorbs the filthy surface skin, exposing the lovely young skin beneath. The process is entirely harmless, so little of the old skin coming off at a time. Mercolloid wax is obtainable at any drug store; can cause usually a half-gint with basal makes refreshing wash-lotion. This cleanses the skin quite firm and smooth; indeed, the user's first application erases the wrinkles; the deeper ones soon follow.—Advertisement.

"Jimmie" Sheean, Former Omahan, Filling Big Job

James B. Sheean, appearing as the legal adviser to A. W. Theobald, chairman of the conference committee of railroad general managers meeting in Chicago with the railroad brotherhood chiefs, in arbitrating their differences, is a former Omahan man. He is the same "Jimmie" Sheean who used to be active in city and state politics here on the democratic side and graduated from his local law practice as a member of the Union Pacific legal family into the position of general solicitor for the Omaha road at St. Paul.

Mr. Theobald is general manager of that road. He was selected as chairman of this conference committee some months ago by the Western Association of General Managers, and therefore to "Jimmie" Sheean fell the honor and the big job of looking after the railroads' legal rights in this central, which is to settle a dispute between ninety-eight railroads and 55,000 employes.

Railroads Agree to Build Locust Viaduct at Once

Railroads interested in the construction of the Locust street viaduct have agreed to begin work at once and rush the structure to an early completion. Representatives of the railroads, from Minneapolis, St. Paul and St. Louis, as well as Omaha, met with the city council Monday afternoon and agreed to the city council's plans for the viaduct.

Dying Father Seeks Missing Daughter

S. A. Kepner, 316 Eighth street south, Minneapolis, has written to The Bee for information as to the whereabouts of Miss Alice D. Kepner, whose father is said to be at the point of death. When last heard from Miss Kepner was either in Omaha or Council Bluffs.

Appetite Follows Good Digestion

Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pain known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle, yet positive in action, and quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. For a free trial bottle write Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

RECEPTION FOR MISS PORTER

Farewell Banquet Given Retiring Head of Associated Charities.

WILL GO TO CHICAGO HOME

Efficient Worker Leaving Because She Was Unable to Agree with the Board on the Best Methods.

Twenty-five local charity workers, lunching at the University club, gave Miss Mabel W. Porter, retiring head of the Associated Charities here, a farewell reception. Rabbi Frederick Cohn presided and in closing the meeting paid a brilliant tribute to Miss Porter's ability, conscientiousness and "the monument she leaves here." He said the advisory committee, composed of representatives from the several charity organizations, was her idea and Dr. Ira W. Porter, speaking of the committee, said that where once the charity organizations "were at each other's throats, they now work in closest harmony."

Miss Porter will go to Chicago, from where she came, and will later visit and inspect charity work in several cities, before accepting any other position. Her resignation from the local work followed disagreement with her board over questions of best methods. She struggled vainly to bring about one big charity organization out of several conflicting organizations.

Dr. Porter reported on the Thanksgiving work, saying it was unusually successful. He said without the aid of the men and wagons donated by Captain H. H. Kline of the Salvation Army the large donations, 50 per cent larger than the previous year, could not have been handled. Concerning the Christmas donations Dr. Porter suggested that coal dealers be asked to give coal in quarter-ton quantities.

None of the Associated Charity's board was present.

Defendant Asks Case Be Taken from Jury

In the case of Louise Metala against the Nonpareil Laundry company for $20,000 damages for loss of her right hand in a mangle, the defendant moved that the case be taken from the jury, after introduction of the plaintiff's testimony. Defendant alleged that the girl had been guilty of contributory negligence and had assumed the risk of injury by accepting work at the laundry.

Sayings and Superstitions!

With the march of civilization and thru the acquisition of knowledge many sayings which have been accepted as truisms and many superstitions which seemed fixed and absolute have been challenged and exploded. So it has been with the printed word. One of the greatest fakers we have ever known—when twitted with his prevarications in the public press, remarked to us: "I can show it in black and white, and therefore it must be true." He amassed a fortune and gained the desire of his life, but now there are "none so poor as to do him honor."

Thomas Kilpatrick & Co. Will Explode Another Superstition Wednesday, Dec. 2nd

Is 13 an unlucky number? Let's see! At 8:30 on Wednesday morning we place on sale 13 Pieces, all we have, of a beautiful Broaded Crepe. These goods are 40 inches wide, the colors are new and desirable, many of them are for evening and reception wear. Made to retail at $1.50 per yard. Sold in many places as Silk Crepe, meaning, of course, to convey the impression that they are All Silk.

This is what the faker before referred to would try to do. In this store it is different. We tell you. We won't allow you, indeed, to go away with a wrong impression if we know it. These crepes are mixed with cotton—the silk, however, so carefully thrown on the surface as to give the fabric all the appearance of silk. And if anything the wear will be lengthened by the admixture of the cotton. Wednesday you will get your pick of all the 13 pieces at—

Four Days Remain Wherein You Can Have SKIRTS Made for $1.00

The orders up to now have been phenomenal—give but little attention to dress goods. Nothing added to the yardage, you pay exactly for the length required—nothing added to the price of the goods but "an contraire," as the French say. Many reduced in price for this sale. Now get in your orders. First Measured—First Made.

Look at display of Holiday Cards, Stationery, Books and Novelties. Never such an assortment and never so many desirable articles at little prices.

Novelties From the Pohlson and Other Galleries at Half Usual Prices

Knockers, the welcome kind; quaint conceits in bronze, for guest room doors. Bronze book ends. Desk Sets, Yule Logs, etc., and Plum Puddings in Casserole. These individual New England puddings make a delightful gift for the Bachelor Man, or the Bachelor girl—

"The Proof of the Pudding is in the Eating." Now this old saying is not always true either. Subjected to the higher criticism we find that it is possible to please the palate and to that extent the saying is true—but subjected to the lower criticism and that's the test after all of what we eat—what pleases the palate may not always please the lower regions—but in this case we have applied the test. These puddings please above and below—we know, for we have tried 'em. 60c each, the price. NOT MANY LEFT.

At the Glove Section you will find a case filled with Christmas Suggestions—making buying easy for the man, woman or child. In this store a child can buy as cheap as a man always—and what a comfort to know that your Child is Absolutely Safe. The mornings make the best trading time—but come when you can.
