Something you want for that which you have

It is a very human desire-and one which frequently proves very profitable-to want to exchange that which we have for that which we want.

This brings us to the

SWAPPERS' COLUMN

which is the medium used by Omaha people to make such exchanges.

To watch the "Swappers' Column" carefully is to find just what you are looking for. Or you can hasten results by an ad of your own.

State your requirements clearly, and leave it at The Bee office, or
