Dr. Hellwig Gives Big Iron Crosses to Losing Clubmen

Omaha members of the Hackberry club settled their differences at the traps of the Carter Lake club Thursday afternoon, when a team headed by Jim Rait beat Captain Helwig's team in a match of 1-90 birds per shooter. Fred Hoye was referee and at the close of the shoot Captain Helwig presenter iron crosses to the win-ners. Harry Zimman made the best score and the second best was Bert Mulfinger. who had never shot over the traps before. George Brandels, who was also making his maiden effort at the traps, also did remarkably well. The losers must buy a game dinner for the winners. This is the club which maintains a hunting lodge at Hackberry lake. The scores were:

President Approves Sentence of Hume

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.-President Wilcon has approved the sentence of dismissal from the army imposed upon First Lieutenant John K. Hume, Fifth cavalry, onvicted by general court-martial at Trinidad, Colo., of violating his pledge to abstain from intoxicating liquors and of deliberate absence without leave. Hume rose from the ranks.
