One of the most delightful parties ever given by the Elks took place Thursday evening at the Elks' home. The party was informal and the program included musical entertainment, bridge whist and dancing. About 600 people were present. The musical program took place in the lodge room. It consisted of gems from popular grand operas, the story of the peras being given by Mrs. Grant W. Williams before each musical number. Miss Minna Meyer sang four selections from "Tannhauser," her accompaniment being played by Miss Helen Sadilek, Mrs. Root sang contralto solos from Sameon and Delila" and she was most warmly applauded. Miss Sadilek played the accompaniment for Mrs. Root, The great hit of the evening was made by the tigoletto quartet," under the direction Mrs. Millie Ryan. The quartet consisted of Miss Bertha Coffey of Nebraska City, Miss Edna Miller, Mr. Ray Donahey and Mr. W. E. Shafer, Mr. Paul Brandt, Mesdames W. Shields and Fin-Reese playing the accompaniment. They nev were the guests of the club. The rendered this world famous and immortal musical composition in a manner worthy of professionals and when the selections were concluded they received a storm of applause from the audience, compelling a repetition from the latter part of the selection. Prof. Alexander Emslie sang a
